PERILS OF AMERICA.

Archbishop Ireland Gives Warning.

Her Profuseness of Favors a Source of Temptation to Socialist Freaks.

Ambitious Schemers and the Union Labor Lawbreaker Both Condemned.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

COUNCIL BLUFFS (Iowa) Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Archbishop Ireland, who responded to the toast "Our Country," at the annual banquet of the Society of the Army of Tennessee, in the Grand Hotel, this evening, handled socialistic doctrines without gloves. His eloquent address was very largely devoted to this subject.

"Her very profuseness of favors begets perils for America," he said, "unless her people be taught to use them wisely. The multitudes become the rulers, and at times the multitudes bend too readily to monetary excitements. Hence the extreme need of the proper formation of the public mind.

"Injury irreparable may be done during a brief interval of social or political insanity, and a frequency of such conditions, however brief each one may be, too easily degenerates into abiding habit."

RELIGIOUS NEED OVERLOOKED.

The speaker declared that religion does not retain among the people the supremacy it once had, and that, without religion, no nation ever flourished or endured.

"As one of the accidental consequences of material prosperity," he said, "I note the spirit of social restlessness which now agitates the country. It is said that too much prosperity comes to some, too little to others, hence new methods are called in for the distribution of wealth and the enjoyment it procures. We must not assert that present conditions are perfect but we must assert that nothing should be said or done subversive of public order, destructive of the spirit of the country and its institutions, and in the discussions taking place and acts following them, the fundamental principles of right, reason and of the Constitution and laws of the republic must not be forgotten or set aside.

"Nothing must be authorized or permitted that fans passion and renders difficult the composure of mind needed in such discussions.

"The wild anarchist, the would-be assassin are the public enemies of society, whom to tolerate is to tolerate open sedition."

THE LABOR ENEMY.

"An enemy, too, of public order is the workman who, refusing to sell his own labor, deters by violence a brother workman from his offering of his labor, as are even in a greater degree the strong and the powerful, who override the law of the land in carrying out the schemes of their ambition.

SACRED RIGHTS.

"Private property, the right of every man to own and dispose of the fruits of brain and of hand must ever be regarded as sacred and inviolable. It is the corner-stone of the social structure. That, in the holding of private property, there be inequality is inevitable. Men are not and never will be equal in the power that builds up property, in the economy that preserves and increases it, hence they will never be equal in the amount of property they do or can possess.

SCHEMES ARE INSULTS.

"The preaching of Utopias in remedy of this inequality, the proposal of schemes which ignore the nature of man and the vital conditions of human society are an insult no less than an injury to the individual whom they fain would beguile by their will-o-the-wisp deception.

"A chief panacea put before us is common ownership, through city, State or nation, of the chief agencies of productivity and of the transportation of its results. Let all be on their guard. Common ownership in one direction leads readily to common ownership in another, the more so when the purpose really held in mind by the many is to grasp wealth without much personal effort; to despoil others to make up for one's own deficiencies."

The Society of the Army of Tennessee elected Gen. G. M. Dodge president and selected Vicksburg, Miss., as the place of meeting in 1907.

A resolution strongly denouncing the statement of an orator at the recent function at Gen. U. S. Grant's monument to the effect that Gen. Grant aspired to a dictatorship at the close of the Civil War was adopted.

Gen. O. O. Howard, Gen. John C. Black and Mrs. John A. Logan joined in the denunciation of this aspersion as a calumny, and Gen. Frederick D. Grant took occasion to declare that it was without the least foundation in fact; that his father never thought of such a thing.

FOLLOWS RULE OF DIVINE LAW.

DRUGGIST ABIDES BY BIBLE AND PROSPERS.

He Will Not Sell Cough Drops or Permit Telephone Messages and Displays Window Sign That on the Sabbath Only Necessities Will Be Sold in Emergencies.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 9—[Exclusive Dispatch.] When Charles M. Sheldon of Topeka, Kan., wrote "In His Steps, Or What Would Jesus Do" he created no end of interest. In Chicago there is a man who practically lives the character so vividly portrayed by the author in his religious book. That man is Oliver J. Freeman, owner of a drug store at No. 1127 Sheffield avenue.

In his business Freeman measures all things with the question "What would Jesus do?" and it is no longer any experiment with him. At first he found the road rough, but today he has built up his business.

In Freeman's store no cigars or tobacco can be had at any price. They are not in stock and nothing can be purchased on the Sabbath except prescriptions that are absolutely necessary. Not even a cough drop nor a stick of gum is sold there on the Sabbath and telephone service is not permitted on that day, except to call physicians in urgent cases.

In each of the display windows a sign is strung each Sunday which reads:

"Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy.

"Nothing but necessary articles sold on Sunday."

RAIN-FLOODS RAVAGE EUROPE.

VAR DAMS BREAK AND INUNDATE ITALIAN TOWNS.

Much Damage in Vicinity of Nice. Tunnel Falls in Under Mount Olimpino—Two Landslides Reported. Houses and Bridges Collapse—River Overflows.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NICE (France) Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] There have been terrible ravages by floods, caused by the recent heavy rains, at every place in the vicinity of Nice. The Var Valley reports were by far the worst. The damage is unprecedented.

The town of Puget Theniers has been inundated owing to the bursting of one of the Var dams.

Part of the tunnel under Mount Olimpino, along the railway line between Como and the Swiss frontier town of Chiasso, has fallen in.

There have been two landslides on the line.

Between Bergamo and San Pellegrino several houses and bridges have collapsed. The Lago d'Iseo is swollen and is beginning to overflow its banks. At Verona the River Adige threatens an inundation.

FAVORS NEW SYSTEM.

Author and Banker Says Country Has Outgrown Bond-secured Currency Arrangement.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—At the meeting of the New York chapter of the American Institute of Bank Clerks last evening the question of currency reform was discussed by Charles A. Conant, author of "The Principles of Money and Banking."

Mr. Conant declared that the country had outgrown the system of bond-secured currency which originally was only a war measure, like the issue of greenbacks.

"Every other civilized country has a more scientific banking system and it is time for the United States to deal with the question in a time of general confidence instead of waiting for the compulsion of panic and a period of distrust.

"A large stock of paper money, which did not diminish when the demand for it declined, might prove a serious menace to the security of our monetary system," he said.

Mr. Conant's remedy for this menace was the plan recommended by the Chamber of Commerce committee.

VIENNA'S BUTCHERS ALERT.

Austrian Consumers Desire to Try the Quality of American Meat Products, but Are Refused.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

VIENNA, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Butchers will begin agitation next week, against the government's attitude on the meat question.

A prominent dealer asked the Minister of Agriculture to permit experimental importation of 250 American cattle, to be slaughtered at Trieste, so as to enable the Austrian consumers to try the quality of the American product. The Minister curtly refused.

GREEKS KILL BULGARIANS.

SALONICA (European Turkey) Nov. 9.—A Greek band killed twenty-five Bulgarians and burned many houses at the town of Caradjova, near Serres.

ALL WANT OFFICES.

Liberals Send Committee to Urge Haste in Turning Out Moderates.

Governor Is Told That the Offices Belong to Them Since Revolution.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HAVANA, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] An attempt by the Liberals to force the hand of Gov. Magoon today failed utterly. The party leaders, hungry for office and impatient at the American policy of going slow in changing office holders, sent a committee to the Governor to demand more haste in turning the Moderates out and putting the Liberals at the public crib, that the object of the revolution might be realized.

The committee consisted of Señors Alfreda Zayas, Juan Gu, Alberto Gomez, Demetrio Castillo, Jesus Montegudo, and Garcia Velez. They came to the palace like "March as a lion" and left, as March often does, "like a lamb."

MAGOON DISPLAYS PATIENCE.

For two hours Gov. Magoon listened to specific demands, and patiently explained why they could not be granted. In some cases, notably those of certain municipal councils, autocratically changed by President Palma, it was thought a change might be made, after the Governor had had time to look into the facts in each one.

This is not what is wanted. The committee declared no examination is necessary, as the offices belonged to the Liberals and "what was the good" of getting up "successful revolutions" that did not succeed?

CUBANS FULL OF IT.

The Cubans removed from politics are full of the subject tonight, and wonder if this attempt to bulldoze the American Governor by office-seekers will not result in a declaration of an American policy of putting the best men in office, irrespective of politics.

On leaving the palace, however, Gen. Velez said the interview was highly satisfactory, and that Gov. Magoon assured the committee that ne would continue the reforms in the municipal government, and that an election would be held in June. Gen. Velez evaded the question as to what reply Gov. Magoon made to the application for offices.

Gov. Magoon afterward said that he did not deem it appropriate to make any statement as to the conference with the sub-committee. It is generally known, however, that he did not respond to the pressure and make the desired appointments.

THREATEN DEMONSTRATION.

While the Committee on Appointments did not meet tonight to report the result of the conference with Gov. Magoon there was a meeting at the Liberal Club attended by two hundred members of the party, who took part in the recent insurrection. The meeting manifested its strong disapprobation of the Governor's course in not filling vacancies with Liberals, and resolved that if the demands of the party were not promptly complied with, to arrange an anti-Magoon demonstration in the form of a parade and mass meeting, the latter to pass resolutions appealing to the President to recall Gov. Magoon.

Furthermore, the meeting appointed a committee to call upon Gov. Magoon tomorrow and determine the reinstatement of Juan R. O'Farrell, formerly Liberal Mayor of Havana.

PLANTERS FEEL INSECURE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

HAVANA, Nov. 8.—The feeling of insecurity throughout the island is shown by numerous applications by proprietors of sugar plantations for details of American troops to guard the sugar mills during the approaching season. The owners agree to supply free quarters for the troops, hoping to receive such military protection as was customary during Spanish rule during the last revolution. The military authorities have refused to grant many of the applications.

MEXICO GRANTS FINE FISHERIES.

ON SUBTROPICAL COASTS ALL RIGHTS ARE CONFERRED.

Mining Engineer of El Paso Acquires Oyster Beds and Piscatorial Privileges on Both Shores of Southern Republic, Including All Inland Lakes for Twenty Miles.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

EL PASO (Tex.) Nov. 8.—Perhaps the greatest monopoly of its kind in the world has just been acquired by John C. Miller, a mining engineer of El Paso, Tex., through a concession granted by the government of the republic of Mexico, to the exclusive fishing rights on the west coast of Mexico from Guaymas on the north to Manzanillo on the south, and on the east coast from parallel 24 on the north to the Bay of Campeche on the south, including all the rivers, bays, inlets and also the lakes for twenty miles inland. This covers, perhaps, the finest fishing and oyster territory in the world.

FUTURES ARE LEGAL.

ST. PAUL (Minn.) Nov. 9.—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals handed down a decision today upholding the validity of contracts for the purchase and sale of grain for future delivery as it is practiced by the Chicago Board of Trade and the Merchants' Exchange of St. Louis. The case was that of Thomas A. Cleage, Jr., against W. H. Laidley and others.

PRESIDENT IS WELL ON WAY TO PANAMA.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BALTIMORE, Nov. 9.—The wireless station here has been in constant communication with the battleship Louisiana on which the President Roosevelt is en route to Panama. The last word received said: "All well."

TRANSFER FROM MAYFLOWER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Advices received in Washington, today, show that the President, who is aboard the battleship Louisiana, headed for the Isthmus of Panama, is well on his way there.

The transfer from the yacht Mayflower, on which the start was made from Washington to the Louisiana, took place last night in Chesapeake Bay. The ship passed out the Capes to sea early this morning, and at noon passed Cape Hatteras.

The latest news given out by Secretary Loeb concerning the whereabouts of the vessel was contained in the following dispatch from Captain Couden, commanding the Louisiana: "At noon, the Louisiana passed Cape Hatteras. Sea smooth. All well."

WILL KEEP HIM POSTED.

Secretary Loeb expects but one message a day from the President, unless circumstances intervene which require more frequent communications. Any matter which requires the President's special attention will be communicated to him by wireless telegraph.

Small bulletins of the important news of the day will also be made up in Washington and sent to the President, so that he may be kept accurately and constantly informed of what is going on in the United States.

COMMERCIAL CLUBS GOING TO PANAMA.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Members of the Chicago Commercial Club and the Commercial Associations of St. Louis, Cincinnati and Boston will leave for Panama in February to study conditions there.

Secretary Taft was a guest at luncheon at the Chicago Club at noon, today, and met representatives of the Chicago and Cincinnati organizations.

The details of the trip were not discussed, but the men at the luncheon decided, before the Secretary left the city, that they would take the trip.

It is acknowledged the representatives of the organizations will furnish the nucleus of a party that will include business men from all parts of the United States.

TAFT BROACHED THE PLAN.

The plan was broached by the Secretary several months ago. He delivered an address at a banquet given in his honor by the St. Louis Commercial Association. At that time, he said he thought it would be well for the merchants of the United States to learn just what advantage they would receive by the building of the canal.

Taft said the government stood ready to furnish a vessel that would transport the merchants.

The St. Louis organization took the matter up with the representatives of other cities and when it was learned that the Secretary of War was coming to Chicago, it was then determined to remind him of his promise.

BANK HAS TOO MUCH MONEY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The directors of the State Bank of this city today declared a dividend of 900 per cent. payable in cash on the banks' capitalization of $100,000. The directors also declared the unusual annual dividend of 50 per cent. The large surplus the bank amassed became unwieldly, because of its small capitalization and in order to obviate this the directors decided to distribute the surplus in the form of a dividend. It also was decided to increase the capitalization of the bank from $100,000 to $1,000,000.

OLD PULLMANS MUST PAY TAX.

STOVE WOOD PLEA IS BARRED, SAYS CITY ATTORNEY.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Action to secure taxes due the city on the $25,000,000 surplus of the Pullman Car Company was begun by Corporation Counsel Lewis today.

James Hamilton Lewis declares that when the property was up before the Board of Review last summer it was represented that the fund was simply a book-keeping account and represented nothing but a lot of old cars fit only for stove wood.

"Two of the vice-presidents swore to this," said former Representative Lewis. "The company will pay the tax on that money and any one who take a part of it now will take it with knowledge that there is a tax claim pending against it. This claim will be paid if I have to proceed against every individual stockholder."

RAILWAY WAR A SOCIAL ONE.

FISH-HARRIMAN FEUD DIVIDES "SMART SET."

Newport Society Expected to Be Split Up for Some Seasons as a Result of the Fight for Control of the Illinois Central Railroad—Mrs. Astor Involved.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEWPORT (R. I.) Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] That this social capital cannot fail to feel the aftermath of the fight for the control of the Illinois Central Railroad is the opinion of many members of the "smart set" today.

It is believed that the next season, and for some years to come, society will be divided, as it was at the meeting of the board of directors of the Illinois Central meeting, with Mr. and Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish on one side and Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Col. and Mrs. John Jacob Astor and Robert W. G. Goelet, all of whom have villas here, on the other.

Mrs. Fish, who heretofore has been the strongest social leader here, will have the support of Mrs. Herman Oelrichs, Mrs. Oliver Belmont, James Dewolf Cumming and the ubiquitous Harry Lehr.

Mrs. John Jacob Astor has never yielded to Mrs. Fish's social sway, but until the past summer Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt associated herself with Mrs. Fish in many enterprises.

FUND FOR STRANDED BAND.

HONOLULU, Nov. 9.—A popular subscription is being made for the purpose of providing funds to bring home the Hawaiian Band, which met with financial reverses in its tour of the United States.

RECORD FOR WIRELESS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SEATTLE, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] When the cruiser Boston left the yard and was nearing the mouth of Puget Sound, November 1, the wireless telegraph operator at the Puget Sound navy yard tried all evening to get into communication with her. The Boston did not hear the call, but a letter received from the Mare Island wireless station states that, at 8 o'clock in the evening of November 1, that station caught the message from the Puget Sound station to the Boston.

The letter repeated the message and gave the initial of the operator sending it, so there could be no mistake.

This makes the long-distance record for the wireless.

HARRIMAN SYSTEM.

To Be Investigated as a Merger.

Interstate Commerce Commission Contemplates a Sweeping Inquiry.

One Member Says Organization Is Like Northern Securities Company.

Spokane's Complaint of Discrimination to Be Considered in January.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—A general investigation of what is known as "the Harriman system" of railroads, under the authority conferred by law, is one of the subjects which has been discussed for some time by the Interstate Commerce Commission, and that body, it is said, really stands committed to an inquiry.

"We have found," a member of the commission said tonight, "that this system in some of its features is not unlike the Northen Securities Company, which was dissolved through the interposition of the Attorney General of the United States."

Any steps which may be taken by the commission along the lines referred to, will be, it is said, under the general powers of the commission conferred by law, and not because of any immediate specific complaints of a violation of the statutes.

SPOKANE'S COMPLAINT.

In January, if time permits, the commission will take up the complaint of the municipality of Spokane against the Northern Pacific, the Great Northern, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, the Union Pacific and the Oregon Short Line railroads, involving alleged discrimination in charging a higher rate for a shorter than for a longer haul.

This complaint was the first filed with the commission under the amended Interstate Commerce Act. It is regarded as of considerable importance, as its disposition will logically have a bearing on the whole question of transportation in the West from the Canadian border to Mexico and Chicago and St. Louis to the Pacific Coast.

It is also of importance in connection with the investigation of the Harriman system whose territory and connecting lines cover a large portion of the West.

HALL SIGNAL EXPANSION.
COMPANY TO RAISE $1,000,000.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch] Directors of the Hall Signal Company are considering a plan for an increase in capital stock and a readjustment of the company's finances, which includes the raising of $1,000,000 to extend the plant and increase its facilities.

The Harriman lines contracted for automatic block signals for 1500 miles of track. By the end of the year, the mail lines from Los Angeles to San Francisco will be protected by block signals.

DENEEN LOSES ON NEGRO JUDGE.

CHICAGO "MACHINE" WORKED "BLACK BELT" NOT WISELY.

Colored Candidate Was "Scratched" so Freely in Spite of Promises That Negro Voters Have Changed Their Attitude—The "Tenderloin" District for "His Honor."

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] As a result of the clamor following the election of F. L. Barnett, a negro, as one of the Municipal Court Judges, it is probable that the Deneen "machine" will lose their newly-gained control of the Second Ward, in which Barnett lives.

This ward, which under the leadership of former Judge Haney was for years an anti-Deneen ward, was gained by the Deneen men at the primaries, and Chauncey Dewey was elected County Committeeman.

Much of Dewey's strength was gained in the "black belt," on the promise that he would secure the nomination of a negro for one of the judgeships. Since Barnett was heavily scratched, however, the attitude of the negroes has changed.

Barnett, who is the husband of Ida Wells Barnett, promoter of an anti-lynching league, may be sent to preside at the Harrison-street Court and dispense justice to gilded youths and rounders taken overnight in the "tenderloin."

GIRL KILLED BY GUN.

TOLEDO (O.) Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A 17-year-old boy chased two girls around the house with a shotgun, today, and it exploded, killing 12-year-old Lottie Pilliod, whose father is a prominent man in Toledo, being president of the brewery merger.

HENEY DERIDES RUEF IN HIS LEGAL LORE.

Grafter Idol Claims Constitutional Amendment Two Made District Attorney a County Office and Meets Derision of His Prosecutor.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Abe Ruef and his gang claim that the last provision of Constitutional Amendment No. 2 confers power on the Supervisors to remove Dist.-Atty. Langdon. But Heney laughs at the claim of Abe Ruef.

He says: "The contention of Abe Ruef has just as much merit in it as other contentions he has put forth. The provision has to do with municipal affairs and does not refer to county officials. The District Attorneyship is a county office. Langdon is not a city official."

In an argument before Judge Sewell on injunction proceedings, attorneys for Langdon cited authorities and New York Supreme Court decisions to show that the District Attorney was not a city officer, and therefore beyond the pale of the provisions of the city charter.

It is on this contention that Ruef has been fighting in order to oust Langdon and usurp the office of District Attorney.

Attorney J. J. Barrett says: "In my opinion the passage of the amendment leaves the question just where it was originally. The question is whether or not the District Attorney is a municipal or a county official. It is still an open question and the provision of the amendment does not alter the status of the case."

Ruef says: "The law is on our side without this amendment. The Board of Supervisors has power to remove the District Attorney. This amendment merely strengthens our position. It makes it doubly strong. This city and county government is a municipality. There is no question about that."

CHOOSES JURY FOREMAN.

JUDGE INTERPRETS THE LAW.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—B. P. Oliver was today chosen foreman of the new grand jury.

In his instructions to the newly-impaneled body today Judge Graham said that they must find indictments against all men when competent evidence is presented.

He read those sections of the code referring to the duties of the grand jury and the methods of procedure, and explained to them that the grand jury is not bound to examine the evidence of a defendant, but may do so before returning an indictment. B. P. Oliver, the foreman of the grand jury, is a business man of this city.

HOLDS VOTING MACHINES.

GRAND JURY TO INVESTIGATE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—It is stated that the first work to be undertaken by the inquisitorial body is an investigation of the voting machine in several precincts, the vote of which, it is alleged, had been tampered with in behalf of some judiciary candidates.

The machines in question were taken charge of today by the police and representatives of the State Bar Association and will be safeguarded until the grand jury finishes its investigation in the precincts in which the alleged irregularities are said to have occurred.

HUGE WAVES DASH TEN MEN TO DEATH.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHARLOTTETOWN (P. E. I.) Nov. 9.—A special tonight announces ten men drowned from the bark Sovinto, wrecked off Priest Pond.

Four bodies have been recovered.

One of the four men, aged seventy, unable to endure the terrible exposure, leaped overboard and was drowned. Two others were washed overboard, but the fourth held on all day. Yesterday he was observed from shore, walking back and forward holding on to a line. At nightfall, he seized a plank and leaped into the raging breakers and by a miracle escaped destruction, being dashed on shore by huge wave and rescued by willing hands, uninjured, after sixty hours of exposure.

The Minto lifeboat was taken there but is of no use now, as the last man has left the ship.

Of the crew of twenty-two, twelve were rescued.

Terrible scenes have been enacted since the vessel first struck three of the masts going by board, and the vessel breaking in two.

The captain reached shore after a terrible experience, being one of fifteen who left the vessel in a boat which capsized, throwing them into the sea. One man got back to the wreck, seven landed safely. At least ten of the entire crew are now dead.

BABES STARVED AND BOYS HORSEWHIPPED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] N. H. Harriman, former leader of the "Holy Ghost," and the "United States Colony of Shiloh," in Maine, in a special report to Gov. Cobb of Maine, summarizes the exposé of Shiloh conditions in a powerful manner, reviewing in detail many of the strange actions of the community.

Harriman charges that families are separated and broken up, babies taken from their mothers to break their strong maternal affection, and kept away until they die of starvation. He also charges that many babies have been starved to death, and that boys have been horsewhipped until their backs bled, the scars showing for two years afterward. He declares the doctors are kept from treating children, and parents are prevented from sending for physicians.

DEALS MURPHY A SEVERE BLOW.

MAYOR M'CLELLAN APPOINTS JEROME REILLY DEPUTY.

Tammany's Boss Had Decided That Latter's Brother-in-Law Should Not Be Recognized as Member of the Organization's Executive Committee.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In the appointment of Jerome Reilly as deputy commissioner of street cleaning today by Commissioner Craven, Mayor McClellan dealt Charles Murphy and his lieutenants in Tammany a severe blow.

Reilly is the brother-in-law of Percival E. Nagle, who carried the Thirtieth Assembly District for the Mayor in the primaries last September, over John F. Cowan, Murphy's candidate.

Murphy has determined that Nagle shall not be recognized as a member of the Executive Committee of Tammany, and is preparing to prevent him from taking his seat under the rule adopted several years ago to exclude William S. Devery from the committee after he had defeated Frank Goodwin in the old Ninth District.

Reilly entered the street cleaning department when Nagle was appointed commissioner, during the Van Wyck administration, as secretary to the commissioner, at a salary of $3000 a year, and has served in that capacity ever since.

Mayor McClellan today announced that he had appointed Lawson Purdy president of the Board of Taxes and Assessments to succeed the late Frank O'Donnell. In announcing this appointment, Mayor McClellan said: "He is the same kind of a Democrat that I am."

Purdy is a lawyer and an expert on real estate and taxation, as he has devoted much time and attention to the question of taxation. He is now serving as a member of a special State Tax Commission appointed by Gov. Higgins, composed of Senators, Assemblymen and professional men.

HEARING IS RESUMED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 9.—The hearing of the depositions of the defense in the ouster suit of the State of Missouri against the Standard Oil, Waters-Pierce and Republic Oil Companies was resumed today. L. Eckert, general manager of the Waters-Pierce Company, who was the sole witness yesterday, was again on the witness stand today.

Eckert admitted that the Standard Oil Company of Indiana controls the Waters-Pierce, the Republic and the St. Louis International Oil Company, although the subsidy companies are active competitors for business in St. Louis. He admitted that the agreement had been made between the Waters-Pierce and the Standard companies regarding which territory that company was to do business in, and told of the allotment of territory. He also testified that the selling prices of the Waters-Pierce and the other companies were dictated by the Standard.

Under the further rigid examination of Atty-Gen. Hadley, the witness testified that the Waters-Pierce, Republic and St. Louis International companies often cut the prices to obtain the largest showing to be made to the head company, the Standard.

MAUDE ADAMS'S THEATER CAR.

BOSTON, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Maude Adams, now playing in Boston in "Peter Pan," is having built from her own designs the only theater car in the world, which will be completed the latter part of December. It will largely relieve the transcontinental tours and one-night stands of their traditional discomforts. The car combines living apartments with a completely equipped theater, and will cost $40,000. Everything in the theater section is an exact counterpart of an ordinary theater in miniature size.

SHANNON COMPANY'S OFFICES.

BOSTON, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Shannon Mining Company's executive offices are to be moved back to Boston from New York November 24, following the annual meeting, and located on Milk street. N. Lamster will be elected president.

PAINE'S HOME IS SHRINE SITE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The little thatched cottage at East Hampton, L. I., in which John Howard Paine, author of "Home, Sweet Home," lived in his early years and which when he was a wanderer on the face of the globe inspired his immortal ballad, is to be destroyed. The site on which it has stood so many years has been purchased and the structure will be torn down and a church erected in its place.

CLARK AND SCHWAB.

Special Train Bearing the Two and Their Parties Is Headed for Los Angeles.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LAS VEGAS (Nev.) Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A special train carrying the private cars of Senator Clark and Charles Schwab, with a party of mining men and capitalists, is leaving Las Vegas for Los Angeles tonight. The party has just returned from the Bullfrog and Greenwater districts, where mining operations of unusual scope are being planned. Among others, are extensive developments in the Montgomrey Shoshone and Polaris mines, consolidating the Greenwater copper properties and building a smelter to handle the ores of that district.

Schwab and party have been in the district since Sunday. They were joined early this morning by Senator Clark; all returning to Los Angeles, presumably to mature projects.

STRENGTH AND HONOR TO NAVY.

BOTH SHOULD BE GIVEN IT, SAYS PORTER.

General Declares Object of Organization Is to Educate Public as to Necessity and Usefulness of Strong Marine—Convention in February to Be Held in Washington.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The Navy League of the United States held its annual meeting yesterday and finished up the day with a banquet last night.

Gen. Horace Porter, president of the league, presided. In a short speech he said it was the purpose of the league to educate the people to the necessity of a strong navy for the United States. He said the disrespect which on several occasions had been shown the uniforms of sailors of the United States navy would cease if public opinion were in favor of the navy, and if its great use was realized by the country.

At the annual meeting arrangements were made for a general convention to be held in Washington next February.

BATTLESHIP BOILERS BAD.

DEFECTIVE TUBES COST UNCLE SAM $100,000.

Three Men Indicted for Conspiracy to Defraud Government—Seven Men-of-War and Two Armored Cruisers Are Fitted Out With Weak Steel.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 9, [Exclusive Dispatch:] Frank L. Emmett, James Jay Dunn and Charles L. Close were indicted today by the Federal Grand Jury for a conspiracy to defraud the United States government, the cases growing out of an allegation that defective boiler tubes had been furnished to the government by the Shelby Steel Tube Company, with which concern the three men were connected.

According to the indictments, there are seven battleship and two armored cruisers of United States government now fitted with defective boiler tubes. Ten thousand defective steel boiler tubes were furnished that cost $100,000.

JOHN C. WELLING DEAD.

After an illness which dates back to the annual meeting of the road, three weeks ago, John Colvin Welling, vice-president of the Illinois Central and in that capacity director of its accounting department since 1890, died this afternoon at his home on Greenwood avenue. While the immediate cause of Welling's death was acute bronchitis, friends say that his condition was superinduced by worry over his inability to attend the New York meeting of the directorate, where he hoped to assist Stuyvesant Fish in his fight with the Harriman faction in the board.

RELIGION IN SCHOOLS.

Religious agitation in the public schools again became an issue in the Board of Education, today, when charges were presented to the School Management Committee, that principals in certain schools are stirring up anti-Christian sentiment and trying to promulgate the "principles of Mary Baker Eddy."

SHOT FOR A DEER.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MARQUETTE (Mich.) Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] With the deer season not opening until tomorrow, the first hunting fatality in Upper Michigan has already been recorded. Mistaken for a deer, Lee Hall, a prominent attorney of Ionia, Mich., was shot and instantly killed in the woods near Fibre, Chippewa county, by S. C. Miller, a well-known lumberman. Under a special statute a killing of this kind is deemed manslaughter, with a maximum penalty, on conviction of ten years in prison.

"UNCLE BOB" GREEN DEAD.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NASHVILLE (Tenn.) Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Robert Green, better known to turfmen throughout the country as "Uncle Bob" and the last link connecting the present with the famous past of the Belle Meade stock farm, is dead at advanced age. He was the faithful servitor of Gen. Harding and Gen. Jackson, and it was upon his advice that many a champion performer was purchased at the Belle Meade thoroughbred sales.

FIVE-MASTER IN DISTRESS.

Schooner Louis Waterlogged Off Columbia's Mouth.

Rescuer Finds Race Unknown to the Whites.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ASTORIA, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The five-masted schooner Louis is waterlogged off the mouth of the Columbia River, and while it is believed that the crew is in no immediate danger, yet with a heavy southwest gale and a strong northerly wind blowing, it is probable she will go ashore on this side of Cape Flattery before morning.

The Louis left here November 2 with a cargo of lumber for San Francisco, loaded at Knappton mill for the Hammond Lumber Company.

Yesterday morning, upon the arrival of the steamer C. R. Holmes from Port Angeles, Rock reported having been in company with the Louis at 5 o'clock the previous evening, ten miles west of the mouth of the Columbia.

The Louis signalled that the craft was waterlogged and needed assistance.

It is believed that evening the two vessels separated, and the Louis has not been reported since.

Tugs will start out in search in the morning.

Engine Jumps Track.

SAN JOSE, Nov. 9.—As train No. 26 from San Francisco was coming into the depot here at 12:30 today, the engine left the track and dashed into a pipe stand, the impact throwing it completely over on its side. Engineer and fireman jumped and escaped injury.

Whalers Arrive.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—The whalers Thrasher and Alice Knowles have arrived in this port from the north. The Thrasher spent two seasons in the Arctic. Her catch was 175 barrels of sperm oil, 1800 pounds of bone, some skins of fox and bear, and 235 pounds of walrus tusks. The Knowles has on board 700 barrels of oil and 1250 pounds of bone.

Child Burns to Death.

OAKLAND, Nov. 9.—Grace Paulsen, the 10-year-old daughter of Chris and Mrs. Paulsen of the city, was burned to death in the family home last night. Mrs. Paulsen is in a hospital suffering from burns from which it is believed she cannot recover. The child and her mother received the burns through the explosion of a kerosene lamp at midnight, just after the conclusion of a card party.

Indian Has Election Returns.

RENO, Nov. 9.—Tom Bigfoot, an Indian runner to whom the election ballots and returns of the Woner Mining District, sixty miles from Fallon, were given Wednesday morning, has disappeared and a crowd of deputy sheriffs are scouring the country, sixty miles east of Reno for him. Upon the returns depend the fate of the candidates for judge in the second district and the fate of several Churchill county candidates.

Assessee Insurance Shares.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—The directors of the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company voted today to levy an assessment of $300 a share upon the stock of the company and to authorize the financing of the holdings of the company so that a final installment of 20 cents may be paid soon. Mysterious Prisoner, Elaborately Manicured, to Face Grand Jury, Accused of Forging and Uttering Long Line of Checks—Has Numerous Aliases.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BENNINGTON (Vt.) Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Debonaire and dashing, elaborately manicured, a prisoner of mystery is confined in jail here waiting for his appearance before the grand jury, charged with making and uttering forged checks. He is believed by the police to be the much-wanted Elwood B. Moore, who has a trail of forged checks scattered all over the country in large cities and small towns.

The First National Bank of Georgetown, Ill., has heard from him on several occasions, as both "Handly" and "Saunders," while Pinkertons want him as J. A. Frazier, which signature has appeared on a number of worthless checks.

He also is alleged to have a long bigamous record, and several wives are seeking him, one in Detroit, whom he bamboozled into marriage twice, later robbing her of clothing and money. Another wife is located in Maine. Jailed with him is a woman also said to be his wife, charged also with uttering forged checks. They are booked at the jail as E. C. Smith and Mrs. E. C. Smith.

Cromwell Locks Horns With Advocate Untermeyer.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Frederick Burnham, president of the Mutual Reserve Life Insurance Company, and George Burnham and George D. Eldredge, vice-presidents of the same company, will be put on trial in the supreme Court next Monday on a charge of forgery and grand larceny. The day was fixed by Justice Greenbaum on application of Dist.-Atty. Jerome. The motion was not opposed by the defendants' counsel.

President Cromwell asserted that the charges that any of the company's funds had been expended for campaign purposes were baseless and simply grew out of Untermeyer's imagination.

Cromwell asserted that Farreiley has no property rights in the action, being simply a creditor.

"Has he not a right to take part in the election?" brought in Untermeyer.

"I am not questioning the defendant's rights in that respect, but on the broad grounds of the law," replied Cromwell.

"I am not interposing any legal barriers, but I assert that the company has complied with the law of 1906 and has not violated the provisions of any other law. It is inconceivable that we are to stand helpless while assassins of repudiation stab us in the back and not protect ourselves from the assaults of one hundred men or a dozen groups of men who might seek to obtain control of these vast interests."

"Do you maintain that a campaign can be carried on at the company's expense?" asked Untermeyer.

"No," replied Cromwell.

Cromwell argued that there was nothing in the documents before the court indicating that the company had done a single thing save to comply with the law.

"Its whole attitude," declared Cromwell, "has been that of dignity and reserve, and its instructions were those of helpfulness to the opposition, but it did say we believe in the administration ticket and did not believe in the opposition ticket. Out of the 500o agents of the company not a single man I know has had a voice of disapproval of the management."

Cromwell said that the opposition campaign had been one of vituperation and slander.

"Anybody who attempts to oppose these financial pirates," said Mr. Untermeyer in reply, "is subjected to vituperation and abuse in the interest of men who six months ago were doing their best to keep out of prison. Now they are attacking honest policy holders and also Gov. Pennypacker of Pennsylvania and Gov. Roberts of Connecticut, who are on the international committee to protect hundreds of policy holders in their States. Another member of the committee is Judge Parker."

"Is he a policy holder?" asked Cromwell.

"Yes, and if he was not," replied Mr. Untermeyer, "he is a decent citizen and would give his time and services to route this gang. Nicholas Longworth is also a member of the committee, and his name is a guarantee of decency. He is not engaged in an attempt to rob the company, but in the effort to kick out men who ought to be kicked out."

Untermeyer referred to the lobbying of the company's agents at Albany and told for the first time what he said was the history of the way the Legislature was forced in one day to reverse its action on the White amendment. He said he had telephoned Gov. Higgins and Senator Armstrong that unless the publicity feature was restored the international committee would disband and that the Republican party might take the consequences, and that there was a caucus that night and the bill restored to its original form, but in a mutilated way.

Untermeyer declared that the company's lobbyists had made voting as difficult as possible, and that the Armstrong legislation was cumbrous and weak, and that the company was corrupting the election with the aid of their 6000 agents, who were circulating falsehoods all over the world which the committee was powerless to counteract.

INJUNCTION CAME TOO LATE.

REVOCATION PRECEDED IT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

FRANKFORT (Ky.) Nov. 9.—Attorneys representing the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York and President Charles A. Peabody of that company, today secured from the Franklin county Circuit Court an injunction directed against State Insurance Commissioner Prewett, restraining him from revoking the company's license to do business in the Kentucky field.

The notice of injunction was served on the commissioner today. Commissioner Prewett, however, stated that the license was revoked last night.

BOY BANDIT ROBS TRAVELERS POLITELY.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A lone boy bandit, weighing scarcely 110 pounds, held up the Golden State Limited, the fast Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific train, last night, near Slater, Mo., and, telling the passengers that he was "from Missouri," robbed the rear Pullman car, forcing the porter to collect in his cap the booty from the occupants of each berth.

The boy allowed the women in the car to go unmolested, saying that "Jesse James never robbed ladies."

After securing about $70 from the passengers, he lined up the Pullman conductor, flagman and porter, and prepared to invade the other cars, but was thwarted by the conductor, who, as he entered the forward car at the head of the line, snapped the lock and shut out the bandit.

The youth then pulled the bell-rope, shouting "Good night, kiddos," and disappeared in the gloom.

The hold-up furnished one of the most remarkable stories in the history of western crime. During the time he was robbing the passengers, the bandit, according to their stories, displayed remarkable coolness, and even jollied with the train crew as he forced it to assist him at the point of his revolvers. He could have secured a quantity of jewelry, but declared he did not want trinkets.

The train was running at a high rate of speed, and lurched and jerked as the grotesque procession filed through the aisles. When the end of the car was reached, the bandit made the porter count the money. After seeing what a small amount he had secured, he seemed disappointed, and then decided to go into the next car.

Among the passengers on the car were Mrs. F. B. Blair and her daughter Emily, of Cedar street, Chicago.

OTHERS WHO DISGORGED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 9.—According to the local officers of the Pullman company the robber secured but $65. Among the three men forced by the robber to disgorge was E. R. Slagle of Kansas City, assistant superintendent of the Pullman company.

The robber first encountered L. S. Pearson, the Pullman conductor; C. W. Roller, a flagman; R. Wood, a negro porter, all of Chicago. Leveling two revolvers at the trio of trainmen, the robber commanded them to proceed ahead of him and wake up the passengers. As his command was carried out, the robber, forcing the conductor, porter and flagman ahead of him, secured what booty he could in a hurried march through the car.

Two other men robbed were J. A. Jessem of New York and W. L. Holt of California.

Early this morning officers were started out from Glasgow, Slater, Kansas City and other near-by places to trace the robber. The territory in which he worked is thickly settled, and it will be difficult for him to escape.

PULLMAN CONDUCTOR'S STORY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 9.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Armstrong, Mo., says that Pullman Conductor Searson made the following statement after the train arrived here this morning:

"When the robber walked up the steps of the rear sleepers, as we pulled out of Slater, and pointed two revolvers at my head, I could do nothing but comply with his demands. He quietly told me to go ahead of him, and with the negro porter's assistance, get all the passengers' money. I told Wood the fellow evidently meant business, and the trembling porter followed me.

"After we had awakened all those in the rear car, the robber told us to pass into the next one.

"Wood and I hurriedly passed into the second sleeper, and then I slammed the door and locked it before the bandit knew what was taking place.

"While I called to other trainmen and passengers, I felt the car brakes grinding, and the train stopped. I saw the robber leap from the last car, and run quickly into the woods."

FREIGHT EQUIPMENT ON A GRAND SCALE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—The Tribune says: "Prompted by the congestion of traffic and the car shortage for this year, the heads of the main lines are making purchases of freight equipment for 1907 on a grand scale.

"It was announced yesterday that they now have orders in for $21,000,000 worth of refrigerator, flat and gondola cars, all of which, it is expected, will be delivered before the season of heavy traffic next year.

"The total number of freight cars ordered by them, but not yet delivered, is 16,600. Of these, 6600 are refrigerator cars. These will be of the most modern type, and will cost $1600 each.

"About six hundred of them will be delivered before January 1, and the rest have been promised at the rate of 500 a month during the first of the months of next year.

"Of all that have been received the Harriman lines will own a total of 7470 refrigerator cars. Heretofore they have used annually 4000 to 5000 belonging to the Armour Car Line Company."

DETECTIVE IS KILLED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ALBUQUERQUE (N. M.) Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] C. A. Caldwell, about 50 or 55 years of age, and wearing the star of a United States detective, No. 17,769, was found dead close to the Santa Fé tracks, a short distance from Algodones station at 3 o'clock yesterday morning, by section hands.

Every bone in the man's body was broken, and his face was crushed in. Evidently he had been struck by a passing train and hurled fifty feet through the air.

Caldwell was dressed in miner's clothes, and had a small amount of money on his person, also several letters. He had expressed his grip to Albuquerque from Antonito, Colo., on November 4.

Chief of United States Secret Service Walker, at Denver, was wired, asking for information regarding Caldwell, but up to midnight tonight no word has been received in reply.

It is now believed that Caldwell was not a secret-service man, and a Miss Glaze of Azusa, Cal., replying to a query sent her, the address being obtained from letters in the dead man's possessions, says she knows of this C. A. Caldwell, but that he is no relative nor the Caldwell employed by the government in its secret-service department.

His body is in the morgue here.

RANGERS FIGHT MEXICANS.

Assassination of Judge Welch Leads to County War in Which Rangers Fire Fifty Shots.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

FORT WORTH (Tex.) Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] There is a war down on the Lower Rio Grande in Starr county, Texas, as the result of the political troubles which led to the assasination of District Judge Welch.

In response to an appeal to the Governor for Rangers to quiet the trouble in that section, Capt. William McDonald was ordered to Rio Grande City with a small squad of Rangers.

While these were proceeding from Fordyce last night they were fired upon by a large body of Mexicans in ambush and a hot engagement at once followed. More than fifty shots were exchanged. Three Mexicans were killed.

None of the Rangers was injured.

DEPEW READY FOR SENATE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Senator Depew, who has been spending the summer and fall at the Bishop Villa, Ardsley on the Hudson, will move to his town house November 15, and leave for Washington December 1, to be in his seat when the Senate convenes. The Senator spends most of his time playing golf, taking long automobile trips and attending dinner parties. He has greatly improved in health.

POLITICAL.

STAND WITH PRESIDENT.

American People Spoke Their Minds in Election.

Glorious Victory Makes Sure Prosperity's Reign.

Chairman Sherman Sums Up Results Concisely.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Representative James S. Sherman, chairman of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee, closed the headquarters of the committee in the St. James Building, tonight, before leaving for his home in Utah. In summing up the results of the Congressional campaign, which, he asserted, had given an emphatic indorsement to the President, he said:

"The result of the Congressional campaign throughout the country is exceedingly gratifying to this committee. The Sixtieth Congress will be Republican by fifty-eight majority. These figures correspond exactly with the prediction given out by the committee before election of districts throughout the United States which the committee marked as certainly Republican.

"We failed in carrying but four of those that we marked doubtful; we have carried more than we marked as probably Republican.

"The result shows that the people emphatically indorse the administration of President Roosevelt and approve the work of the first session of the Fifty-ninth Congress.

"It shows that the people desire a continuance of prosperity, and shows their belief that prosperity can be depended upon under Republican administration, and the belief that it would surely disappear under Democratic rule.

"The election means that the great economic and financial tenets of Republicanism are still approved by Americans."

SWELL CHANLER'S PLURALITY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Official returns from Erie county, this afternoon, increased Chanler's apparent plurality to 1028. The latest unofficial returns indicated that Hughes's plurality is about 61,300.

SOUTH DAKOTA LEGISLATURE.

DIVISION OF THE SEATS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SIOUX FALLS (S. D.) Nov. 9.—Complete returns on the legislative vote of Tuesday show that the Republicans elected thirty-six members of the State Senate, Independent Republicans and Democrats seven, House, Republicans eighty-one, Democrats eight. This insures the reelection of United States Senator Gamble.

CROKER'S AFTERTHOUGHT.

ELECTION EDUCATES HEARST.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The Dublin correspondent of the Standard telegraphs an interview with Richard Croker on the result of the election in New York State. Croker said the outcome was in accordance with his expectations.

"I think the election will prove a considerable education to Mr. Hearst," said Croker, "and I am sure he will profit by it, although defeated. In my opinion, Mr. Hearst is bound to be a factor in politics. If he could have held his own vote and if he had had the support of independent laboring men, I believe he would have won by 100,000 plurality. He has made a remarkably good fight, and he has reason to be proud of it."

BONAPARTE'S OPINION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—A Baltimore special to the Times quotes Secretary of the Navy Bonaparte as saying: "It is very fortunate that Mr. Hughes has been elected in New York, but the strength shown by his opponent is rather ominous, and proves to my mind that we must be prepared to deal with the questions he has been agitating in a spirit at once liberal and conservative."

ARIZONA REPUBLICAN.

FIRST TIME IN 20 YEARS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Nov. 9.—No complete returns have been received from any county save Maricopa, previously reported. Apache county, three precincts missing, gives Cooper for Congress, 241, Smith 176. Cooper carries Yuma by approximately 100.

Smith's total plurality is estimated at 2000.

Of twelve Councilmen the Republicans have seven, and of the twenty-four Assemblymen the Republicans nine.

With a Republican Governor, the Republicans also control the Legislature, the first time in twenty years.

FIGURING IN MONTANA.

LEGISLATURE REPUBLICAN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BUTTE (Mont.) Nov. 9.—Statements given out by Chairman Maddox of the Republican State Central Committee and by Chairman Brown of the Democratic State Central Committee agree that the Republicans will have a two-thirds majority in the Senate and House. On the Senate the figures exactly agree, the membership being given at nine Democrats and eighteen Republicans. In the House the Republicans claim six and give the Democrats thirteen. This claim includes twelve members from Silver Bow. Chairman Browne claims the Democrats will have sixteen members of the House.

On the State ticket the majority for Pray for Congress is conceded to be between 4000 and 5000, and that for Smith to the Supreme Bench about 7000.

POLITICAL BRIEFS.

Third Nebraska District Republican.

NORFOLK (Neb.) Nov. 9.—Judge J. F. Boyd, Republican, is elected to Congress in the Third District by 296 votes, according to complete official returns. The Democrats have claimed the election of Dr. G. T. Graves until today.

Kansas Officially Counting.

TOPEKA (Kan.) Nov. 9.—The official count of the vote cast in Kansas at Tuesday's election was commenced in each county in the State today and should be finished by tomorrow morning. The official figures from several counties already in show decided gains for W. A. Harris, the Democratic nominee for Governor, and Gov. Hoch's plurality will be at least cut down to less than 3000. The Democratic State Central Committee still claims the election of Harris by less than 2000 plurality.

Bryan Gathers More Hopes.

LINCOLN (Neb.) Nov. 9.—Commenting on the results of Tuesday's election, William J. Bryan expressed considerable satisfaction in viewing the outcome from a Democratic standpoint. He regrets the defeat of Hearst in New York, but cannot see wherein the President can find any comfort in the vote of the Empire State. Bryan says the President's personal attack on Hearst was in very bad taste, and he insists that the attack did not favorably impress the public.

RETURNS LAG IN CALIFORNIA.

GILLETT'S PLURALITY NOT YET EXACTLY KNOWN.

Latest Advices Indicate That It Stands in the Neighborhood of Twelve Thousand—Defeat of Judge Dooling a Surprise—Figures from the Counties.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—Election returns from the interior of the State are not yet complete, but those that are missing will not affect the general result, as already announced.

According to the latest advices received, Gillett has a plurality of over 12,000, which probably will be decreased rather than increased by the votes yet to be tabulated.

The remainder of the State ticket is elected by varying pluralities, but the defeat of Judges Cook and Chipman for presiding justices of the Appellate Court in the Second and Third districts, respectively, is conceded by the Republican managers.

The defeat of Judge Dooling, for a position on the Appellate bench, by Judge Kerrigan of this city, when announced, came as a surprise, for the first returns received indicated the election of Dooling by a good majority. The success of Kerrigan will cause a vacancy in the Superior Court here, to which, it is predicted in political circles, Judge Hosmer, who was an unsuccessful candidate for reelection, will be appointed by the Governor.

The fate of the constitutional amendments is not definitely known, as they have not generally been included in the returns sent from the various counties.

CHIPMAN'S ELECTION CONCEDED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 9.—J. W. Hughes concedes the election of N. P. Chipman to the presiding justiceship of the Third District, Appellate Court. Chipman claims a majority of 800, and this Hughes also concedes. Complete returns from thirty-six out of thirty-five counties in the district give Chipman a majority of 718. Chipman will probably break better than even in the remaining counties, and Hughes says it is impossible for him to overcome the lead.

"MUST SHOW US."

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—Secretary of War William H. Taft came to Chicago, today, and inspected Fort Sheridan, and after being entertained at a luncheon at the Auditorium, tonight, by a number of army officers, left for Leavenworth, Kan. While in Chicago, Secretary Taft said that his present tour of inspection of the forts was to determine if the smaller ones could be merged with the larger ones.

Regarding the Cuban situation, Taft said: "Things there are moving fairly well. It is hard to say, however, when the United States troops will be removed from the island. One thing is certain, and that is that such a step will not be taken until peace in that country is assured. The people must show us they can and will govern themselves, and will refrain from internal strife. When that is done, and we are satisfied, then it will be time to talk of removing the troops. It may be soon and it may not be. "They may be needed in some other place. Cuba is a fine country, if rightly governed and cared for."

Oaklands Boxing Show.

OAKLAND, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Fifteen hundred fans turned out tonight to witness the four-round bouts before the Reliance Athletic Club. Mauro Herrera, brother of Aurello, and Henry League furnished the main event and fought four mediocre rounds to a draw. Herrera clinched repeatedly but had the best of the infighting. The best bout of the evening was a preliminary furnished by Willie Kanole and Frank Smith. They fought four terrific rounds, the decision being awarded to Smith.

Company Protected.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The New York Transportation Company, whose chauffeurs are on strike, received such a strong detail of police yesterday that serious disturbances were averted. It was reported that steps were being taken to settle the strike, but President Meade of the Automobile Club declared he would not recognize the union. He said that he was willing to treat with the men as individuals.

Miners Get a Raise.

BISBEE (Ariz.) Nov. 9.—All miners employed by mining companies at Bisbee and Tombstone received notice today of a raise in wages to date from Nov. 1. The scale has been advanced 25 cents per day all around. Miners now receive $3.75 per day and shaft men $4.25. The new scale means the expenditure of a half million dollars more per annum by mining companies.

Hold Secret Discussion.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Representatives of the Order of Brotherhood of Engineers and the firemen's brotherhood held secret sessions all day at the Broadway Central Hotel yesterday. Grand Chief Hanrahan of the firemen's brotherhood and Assistant Grand Chief Cable were present. M'CARREN DEFENDS ACTS AGAINST HEARST.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The State Democratic Committee met today to consider the situation affecting the State ticket, growing out of the election.

Acting on a petition presented by Patrick Haynes, warden of the Kings county penitentiary, the committee, by a vote of 37 to 13, ordered the conduct of Senator McCarren in opposing the election of W. R. Hearst be investigated.

The petition charged that McCarren had advised the Kings county Democratic party to cut Hearst, thus disrupting the party in that county.

In reply to Senator Hayes, Senator McCarren said to the State committee that he had made certain statements to the Kings county committee concerning Hearst, and that if he had an opportunity to repeat them or make them more emphatic he would do so.

He denied that he had "knifed" Hearst in Brooklyn, and declared that Hearst was a "bolter," and was so regarded by the Kings county committee.

Chairman Conners said he would appoint the McCarren investigation committee later. The committee then adjourned.

DEFENSE AGAINST REPUBLICANS

The State committee took steps to defend any action that may be taken by the Republicans to overthrow the piurailties which seem to exist in favor of the Democratic candidates on the State ticket, from Lieutenant-Governor down. Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler, the Democratic candidate for Lieutenant-Governor; William Schuyler Jackson of Buffalo, the Democratic candidate for Attorney-General; Chairman W. J. Conners, who presided; Leader Charles F. Murphy of Tammany Hall, Senator McCarren of Brooklyn, and Norman E. Mack of Buffalo, Democratic national committeeman, were among those present.

Max Ihmsen, State chairman of the Independence League, arrived at the Gilsey House soon after the committee met, and was in consultation with a number of the members, although he did not attend the session.

READING OUT M'CARREN.

Warden Hayes and his associates remained with the committee for forty minutes, and during that time there were frequent outbursts of applause. The delegation asked that Senator McCarren be relieved from further service on the committee. It was declared by the spokesman that "McCarren's place is with the Republicans." The petition which was presented declared, among other things, that McCarren openly advocated the election of the nominees of the Republican party and used the election machinery and the Kings county committee to accomplish the defeat of the regular Democratic candidate for Governor.

It was asserted that the action of Senator McCarren and the Kings county committee "destroyed the Democratic organization of the county and made that organization simply an ally of the Republican organization."

In conclusion, the politician asked that not only Senator McCarren, but all the other members of the committee from Kings county be removed.

McCarren declared, in reply, that at a meeting of the Kings county committee he had said something about Hearst.

"And if the opportunity presents," he declared, "I shall repeat them. When a fellow hits you on the jaw, I do not believe in turning the other cheek. I believe in striking back, straight from the shoulder. If, on another occasion, I could make my statements regarding Mr. Hearst any more emphatic, I should certainly do so.

"Mr. Hayes, who is here opposing me, never voted a Democratic ticket in his life. I have never voted a Republican ticket. I deny that I knifed the ticket of the Buffalo convention."

"As to Mr. Hearst, I regard him as the bolter. The Kings county organization regarded him as a bolter."

The motion to investigate the Kings county organization was carried. The investigating committee will be named later.

COCKRAN'S RESOLUTION.

W. Bourke Cockran then offered a resolution, which was adopted, declaring that "each member of this committee be instructed to place himself in communication immediately with all local representatives of the party organization in his district for the purpose of verifying the results of the late election."

The resolution also said:

"While we regret profoundly that our candidate for Governor has himself fallen a victim to the rancor of the powerful public enemies, against whose enormities his candidacy was a revolt, our deepest concern is for the sinister results entailed on the people. Of these, the first originally planned last winter, but deferred while there remained a possibility of Mr. Hearst's election and which has followed within twenty-four hours of his defeat, is the deposition in the presidency of a great railway of a man whose record of brilliant business success is unstained or unclouded by the slightest moral reproach on the ground, cynically avowed by his executioners, that the course of rectitude and probity which he has pursued constitutes a claim of superiority to his fellow directors. This flagrant outrage on common decency, which, if the Democratic candidate for Governor had been elected, would never have been attempted, while ominous of the length to which opponents of rottenness in corporate management now feel themselves encouraged to venture, must nerve Democrats to added watchfulness in protecting such fruits of conscientious voting as have succeeded in withstanding the blighting and abhorrent influence to which Mr. Hughes owes his election."

PERRY BELMONT RESIGNS.

Subsequent to the meeting, it was announced that Perry Belmont, Representative for the Senatorial district included in Nassau county had resigned. Belmont had been serving on the committee temporarily since the Buffalo convention, at which time he was appointed by the Nassau county delegates, who afterward were unseated. Belmont voluntarily retired today to make way on the committee for former Senator Edward A. Bailey of Patchogue, L. I.

Weird Plot Resembles Ten-Cent Novel.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BADEN-BADEN (Germany) Nov. 9. Carl Hau, alias Stau, the lawyer of Washington, D. C., who was arrested in London yesterday and held for extradition, was wanted by the local police on the charge of murdering his wife's mother, Frau Molitor. The motive of the alleged crime appears to have been insane greed of money.

Frau Molitor, who was wealthy, refused many times to comply with Hau's requests for money, having given her daughter a considerable property and arranged that she should benefit part of her fortune.

When Hau married Lena Molitor six years ago he was 19 years old. Their engagement seemingly was against Frau Molitor's wishes. Immediately after their marriage the couple went to America and Hau obtained a good position in Washington as a lawyer. Later his wife and their daughter, 3 years old, came to Germany last summer to visit Frau Molitor.

Tonight ago Hau left Baden-Baden to return to America, and his wife thought he was either on board ship or had already arrived in the United States. Hau, it is now believed, immediately after he left Baden-Baden, sent a false telegram from Paris, asking Frau Molitor to send her married daughter there. The falsification was discovered, and inquiries of the postal authorities, in the view of discovering the identity of the sender of the message, were set going on when the murder was committed.

During the evening of November 3 Frau Molitor received a telephone message at her home in Baden-Baden asking her to go to the postoffice and get a parcel which had reached there for her. Frau Molitor, accompanied by her daughter, started for the postoffice and while passing through a quiet street was shot from behind and fell dead with a bullet through her heart.

Hau, after leaving Baden-Baden, joined his wife and child to London and stopped at Frankfort, where he attracted attention owing to a long beard which he wore. This, however, is asserted to have been purchased from a hair dresser at Frankfort.

The day of the murder, Hau left Baden at 11 o'clock in the morning on the Baden-Baden train and returned to Frankfort at 10 o'clock the same evening. After his arrival there he sent the following telegram to his wife at the hotel:

"Arrive tomorrow night. Don't be anxious."

This telegram gave the police a clue to the identity of the murderer and they promptly notified the London police. Hau's arrest followed.

HUSBAND ARRESTED.

After using every effort to induce A. H. Ferrel to support his wife, who is ill in bed with a malignant disease, Charles Bodish, proprietor of the New York rooming-house at No. 122 West First street, swore to a vagrancy complaint against Ferrel, causing his arrest last night.

For the past month, persons living in the house allege that Ferrel has been in a nearly constant state of intoxication. Ferrel is an expert lather, say parties who know him, but at times goes on a spree. About the time that his wife was taken ill, a month ago, he resigned his position.

Since that time the woman has been kept in the house by illness and had it not been for the care and attention of other roomers she would have died for the want of food and care. All the entreaties of these non-interested parties who were obliged to take care of the woman, were of no avail.

"At first it was not so bad," said one of the women living at the New York, when interviewed last night, "for Ferrel at least furnished his wife with food and the bare necessities of life, but later we noticed that he came home less and less. Then he did not come home for quite long intervals. We of course knew that Mrs. Ferrel was confined to her bed and was seriously ill.

"After watching for a short time we noticed that provisions in the Ferrels' room were running low. As soon as we took an interested part in the affairs we found that it was a most brutal case of neglect. Ferrel would not listen to our appeals and continued to neglect his wife, whose condition was fast becoming worse.

"As the final step we went to Mr. Bodish and begged him to have Ferrel arrested. He applied for a warrant and it was given to him. Mrs. Ferrel's condition is critical."

DEPARTMENT BLUNDERED.

So Claims United States Attorney in Fight to Recover Coal Lands Controlled by Railroad.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SALT LAKE (Utah) Nov. 9.—Arguments in the cases in which the Federal government seeks to recover 17,000 acres of coal land, alleged to have been fraudulently secured by coal companies controlled in the interest of the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad system, were continued in the Federal Court today before Judge John A. Marshall.

Fred R. Maynard of Grand Rapids, Mich., Special United States Attorney, made the principal argument for the prosecution in reply to the points raised by the defense in demurrer.

Mr. Maynard charged that the Interior Department had made gross blunders in permitting title to these coal lands to pass to the coal companies, and that insomuch as the carelessness and blunders of officials of the department had made it possible for the companies to secure patents by fraud and deceit, the government was not barred from seeking redress in the courts.

He maintained also that the men who took up such coal lands as agricultural lands, paying $1.25 an acre for lands worth thousands of dollars, were employés of the company. There was a conspiracy, he charged, and the government was entitled to redress through legal proceedings.

E. B. Crichlow of Salt Lake City, also a special attorney for the government, cited authorities to show the government's right to cancel patents wrongfully secured.

SHERIDAN MAKES WORLD'S RECORD.

IRISHMEN DO GREAT WORK AT NEW YORK GAMES.

Opening Contests in Two Days' Indoor Championship Events Show Great Performances—John J. Eller Does the 220 High Hurdles in Very Fast Time.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Martin J. Sheridan of the Irish-American Athletic Club was the star performer tonight at the opening games of the two days' indoor championship meeting of the Amateur Athletic Union of the United States. Entries in the throwing of the 56-pound weight and in putting the 8-pound shot with marks of 15 feet 3 inches, and 61 feet 8 inches, respectively. The latter being a new record, gave him a lead above all other competitors.

Another Irishman, M. W. Shepard, carried off the honors in the 1000-yard run in easy fashion, leaving his competitors far behind in the fast time of 2 mins. 17 4-5 secs. John J. Eller of the Irish-American Athletic Club broke the long-standing record of 34 1/5 secs. by doing the 220-yard high hurdle race in 30 secs.

On points, the Irish-American club led, having 58 points against 34 for the New York Athletic Club.

Fifty-six-pound weight: Martin J. Sheridan, Irish-American A. C.; 15 ft. 6 inches.

Thousand-yard run: Melvin W. Shepard, Irish-American A. C.; time 2:17 4-5.

Putting 8-pound shot: Martin J. Sheridan, Irish-American A. C.; 61 feet 8 inches.

Pole vault for distance: Martin J. Sheridan, Irish-American A. C.; 27 feet 1½ inches.

Two-mile run: S. V. Bonhag, Irish-American A. C.; time 9 mins. 39 1-5 secs.

Two hundred and twenty-yard hurdle: J. J. Eller, Irish-American A. C., won; time 30 secs.

Seventy-five-yard dash: O. J. Seitz, New York A. C.; time 8 secs.

Hop, skip and jump: J. F. O'Connelly, New York A. C.; 45 feet 3¾ inches.

"There's a Reason," experience proves

First.—This food is toothsome and delicious.

Second.—It is wonderfully easy of digestion, the starchy part having been predigested in the process of manufacture.

Third.—Predigested Grape-Nuts supplies the body with carbo-hydrates in such form that the blood quickly assimilates and deposits these elements in the tissues all over the body, there to lie dormant until exertion releases the kinetic energy.

THAT ENERGY IS THERE if Grape-Nuts has been the food.

This element thus highly specialized by Mother Nature has an affinity for and will unite with albumen and water in the human body.

This combination produces the soft gray matter, filling the Brain and Nerve Cells all over the body. That keeps the

Owner Billy Durfee Refuses a Flattering Offer.

Racing Card for the Coming Meet Is a Good One.

No Bookmaking to Be Allowed at the Track.

Local harness horsemen and the enthusiasts on the side-wheel game of racing will be interested in knowing that Billy Durfee, the well-known driver and trainer, who has been racing over the Coast circuits for years, has a very valuable horse in his trotter Coronado, for he has just refused an offer of $15,000 for him. This offer was of real money and came from an eastern man who knows a good horse when he sees him.

This horse is a brown stallion by the famous McKinney, the sire of Sweet Marie and many other equally good ones, and Mr. Durfee raised him and has raced him in this city many times at Agricultural Park. He has a record of 2:09¾, made at the last Sacramento meeting, and in his work-outs at the local track has stepped a half in 1:02. As he is but 7 years old Durfee rightly thinks that while $15,000 is a lot of money for a race horse, that he will be better next season and worth more. He has entered him in the 2:09 trot that will be the feature of the third day of the meeting that begins here Tuesday, November 20.

This is not the only good one that will be seen at the races, for many new racers will make their first appearance. The majority of these are in the 2:06 pace on Saturday, November 24. Among them are Alpha W. (2:06¼;) Derberths (2:07¾;) Phalla (2:06¼,) and The Dona (2:09¼.) All of these are Grand Circuit winners, and after a good season in the East are coming here to not only race for the money, but to escape the rigors of their home climate.

Some of the other cracks that will be seen in action are Spill, Will Clarke's winner of the $5000 stake at Hamlin, Minn.; Dr. Frasse and King Entertainer, just from the Grand Circuit, and Charles Belden, the biggest money winner of the Great Western Circuit this year. In addition to this there will be Klondike, Welcome Mac, Delilah, Kelly Briggs, Mollie Button, Henry N., Electric Maiden and many others of about the same class. Every event has filled satisfactorily.

A report has gained currency somehow that there will be regular bookmaking on these races, but this is false, for the directors would not allow it. There will be nothing but the mutuals and the auction pools.

BIG CONTESTS GIVE PROMISE.

INDIANS AND HARVARD TO FIGHT IT OUT.

Princeton to Defeat West Point, While Pennsylvania May Meet a Tartar in Lafayette—Yale Should Have no Trouble Defeating Brown's Team.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Tomorrow's stiff gridiron battles in which the big eastern elevens will engage, mark the beginning of the end of the 1906 season. Harvard, Princeton, Yale and Pennsylvania will be put to the proof under fire, and it is quite possible that one of the four will meet its master. Danger for the crimson lies in the meeting between the Carlisle Indians and Harvard, and there is menace to the red and blue in Lafayette's appearance on Franklin field.

The Indians go to Cambridge prepared to play their best game of the season, and even hoping for victory. Harvard will have to show better football than she has shown so far to come out of the battle with credit.

Pennsylvania meets a dangerous eleven in Lafayette and one thoroughly up in the red and blue style of play. It will take a remarkable brace to whip the Eastonians in anything like comfortable style. These two games are the most uncertain on tomorrow's schedule from the view point of the teams.

There is evidence that the Yale team has "come together," notably since the West Point game, and while Brown is a shifty and versatile team, close followers of football would be surprised to see the blue come out worse than "scared" a trifle.

Unless Princeton has deteriorated sadly the Tigers look to be fairly two touchdowns better than West Point, strong as the Army is.

RIVERSIDE POLO.

Orange City Players Line Up for Their First Contest—Officers Chosen for New Year.

The first polo game of the season was played on the grounds of the Riverside Polo Club at Chemawa Park yesterday afternoon. It was a practice game between the Reds and the Whites, and was a pretty exhibition of polo, though no sensational plays were made. During the season the club will meet to play every Tuesday and Friday afternoon, as last year.

At the annual meeting preceding the opening of the season, officers were elected and committees were appointed for the coming year. The new officers are: President, J. Harrison Wright; vice-president, M. E. Flowers; secretary and treasurer, S. F. Nave; captain, H. G. Pattee; committeeman-at-large, W. L. Roberts. The following committees were elected: Grounds, W. E. Pedley and S. F. Nave; House, M. E. Flowers and W. L. Roberts; Racing, H. G. Pattee, Robert Lee Bettner, J. H. Wright, W. E. Pedley and S. F. Nave.

The Riverside club has decided to send a team to Santa Barbara Thanksgiving week to compete with the Santa Barbara Polo Club in the midwinter tournament in that city.

BILLIARD MATCH.

Keniston Has Hard Time Defeating Lyon at Three Cushions—Next Game Monday.

The billiard sharps had to sit through a long game of three cushions last night at Berry's rooms in the match between Keniston and Lyon. It was won by Keniston, but it took him ninety-seven innings to win by a score of 49 to 37. He was behind almost to the finish and the game was so long drawn out because each man played safety and both were good at it. Keniston had high runs of 5, 4 and 3, and Lyon had 4, 3 and 3. There will not be another game until Monday.

LANAGAN SERENE.

The Stanford team will go on the field Saturday ready to do its best. Under the care of Trainer Moulton the players are in great condition, and their recent work in practice has been very satisfactory. The men realize that the California players will be formidable opponents and there will be no careless playing on account of overconfidence. Each man will play his strongest game. I believe that the team has a good fighting chance to win and I am confident, win or lose, the showing they make will be a credit to them and to the university.

JAMES F. LANAGAN.

TAYLOR HOPEFUL.

Early in the present term the outlook for a successful football season was dubious on account of the introduction of the new game. But since the game has become better known we have not lacked the support of college enthusiasts. During the latter portion of the season the team has been handicapped by numerous injuries and considerable sickness. The men, however, have recovered their "form" and things look fine for Saturday. The team is in the mood for a good, strong fight. I expect to see California's hopes realized tomorrow.

OSCAR N. TAYLOR.

STOTT IS INJURED.

MAY AFFECT RESULT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

STANFORD UNIVERSITY (Cal.) Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] At the close of one of the most successful football seasons ever known at Stanford the Cardinal will face California in the annual intercollegiate contest, tomorrow afternoon, with a clean record. The first Stanford Rugby team will go on to California field with the proud record of not having lost a game, and they are determined to fight hard to keep that record from being broken by their greatest rivals.

Any over confidence that might have been felt at the university has been overcome by the injury to Captain E. P. Stott, in the final practice of the year held Thursday. Stott's injury is not serious, being only a slight ankle sprain, but coming at this late hour it is feared that it will prevent him from playing the speedy game that characterised his work throughout the season and that has added much to the aggressive character of the Cardinal playing.

Lanagan announced the line up of the Stanford team, today, and but one position is filled differently from what had been expected, C. F. Laumister taking G. D. Hussey's place at three quarters. Laumister played substitute on last year's star varsity and had been playing almost even with Hussey up to the last minute. His showing in the final practice won him the place. Thorpe and Owens, the two Los Angeles boys who have played on the squad all through the season, will both wear the big Stanford "S," both going into the game when the first whistle blows. The honor comes to Thorpe in his freshman year. Owens is considered one of the fastest and most heady men in the Stanford aggregation.

The Cardinal is hoping against hope that Capt. Stott will be in condition to play through the game. He will be in his old place in the back field when the game starts. Chalmers enters at the other five eighths position. J. R. Polman, C. F. Laumister and L. M. Edwards are the Stanford three quarters. Fenton will be a full, and the forwards are Molfino, Stanford, Koerner, Pemberton, Thorpe, Cheda and Minturn. G. J. Presley won out in the race for wing forward by a close margin over Heinly. Owens is at half.

The members of the Stanford squad were given a complete rest tonight and were taken on a drive into the foothills by Coach Lanagan. They leave Palo Alto on a special train for San Francisco early Saturday morning, two special Cardinal-bedecked trains bearing Stanford rooters following them.

One of the greatest football rallies in the history of the university was held last night in Assembly Hall. The Cardinal's team will go on the field tomorrow backed by an enthusiastic and confident band of rooters. Lanagan assures that he has "fighting chances to win" and it is safe to conclude that no team that Stanford's great coach sends into a game will lose through lack of "fighting spirit."

President David Starr Jordan said tonight: "I believe that Rugby is by all odds the better game. I also believe that it has come to stay unless the old game is changed so as to embody some of its qualifications and fine points. As to the outcome of Saturday's game I have every confidence in Stanford's men on the strength of the capabilities they have shown."

FATE OF RUGBY.

ALL EYES ON BERKELEY.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BERKELEY, Nov. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In the words of President Wheeler, spoken at the final rally of the football season in Harmon Gymnasium last night, the eyes of the western world are centered on Berkeley for the first big intercollegiate Rugby game that will be played on California field tomorrow afternoon.

Heroic measures were taken today to bring the field into shape for tomorrow's game, 500 students pitching in and assisting in the work of filling in the space from which the bleachers were moved back.

The fifteen men who have been selected by Coach Taylor to face Stanford tomorrow are filled with fierce determination to win a victory for the Blue and Gold and prevent the Cardinal rooters from serpentining over the California field as they did two years ago. After a season that has been full of mishaps and minor injuries, California will go on the field in fine condition. Butler succeeded in wresting the coveted position of fullback from Ostrander at the last moment, after the latter had held down the position in most of the preliminary games throughout the season. Two freshmen, Farmer and Freeman, are holding their positions, and will go into the game with the first line-up. Stanton not only made his position easily, but is the mainstay of California's hopes.

California also expects much from her scrum, which is made of Haffey, Stow, Jones, Twitchell, Budelman, Farmer and Bell. Tuller will be a strong man at wing forward.

The advance sale of seats for the game is heavy, and it is said that the crowd will be a record breaker. The colleges will net in the neighborhood of $30,000 by the sale of tickets.

RECORD OF RIVAL TEAMS.

Of the fifteen games of old intercollegiate football which have been played between California and Stanford, four were ties, four were won by California and seven by Stanford. The scores were as follows:

1891—Stanford, 14; California, 10.
1892—California, 10; Stanford, 10.
1903—Stanford, 6; California, 0.
1894—Stanford, 6; California, 0.
1895—California, 6; Stanford, 6.
1896—Stanford, 2; California, 0.
1897—Stanford, 28; California, 0.
1899—California, 30; Stanford, 0.
1900—Stanford, 5; California, 0.
1901—California, 2; Stanford, 0.
1902—California, 16; Stanford, 0.
1903—Stanford, 6; California, 6.
1904—Stanford, 18; California, 0.

RETURN TRIP FAILS.

Automobile Which Broke San Francisco-Los Angeles Record Gets Into Trouble.

Fernando Nelson's big Columbia will not pile Ossa on Pelion by breaking the 1100-mile record, after cutting the immense slice of three hours from the San Francisco time. The car only got to Oxnard on the return trip, and is now stranded there. It is reported that the rear axle was broken by a bad side slip into a ditch. None of the passengers were hurt, and the record-breakers will straighten the car out as soon as possible.

After setting a new mark on the San Francisco run, as told in yesterday's Times the car was filled with fresh supplies, given a hasty overlooking, and sent away from The Times office in an endeavor to take away from New York the 1100-mile record. This would have necessitated the entire return trip to San Francisco, and a further run back to San José, to complete the required distance.

CATHOLICS TO MEET U.S.C.

METHODIST'S CHALLENGE IS CALLED BY ST. VINCENT'S.

Games Played on Local Gridirons Today Watched With Interest for Results Showing Real Strength of Teams — Polytechnic Has Opportunity to Win Fame.

Coach Haggerty of St. Vincent's has met the dent of U.S.C. and will pit his team against the Methodists November 24. "We are not afraid to meet U.S.C." said the coach last night, "but we want a square deal. We want to play them on neutral ground, but if it is impossible to secure Fiesta Park or some other place, we will meet them on her own field."

The statement of the Catholic coach is straightforward enough and no doubt will be met with equal spirit by Coach Holmes. The Methodists have been hurling challenges galore, and went so far as to offer to send the second team against St. Vincent's, but the latter will meet the best team U. S.C. can muster, provided the players are bona fide students of proper standing.

St. Vincent's specifies that she does not care to meet a team composed of men who entered late in school, giving the appearance of having come to play football, as in the case of the two brothers from Nevada. Haggerty claims that all his men have attended Catholic school for a year with the exception of Borg, who entered from Yale School. Phillips was elected captain yesterday. He and Cunningham are the only first-team men of last year. Two or three were subs last year and the rest are new men. The team has had but ten days' real practice.

Although there is little class in the football games to be played in Los Angeles today, much interest surrounds the matches in that they will give a line on the showing St. Vincent's will make this season, and the true strength of Polytechnic will be determined.

St. Vincent's tackles the strong Los Angeles High School team at Fiesta Park in its first game of the year. If the Catholics are defeated they likely will amount to little during the remainder of the season; but if they win they must be counted on in the big games for the championship. One week from Saturday St. Vincent's meets Occidental at Highland Park.

Polytechnic made such a good showing in her game against the mixed team of U.S.C. and against Throop that she is to be reckoned with in interscholastic games for the championship, at least, and when she meets Occidental at Highland Park she may show enough class to prove that she can cope with the big collegians and demonstrate that her victory over the U.S.C. makeshift bunch in that game was not a fluke.

ASKS MONEY, OR HIS TEAM.

MINER SAYS HE WAS SWINDLED IN HORSE DEAL.

City Prosecutor Considering Matter—Drunken Chef Fined—Harry Thorp Put Under Bonds—Druggist Frank Found Guilty and Will Be Sentenced Today.

Jerry Cahan, who sought gold on Nevada's deserts many months ago, came in to the office of the City Prosecutor yesterday and said he had been swindled by Frye & Getz, who have sale stables at No. 1110 North Main street. He wanted to prosecute the firm.

Cahan said that he went to the stables to buy a team. Two animals, a horse and a mule, were exhibited. He offered $140 for them and the offer was accepted. He paid down $40, he stated. Thursday evening he went for his team and the place was closed. Yesterday morning he repeated his visit and says that Frye said he had sold the brutes.

Cahan claims that he could get neither the $40 nor horse nor mule. Whether he will be able to prosecute will be determined by the City Prosecutor today.

Would-be Murderer Under Bonds.

Harry Thorp, who is charged with assault with a deadly weapon on his wife and a police officer on Thursday night, faced Judge Austin in the Police Court yesterday. His bail, pending preliminary examination on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon, was fixed at $2500. Saloonkeepers furnished the amount.

Thorp, who is a bartender, had abused his wife until she went for police aid. With Patrolman McCart she went back to her house at No. 334 Crocker street. While the officer hid on the porch she rang the bell. Thorp, according to the officer and the woman, came out, revolver in hand, and struck his wife a terrible blow with the weapon. When McCart drew his own revolver the man tried to kill the patrolman.

Druggist Found Guilty.

H. J. Frank, the druggist at Third and Stevenson streets, who is accused of employing an unlicensed pharmacist, was found guilty in Judge Chambers's court yesterday. His sentence will be pronounced today. Frank was convicted in spite of the fact that the clerk, Harry Valentine, had been discharged the day before.

Chef Was Drunk.

C. A. C. McLain paid $10 in the Police Court yesterday for a half hour of amusement the night before. McLain is a chef. He has for some time been presiding over the range in a restaurant at No. 225 South Spring street. In a state of riotous intoxication he reported Thursday night for duty. He discharged the second cook, threw water on the range, drew out the fire, threw the meat in the garbage barrel and drew all the coffee from the urn. By this time an officer appeared and McLain spent the rest of the night in jail.

Police Want Sign Painter.

Under the name of John Doe, a sign painter for Varney & Green will be hailed into the Police Court, as soon as officers find him, on a warrant issued yesterday by the City Prosecutor. He was painting a strip of white on a building at No. 340½ South Spring street yesterday morning. Beneath was a penny arcade. According to the story of James Skraws, a bootblack whose stand is at 340½ South Spring, Doe tore the awning with his ladder. When the bootblack remonstrated the painter climbed down to the sidewalk and thrashed him. H. A. Hansley, who runs the arcade, tried to interfere and the painter poured over him the contents of a paint pot. A visit to the City Prosecutor followed and Hansley and Skraws secured a warrant for the painter.

FEDERATION RECEPTION.

President Baer Defines a Pessimist.

Salvation Army Officers on Official Visit.

New Presbyterian Chapel Dedicated.

The splendid reception at the Federation Club last night indicated in a remarkable way the fellowship existing between the hundred or more churches, of all denominations, that form the Church Federation.

More than three hundred persons sat down to the tables, including the most prominent ladies and gentlemen of the city identified with church work. The reception committee consisted of sixteen couple, representing seven different denominations.

The rooms in the basement of the Citizens' National Bank building, at the corner of Third and Main streets, were tastefully decorated with palms and flowers for the occasion. The reception party occupied a station at the front of that portion of the apartments usually devoted to the public coffee club, but for this occasion set apart as a reception-room, while the tables were laid in the rooms of the Federation Club adjoining, only separated by heavy draperies, which were drawn aside.

Among those who sat at the head of the tables were Rev. and Mrs. E. P. Ryland, Dr. and Mrs. John Willis Baer, and Mrs. Eli McClish. Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Adkinson, Mr. and Mrs. H. Frost, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Clerk, Harry Valentine, had been discharged the day before. Hough, Mr. and Mrs. Walker, Dr. Day, Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Lamb, and many more. The company included the ministers and leading spirits of almost every church in the city. W. H. Frost, executive secretary, introduced Rev. E. P. Ryland, president of the federation, who made a brief talk, in which he outlined what had been accomplished by the federation during the past year, and congratulated those present upon the evidences of fellowship existing between denominations.

Leonard Merrill talked upon good citizenship, and laid the defeat of republican candidates in the recent election at the door of the citizens of the blue-blooded wards, where 70 per cent of the registered vote was cast, rather than at the door of the wards below Main street, where but 33 per cent of the registered cast their votes at the polls.

Dr. Eli McClish expressed great hope that what might be accomplished through the federation, and illustrated with a good story of a Texan's experience. They were all different, all had their good points and all pulled together.

Dr. John Willis Baer was the last speaker and he wasn't on his feet a minute before he had things going, and was applauded at every sentence. "It is easy to sit here at the table and talk, but it is harder to do," he said. "It is easy to throw mud at the candidates defeated, and it is true that it shan't be too black for some of those that have been elected. I don't know any of them, but I do know that this city is only as good as we make it. If it is not clean and good, it is your fault; it is up to you.

"The way to elect Dr. Lamb is to vote tonight; to spit on your hands and declare that by the grace of God you will never see so good a man defeated again."

He spoke warmly for the adoption of the primary law and of the duty of every good citizen to take a deep interest in politics.

"It is your duty to attend the primary, and I don't believe in a man staying away from the primary to the prayer meeting. I'm dead against it. It's your duty to put a chip on your shoulder and butt in."

He said many good things with reference to his having come here to live, and declared he was tired being congratulated upon the good fortune that had emitted him to come.

"I've been here before; I didn't stay for the climate nor for my health; I came here because of the opportunity to train for God without an agency."

He referred to a letter that he received yesterday, saying that it was a toast from some one present at the banquet. It took him to task for the optimism expressed in his inaugural address, but he was ready to repeat it. In closing his reference to the election of a pessimist—"a lunatic with a pessimist—a large man with a big breath, trying to blow out a match that isn't lighted."

JOHN WILKES BAER.

IN TEMPLE AUDITORIUM.

The greatest men's meeting ever held in Los Angeles is scheduled for Sunday afternoon in the new Temple Auditorium, where 5000 men can be accommodated. The speaker will be Dr. John Willis Baer, president of Occidental College, who has no superior as an entertainer, or as a thoughtful, original speaker.

This is the second "greater men's meeting," under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, the first having been held two weeks ago in Berean Hall, addressed by Robert E. Speer of New York, the auditorium not being completed at that time. Dr. Baer stands second to no man in this country as a talker, and this will give thousands their first opportunity to hear him, as well as to have a part in the Sunday's services in the new auditorium. The music programme will be an additional attraction, including solos by Harry Clifford Lott and Miller and numbers by the Orpheus Club, the Y.M.C.A. Glee Club and the Y.M.C.A. band of twenty pieces, under the direction of Prof. Simpson.

Mrs. McVay will have charge of the services and J. G. Warren will introduce the speaker. Doors will open at 2:30 o'clock and the musical programme will commence at 3:30.

The Rev. Robert J. Burdette, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will preach in the morning and evening in the Temple auditorium. It was conceived by the men that the great enterprise was carried on to accommodate people who were unable to hear him, and he now comes to Los Angeles for the first time.

SALVATION ARMY.

DIGNITARIES COMING.

Commissioner and Mrs. George A. Kilby of the Salvation Army will arrive in this city on Saturday, November 17, and on the evening of that day there will be a reception at the Salvation Army Barracks, at First and San Pedro streets. On Sunday morning Commissioner Kilbey will talk at the 11 a.m. and 8 p.m. both he and Mrs. Kilbey will make addresses. These will be typical Army meetings, with music by the united brass band, and many incidents.

Monday evening Mrs. Kilbey will

OFFICERS COMING.

Brigadier and Mrs. George A. Kilbey of the Salvation Army will arrive in the city on Saturday, November 17, and on the evening of that day will hold a reception at the Salvation barracks, at First and San Pedro streets. On Sunday morning Brigadier Kilbey will talk at the meeting, "Sharpening the Swords," at 3 p.m. both he and Mrs. Kilbey will make addresses. These meetings are Army meetings, with the music by the united brass band, and the solos.

On Monday evening Mrs. Kilbey will deliver a lecture on "Love at Work," in Choral Hall, Temple Auditorium, and on Wednesday evening Commissioner Kilbey's lecture, "Tackling a Serious Problem," will be delivered in the barracks.

Both the commissioner and his wife are thorough entertainers on the platform, and their experience all over the world, including years spent in South Africa during the Boer War, give them a fund of exciting incidents almost unequaled.

WEEK OF PRAYER.

YOUNG WOMEN'S DEVOTIONS.

The Young Women's Christian Association, in accordance with the custom of the association throughout the world, will observe the week of November 11-18 as a week of prayer, a short service being held each day. The first meeting will be at 4 o'clock on Sunday, and will be led by Miss Cora L. Tatham, general secretary; all the others will be held at noon, the time varying slightly each day. Monday, 12 o'clock, Mrs. E. W. Wills; Tuesday, 12:15 o'clock, Miss Jessie Chambers; Wednesday, 12:30 o'clock, Miss Neva Chapell; Thursday, 12 o'clock, Miss Helen Salisbury; Friday, 12:15 o'clock, Miss Katherine Meyers; Saturday, 12 o'clock, Miss Alice Jacobs.

NEW CHAPEL DEDICATED.

NEAR OCCIDENTAL COLLEGE.

The little portable chapel dedicated a week ago on "Mt. Washington," seven blocks west of Occidental College, on Avenue 50, will open a Sunday-school at 9:45 o'clock tomorrow morning. The chapel is situated among the foothills and made beautiful by nature's choicest settings. A fine organ was presented to the chapel by Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Thompson of Highland Park, and many other necessary fittings were donated by other persons. The superintendence of the school will be in the hands of R. P. Shea and Earl Haney. Rev. T. C. Horton preached the dedicatory sermon last Sunday, and Rev. J. H. Stewart will preach tomorrow. Looking after supplies is in the hands of Sunday-school Missionary Butterfield of the Presbyterian Church, who was instrumental in securing the portable chapel.

MISSIONARY FEDERATION.

WILL HOLD CONVENTION.

A Federation of the Women's Missionary Societies of the city has been in existence for a number of years. The object of the federation is twofold; to increase missionary knowledge and missionary enthusiasm, and promote acquaintance and good-fellowship among the ladies of the various churches who are interested in the subject of missions.

A convention of these societies will be held, commencing Friday morning, November 16, in the First Christian Church, Eleventh and Hope streets. A most excellent programme has been arranged. Speakers will be present representing India and China. The work of the Y.W.C.A. will also be presented. The only man who will be allowed to speak is Dr. R. D. Wishard, for many years a missionary in Utah, who will speak of the work among the Mormons.

The noon hour will be observed as a social hour; and each lady is requested to bring her own lunch. A general invitation to attend is extended to all interested in the work. Mrs. Will W. Logan is the president of the federation.

RELIGIOUS BRIEFS.

MISSION IMPROVED.

Extensive repairs have been put on Union Rescue Mission at No. 145 North Main street, the interior having been repainted and decorated, thus adding much to its attractiveness. Tonight Benjamin F. Pearson will lead a converts' meeting, which will be a general reunion of all those who have at any time been attendants at the mission. A special evangelistic service will be held on Sunday night.

The Episcopal Church of the Ascension, on Boyle Heights, is just completing a fine new two-story rectory at the corner of St. Louis street and Brooklyn avenue.

Prof. E. C. Moore, City Superintendent of Schools, will address the Sunday-school of the First Christian Church, Eleventh and Hope streets, on Sunday morning.

Coughs of Children

Especially night coughs. Nature needs a little help to quiet the irritation, control the inflammation, check the progress of the disease. Our advice is—give the children Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Ask your doctor if this is his advice also. He knows best. Do as he says.

Classified Liners.

Times "Liner" Advertisers—Important. Note change in rate for Sunday classified advertisements. Commencing Sunday, October 1, 1906, the rate for Sunday "Liners" was raised to 1¼ cents per word for each insertion; minimum charge, 25 cents, as at present. This slight advance is amply justified by the press Sunday circulation of The Times, which ever use over 70,000 copies. (When the 1-cent-per-word rate was established in 1882, The Times Sunday circulation was only 14,000 copies.) The "Liner" rate for the daily—1 cent per word—will stand as at present.

Telephone your want advertisements. Ring up "The Times" any time of day or night, and secure prompt and careful attention. Rates one cent a word each insertion in the Daily; 1¼ cents per word in the Sunday edition; minimum charge, 25c.

"Liner (classified) advertisements for Sunday insertion received over the counter or by telephone after 11 o'clock Saturday nights will be inserted under heading "Too Late to Classify."

The Times cannot guarantee accuracy or assume responsibility for errors of any kind occurring in telephoned advertisements.

Sunday real estate advertisements, to be classified properly, must be in The Times office before 10 o'clock Saturday nights. Rate 1¼ cents per word.

LOTS OF DUST.

CAN'T HELP IT, THOUGH.

YOU WON'T CARE, ANYWAY,

WHEN YOU SEE THE TRACT.

AND LEARN THE PRICES.

You'll buy, even if you see it now at its worst, with the graders, scrapers and cement men all at work. If you're wise, you'll know it's a good time NOW to buy in

PECKHAM'S

MONETA AVENUE

SQUARE.

With lots at only $450 and up and on easy terms.

You'll be impressed, as others have been, with the charming home advantages and wonderful investment possibilities—two features not to be found with such pronounced impressiveness in any other tract or in any other section of the city. Profit is awaiting you here. Are you going to meet the opportunity half way? We don't need to tell you that Moneta avenue has "made good," you know that. Call and let us show you the start from our office at all times, thirty choice residence lots facing on Academy, Gordon and Locust streets. The most choice and select property in that beautiful city for the money. The lots are situated with a grand view of the foothills and mountains, and the advantages of an ocean breeze, with the cooling effects in the summer, and the protection of the foothills during the winter. The improvements are of the best, with 1-foot cement walks and cement curbs, streets are graded and oiled, parkway to be planted with ornamental trees in front of every lot. Fine artesian water piped in the streets, all lots have 50-foot frontage.

PRICES $350 TO $800, on easy payments and 10 per cent cheaper than similar property. Terms: each lot cash, $10 per month. Our office is open to issue free tickets. Bring your friends and family out to look over our property, then compare our prices with those of similar tracts. Call at our office for tickets, maps, and all information.

ALL DAY SUNDAY

Classified Liners.

FOR SALE—
Suburban Property.

FOR SALE—WE HAVE FOR A FEW DAYS a rare opportunity to acquire an ideal site for a gentleman's fine home at a price far below its actual value and on terms that make it a good speculative proposition.

Frontage 251 feet, depth 220 feet, facing wide avenue with cement walks and curbs, only short distance from Huntington Drive, between Monrovia and Alhambra electric lines.

An expenditure of $2000 to $3000 will put it in shape to command easily $15,000 to $20,000 before spring.

There is on the property an old time mansion with solid concrete walls, easily converted into a stately colonial residence in keeping with its majestic surroundings.

The house is sufficiently back from the street to permit of sweeping driveways and walks and artistic treatment of the grounds without the removal of an important tree or plant.

The trees on the place are mostly rare specimens of their kind. Among others are 3 very large oaks, one of them a veritable monarch, probably without a peer in lofty height and wide-spreading branches. There is also one tree, older and larger than any in the State, thrifty and superb. It is visited constantly by tourists and others as a botanical marvel. Cypress towering high into the sky-line and other rare trees and plants.

There are rose vines thick as saplings and widen-masses of other roses and flowers and foliage plants, needing only a few weeks work by skilful hands to convert it into one of the show places of the county.

Surrounding property is now sold with good building restrictions, though there are a few old and cheap houses in the 10 blocks between this and the finest suburban residence district in California. These old places are too valuable now for inferior residences and another season will probably see the last one disappear, when they property will be worth four times the present price as an investment.

This property can be bought now for $6500, only $2000 cash, balance 2 and 3 years.

As it stands it should bring $10,000 from the seeker of a fine homesite and by a comparatively small expenditure for improvements should bring $12,000. Either way would double or treble the actual cash investment.

BEAUTIFUL HOLLYWOOD,

Hollywood is dividing honors with Pasadena as the most beautiful suburb of Los Angeles, and the most delightful spot in all Southern California for a home. The great number of palatial homes here have led people to believe that only the wealthy could afford a home site in Hollywood; that is a wrong impression; lots in Kellogg's Hollywood tract, only 2 blocks south of Hollywood High School, are now offered at from $300 to $600 per lot, one-fourth cash, balance on time to suit. If you are seeking a home site or an investment that will increase rapidly in value, consider one of these lots. Call at our office for transportation to see the above lots, or any other lots, or houses and lots in Hollywood. C. F. HIGMAN, 915 Union Trust Bldg. Fourth and Spring, or F. R. Kellogg, 214 Stimson Bldg. 19

We Expected

Our sale of Men's Overcoats, Cravenette Rain Coats, Tuxedo, Full Dress and Business Suits to be a success, because WE KNEW they contained that first great element of success—MERIT. The value was there, and we knew Angelenos would quickly recognize it—which they did, even beyond the limit of our expectations. We have made GREAT PREPARATIONS for TODAY and will give a $5.00 Dunlap or Stetson Hat (or its equivalent in other merchandise) with EVERY OVERCOAT OR SUIT BOUGHT (today) AT OUR ESTABLISHMENT.

"Regnava del silenzio," "Chi mi frena," and the exquisite finale "Fra poco a me rivovero." "Lucia" is first of all a prima-donna opera, and so difficult is its soprano music of proper delivery that any woman who is mistress of it is also mistress of her art.

Really, petite Tromben is more than we expected. The brilliant training that places Italian men's voices so wonderfully usually draws their women's tones to a thin metallic edge—an edge that is frequently manfest in famous singers. Therefore, Tromben was to be slightly feared on that account. But the doubt proved groundless, for while she has a delicate, coloratura voice of the most positive placement, there is no suggestion of shrilliness or harshness. Instead, there is frequently a manifestation of surprising quality, and a phenomenal delivery that is smooth and limpid as a flow of oil. Tromben is possessed of intelligence, as well, and also a nice share of histrionic sentiment, and to her audience she gave the best impersonation of Lucia seen in this city in years. She excelled Mme. Sambrich in reality and picturesqueness, and although it is saying a great deal—it must be admitted that she equaled her in mere marvelous vocal facility. Her audience furiously encored the finale of the mad scene—just as they did the whole of the palpitant sextette—and obliging Tromben sang it again for them, only to break in momentary confusion and voice fatigue on an ultra-high note.

Salvaneschi is, first of all, a superb actor, then the possessor of an excellent though not phenomenal tenor voice, and third, a vocal artist of surpassing ability. His Edgardo is virile in sturdy dramatic voice and poignant in touching pathos. His romantic first scene, delicately worked out in pianissimo tones, contrasts most advantageously to his tragic and intensely portrayed finale. Salvaneschi has a tendency to overlook his voice in places of dramatic effect, but withal saves an exquisite medium-voice for his quieter scenes. He won the heartiest possible favor with his audience. A delightful anticipation is his Rudolf in "Boheme," on Monday night.

Antola, a fiery little fellow, with a fresh young voice and a heart full of enthusiasm, did brilliant work in the principal baritone role. Antola's voice is bright with color, and his vigorous acting promises well in such parts as the Toreador, or Count di Luna.

The orchestra has a chance for recovery. It seemed hopeless Monday night, but last evening's performance was far more satisfactory.

The chorus is still a yell to look upon, and sings in buzzsaw fashion.

The scenery of "Lucia" was acceptable, and the last act's setting unusually appropriate.

"Aida" will be heard again in the matinee today, while "Lucia" will have its last representation tonight.

License Collections.

Deputy License Clerk Lovie reports to the City Council that for the month of October he made out 5163 licenses, and of these City Tax Collector Johnson collected license fees on 4581. There were returned uncalled for 582 of the licenses issued. The total amount of license fees collected amounted to $47,382.25, and those uncollected amounted to $3380.75.

TERRIBLE ECZEMA ON LITTLE BOY

Mouth and Eyes Covered With Crusts—Face Itched Most Fearfully—Hands Pinned Down to Prevent Scratching

MIRACULOUS CURE BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"When my little boy was six months old, he had eczema. The sores extended so quickly over the whole body that we at once called in the doctor. We then went to another doctor, but he could not help him, and in our despair we went to a third one. Matters became so bad that he had regular holes in his cheeks, large enough to put a finger into. The food had to be given with a spoon, for his mouth was covered with crusts as thick as a finger, and whenever he opened the mouth they began to bleed and suppurate, as did also his eyes. Hands, arms, chest, and back, in short the whole body, was covered over and over. We had no rest by day or night. Whenever he was laid in his bed, we had to pin his hands down; otherwise he would scratch his face, and make an open sore. I think his face must have itched most fearfully.

ALFONSO HOHRATH.

"We finally thought nothing could help, and I had made up my mind to send my wife with the child to Europe, hoping that the sea air might cure him, otherwise he was to be put under good medical care there. But, Lord be blessed, matters came differently, and we soon saw a miracle. A friend of ours spoke about Cuticura. We made a trial with Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Resolvent, and within ten days or two weeks we noticed a decided improvement. Just as quickly as the sickness had appeared it also began to disappear, and within ten weeks the child was absolutely well, and his skin was smooth and white as never before." F. Hohrath, President of the C. L. Hohrath Company, Manufacturers of Silk Ribbons, 4 to 20 Rink Alley, June 5, 1905. South Bethlehem, Pa.

BIBLE LESSONS.

FOR SUNDAY-SCHOOL TEACHERS AND OTHER BIBLE STUDENTS.

Prepared for The Times by J. S. Kirtley.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 11.

Matthew xxvi; 36-50. Jesus in Gethsemane.

THE CONNECTION.

After instituting the supper, He talked to them long and lovingly, and then prayed for them in the most wonderful and searching prayer ever offered. The talk and prayer are recorded by John in chapters 14-17. Then He and they left the upper room in a state of anxiety, through the eastern, now called St. Stephen's gate, across the Brook Kedron, to a place where He was in the habit of going for prayer and meditation and conversation with His disciples, and where Judas had arranged to capture Him. He went there for private prayer for He felt the terrible agony of the trial, and He also went to meet His fate, for He knew Judas would expect to find Him there.

THE LESSON.

I.

His Agony. 36-38.

"Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto His disciples, Sit ye here, while I go yonder and pray. And He took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and sore troubled. Then saith He unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death; abide ye here, and watch with me."

Very commonly, in the outskirts of Oriental towns, are found groves and orchards to which the term "garden" is applied, and which, although inclosed and fully recognized as private property, are yet entered freely by the townspeople without trespass, and their cool shade enjoyed as a pleasant retreat for quiet meditation or friendly conversation. Within this large olive orchard was probably a smaller place thought to be about an acre, where Jesus often went. There was a press for extracting oil from the olives, and the garden within which it stood was called by the name "oil press," as the word "Gethsemane" means.

He went there to meet His fate, to pray and to still further prepare His disciples for the fiery trial before them. He was to finally pass under the shadow of the cross, and get a taste of death in that garden. Added to that pain was the reaction from the high tension of joy which He had felt as He sat at the supper with His disciples. Here ensued the awful and memorable agony. It was the final access of the mood of depression, which had been struggling all the week with the mood of joy and trust, where culmination had been reached at the supper table. It was the final onset of temptation, from which His life had never been free."

There were only three from whom He could at all expect even a rudimentary sort of sympathy, and those three He took within the garden area, while the eight were left to "sit here" near the entrance. The three had better training, for He had taken them with Him into the chamber of death at Jairus's home and had taken them upon the mount of transfiguration with Him, to be eye-witnesses of His glory; they had shown more personal aptitude for it, as John with his deeper poetic insight, James with a soberer, less rhapsodic temper, and Peter with his warm impulses and his recently expressed willingness to die for Him. But even they were unable to give Him what His heart craved.

"He knew the limits of human endurance, for all things were made by Him, and knowing it, He saw that He had grased the very edge. Out of the darkness He reaches a hand to feel for the grasp of a friend, and pitifully asks these humble lovers to stay beside Him, not that they could help Him to bear the weight, but their presence had some solace in it."

What was His Agony? Not the prospect of physical death, for many a martyr has gone into the jaws of death without flinching or asking sympathy from any man.

They had less ability to do so than Jesus had. It was the suffering of the soul. He was absolutely pure, and yet was regarded as vile by men and by God. God made Him to be sin for us, though He knew no sin. "The Lord hath laid on Him the iniquity of us all." The pangs which punishment for sin inflicts were felt by Christ. His purity of body, mind and heart made the agony all the more exquisite. And just as He reaches the garden a sudden severer wave rolled over Him. The disciples could not bear it with Him, nor understand the meaning of it all, yet loving Him and seeing that He was distressed, they could "watch with" Him and show that much sympathy. Besides, as He is suffering for men, the sight of three men so needy and appealing so powerfully to Him will help enheaten Him to endure.

II.

His Prayer for Help. 39-44.

"And He went forward a little, and fell on His face and prayed, saying, My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass away from me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt. And He come unto the disciples, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour? Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation; the spirit, indeed, is willing, but the flesh is weak. Again a second time he went away, and prayed, saying, My Father, if this cannot pass away, except I drink it, thy will be done. And he came again and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. And be left them again, and went away, and prayed a third time, saying again the same words."

(1.) The First Prayer.

He could only find relief by going to His Father in prayer. He had not only the natural human shrinking from death, but He recoiled with horror from becoming sin, in the sight of man and God. This prayer showed His sense of sonship to God. As long as one can say "My Father" and cling to Him, there is perfect safety, even in crushing sorrow. This prayer showed His unflinching purpose to bear the sins of man. The recoil from taking the sinner's place was inevitable; the desire to secure the salvation of men by means less humiliating is not wrong, nor was the expression of that desire wrong. But in it all was a fixed purpose, to save men at any cost, which was willed by His Father, and therefore right. He does not ask or even wish to be relieved of anything necessary. If it were possible to save men without drinking this bitter cup. He would want the relief. By gripping His purpose afresh and touching the loving hand of His Father, He is made calm again, so much so, that He can return to His disciples.

(2.) The second prayer.

But when He saw the disciples, another paroxysm of agony seized Him. Perhaps the sense of lonelisness was renewed at seeing them so unsympathetic as to sleep. He also felt sorrow at the extent of their weaknesses, for Peter and they all had professed so much. For those weaknesses is He to suffer on the cross.

That new wave of sorrow requires Him not only to go to His Father again for strength, but to help His disciples as well. He helps by reproaching them, and His reproach is addressed to Peter, who has been most prominent in his profession of fidelity; by admonition, to watch and pray; by warnings against the weaknesses of the carnal nature—not only the phyhical, but the moral weaknesses.

In His prayer this time, He shows the effect of the strength gained in the first prayer. In this He positively declares that He has no wish but God's will. He prayed not that He should be spared, but that He might be enabled to carry out the wish of God perfectly.

(3.) The third prayer.

The third time He felt the shock as He saw the different disciples sleeping. But each successive prayer made Him calmer till He conquered His fear and sorrow.

III.

His Victory. 45-46.

"Then cometh He to the disciples, and saith unto them, 'Sleep on, now, and take your rest; behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. Arise, let us be going; behold, he is at hand that betrayeth me.'"

His calm assurance is shown in several ways. 1. He bids the sleeping disciples "sleep on, now, and take your rest," as much as to say, "I no longer need your watchful sympathy, for the victory is won. I myself will wait and watch with you, for you will need sleep to prepare you for the next three trying days." 2. He turns His attention away from Himself entirely and gives His care to them. He seems to have sat down beside them and waited for some time before He said, "Arise; let us be going." 3. He goes forward, calm and majestic, to meet the band coming to arrest Him. The victory has been won, the cup had been accepted and the strength had been given. The noise of the troops coming fell upon His quick ear, but did not startle Him; the sight of the gleaming torches did not excite Him; the thought of the humiliating cross no longer made Him shrink. He was calm and steady. His voice rang clear and composed as He wakened the disciples; His heart beat anxiously for them in their ignorance and helplessness. He was from henceforth to be calmer and braver than disciples, or soldiers, or prosecutors.

IV.

His Arrest. 47-56.

"And while He yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people. Now he that betrayed Him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that is He; take Him. And straightway he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, Rabbi; and kissed him. And Jesus said unto him, Friend, do that for which thou art come. Then they came and laid hands on Jesus, and took Him.

It came at once. It was the wickedest act ever committed. It was through betrayal by a friend. That friend invaded his Master's devotions, used the sign of affection and did it for money. Through it all Jesus was calm. He allowed himself to be arrested when he could have just as easily prevented it. In fact, his majesty overawed the soldiers and had He said the word, they would have refused to do their work.

WHAT THE MASTERS SAY.

It would have been inconsistent with the character and spirit and whole earthly course of Jesus to shrink in dread and agony from the result which He had foreseen, and of which He Himself should say, "For this cause I came unto this hour." Yet it is consistent with all that we know of Him to recognize the fact that His human form and frame and nature were sinking under the weight of all His burdens—burdens heavier and more manifold than were ever, before or since, bearing down on any one body and soul. It was under that accumulated pressure that, on the cross, His great heart was finally broken. On the cross, Jesus was ready for this and could say out of his inmost being, "It is finished." But in Gethsemane Jesus was unready for His tired body to fail; therefore He prayed against the failure; and help was given Him of His Father accordingly.—[Trumbull.

"Into the woods my Master went,
Clean forespent, forespent;
Into the woods my Master came,
Forespent with love and shame.
"Out of the woods my Master went,
And He was well content;
Out of the woods my Master came,
Content with death and shame."
—[Lanier.

POINTS TO IMPRESS.

(1.) That trouble must lead us to prayer.

(2.) That we must seek, not relief from trial, but strength for trial.

(3.) That we must learn to detect the needs of others and offer our sympathy.

(4.) That we can get a perfect sympathy from Jesus today.

(5.) Then as He did, so do we reach perfection through suffering.

(6.) That if we promise great things we must not fall in commonplace things.

(7.) That we can only meet temptation by rising and standing, meeting it face to face.

Christian Endeavor.

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF SORROW.

Terse Comments Upon the Uniform Prayer-meeting Topic of the Young People's Societies, Christian Endeavor, Baptist Young People's Union, Epworth League, etc. For November 11, "Christ's Life; His Sorrows and How He Bore Them." John xi, 30-38; Isa. liii, 3-4.

By William T. Ellis.

Every situation in life is a schoolroom, every experience a teacher. There is no event, no incident, no hour, without its message. We are all learners and each of us receives individual instruction. One lesson, though, there is for all alike; it is, perhaps, the greatest lesson in the curriculum of life—the lesson of suffering. The deepest, largest and most beautiful truths in God's storehouse of knowledge are taught us by this dark-robed teacher who is variously named Pain, Sorrow, Disappointment, Burdens.

Our dark days teach us the beauty of our bright days. We would seldom thank God for our special mercies were some of them not withdrawn occasionally for a season.

Sorrow sends us to the Savior. As a bird flies to her nest at the approach of a storm, so the soul of a Christian hastens to Jesus when clouds of adversity arise. Strangely enough, even disciples sometimes think that they can get along without divine help when the days are fair. Therefore the need of trouble to drive us to the breast of the Savior, who is our comfort, our shelter and our strength.

Bright lives are grown on dark days. Earth's choicest saints are those that have passed through the deepest trials. Troubles teach trust.

It is good for us to realize our dependence upon God, for only thus can we know peace and security. If we can find out our helplessness in no other way than by being thrown prostrate by trouble, still let us sing aloud because we have learned our lesson at any cost. No price is too great to pay for a sense of complete dependence upon God.

The dark days should never dim hope, but they should awaken humility. God does not design any trial for our despair, yet it is pleasing to Him if we learn that in ourselves there is no reason for boastfulness or pride. We are safest and strongest when we are conscious of our own limitations. Our mistakes, our failures, our sins, our burdens, and our sorrows, all speak the message that we should be humble. If we are so often and so easily overcome, why then be puffed up and self-satisfied?

Sorrow is a school of strength.

Sorrow teaches sympathy. Only the soul that has suffered can be a brother to the soul that is suffering. Ability to enter into another's feelings, and to lift up the hearts that are bowed down, is one of the lessons learned in the dark days. Because Jesus was a man of sorrows, every suffering soul that has known Him has found Him kin.

The lonely learn the love of God.

Tears wash the eyes. Few of us can see clearly until we have sorrowed. Life's vital interests, both our own and our neighbors', become plainer to us after we have sojourned in the dark valley. One of tribulation's compensations is that we learn what to value in life, and how to understand ourselves and our neighbors.

The essentials and the non-essentials of life are curiously bound up and interminglied. Most persons are pursuing ends that are really not worthy of immortals. Often it is not until shut up in the chamber of grief that a person learns what is worth while in life. Poverty, disappointment, or the death of a loved one, must overtake some men before they can perceive what are enduring and worthy goals for a soul.

NEWS AND NOTES.

The Zionist Congress, which was held recently, issued a declaration that they will colonize in no other country but their own "promised land."

One of the daughters of Garibaldi is a teacher in a Methodist Sunday-school in Italy, and one of his grandsons is preparing for missionary service on the foreign field.

The American Board, the foreign missionary organization of the Congregational Church, has raised a million dollars for foreign missions during the financial year which has just closed. the announcement of the successful issue of "the million dollar campaign" at the Haystack Centennial recently held at Williamstown, Massachusetts, a thank-offering of $12,000 was made.

A group of French priests have issued a call for a "free assembly of the clergy" to be held in Paris within a few weeks. The call is signed by thirty priests, and has attracted wide attention from the political journals of that country. The purpose of the assembly is to study plans of reform and to issue a declaration of their principles. A council of jurists have offered their services to these would-be reformers.

The Moral Progress League of Manila, which is determined to clean the islands from gambling, numbers among its membership Bishop Brent, of the Episcopal Church, the Roman Catholic Archbishop, Harty, the ex-provincial governors, and five hundred Americans. A petition for the enforcement of the laws against gambling will be presented by the league to the Governor.

Christianizing Indians by teaching them shorthand has been achieved through the efforts of Father Le Jeune, a French Catholic missionary who was sent out from Brittany a few years ago, making his headquarters three hundred miles northeast of Victoria, in British Columbia. To be successful in his mission it was necessary to devise a system of communication between himself and the native tribes. As they had no written language of their own he conceived the idea of teaching them to write their language in shorthand symbols. So apt have they become in this art that medals have been presented to them by King Edward and the Pope for their efficiency. Bibles, prayer books and hymns are printed in this sign language.

As the rolling snowball that grows with ever increasing volume with each succeeding revolution, has been the history of Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate for over fifty years. Year after year the demand for it has increased by greater and still greater bounds, necessitating frequent increase in factory capacity.

That's evidence conclusive that the peculiarly rich flavor, which is preserved by the Ghirardelli process of preparation, pleases, and that's why we say YOU will like it.

Ask your grocer for it.

Merchants realize the immense increase in trade if tens of thousands of new families are induced to settle here. Already a large percentage of the industrial firms have guaranteed contributions ranging as high as $10,000 for a single subscription.

PLACE FOR FACTORIES.

Manufacturers are wanted in California; factories which will sell goods to the Orient and the East and bring cash into the State to be distributed as wages and rent.

Eastern people of means will also be told about the joys and pleasures of living in California.

One is struck with the thoroughness of the preparations and the business sense shown in every detail of the work. Not a dollar of the sum will be wasted in experiments or questionable mediums. Nearly all of the men who have contributed their time to the work are practical men of affairs, themselves acquainted with advertising, and heavily interested in the welfare of the State.

Without a doubt, the campaign will create an era of prosperity which will even overshadow the present growth of the State, and utterly wipe away all false impressions resulting from the San Francisco disaster.

A contract has been made with the MacIntyre Advertising Company whereby all space in Eastern publications will be charged to the organization at the publisher's lowest rates, this agency will prepare all advertisements; make all cuts and drawings without cost subject to the approval of the executive committee. Ninety per cent. of the gross subscriptions will be used for space, and the remaining 10 per cent. in issuing literature.

WHOLE STATE BENEFITS.

One of the chief merits of the work is the system whereby all communications received will be referred to every Chamber of Commerce in the State which desires to receive them, thus making the advertising work in harmony with existing bodies.

Information that has roused the patriotism of California is the fact that four States in the Northwest, Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana, are preparing a similar advertising campaign, the intention being to divert travel from California to the Northwest and to encourage visitors to seek Seattle, Tacoma and Portland for investments instead of California cities.

Citizens of the Northern States believe that California has lost some of its prestige in the East, and are working energetically through their boards of trade to raise a large sum. However, the sturdy Californians behind the advertising project in the State are determined that the country shall learn the truth. "California must lead," is the slogan that has inspired them, and they should and will succeed.

It is an enterprise worthy of liberal support—a campaign that will return the amount subscribed a thousand times over.

Nature's Own Remedy

Constipation is not only disagreeable—it is dangerous. If allowed to run on and become chronic it will prove the forerunner of sickness and disease. Nature intended that the bowels should move regularly at least once every day, and she will not be satisfied with anything less. The delicate stomach and bowels are the keystone of the arch of the human physical organization, and should be kept in normal working order to preserve health. When the bowels become sluggish they require a natural and harmless laxative. Too often they are permanently damaged by powerful drugs taken into them several times a day in the effort to force action. Nature itself has provided her own harmless laxative, the famous Natural Mineral Water—HUNYADI JANOS—which can be relied on for quick and sure results. One dose of this water (½ a tumblerful) drunk on arising in the morning (slightly warmed for best results) will, within an hour, move the bowels gently and copiously. A bottle costs but a trifle and contains many doses. At all Druggists.

"getting into" the Yosemite National Park will be missed by the old-timer next year, for the completion of the Yosemite Valley Railroad by Southern Pacific interests, will do away with the long eighty-mile stage ride. The new railway, which will open for service next March, extends from Merced Falls to the boundary of the park, twelve miles from the center of the valley.

GEORGE W. DALY.

From the terminus of the railroad, either by automobile or stage, driven over a magnificently-kept turnpike, the visitor will be quickly taken to the hotels. More than fifteen hundred men are at work on the construction, and it is promised that the last rail will be laid by February 15.

The new railway up the Merced River will easily rank with the scenic railways of the world. It is a magnificent panorama of river and cañon scenery from Merced Falls to the Park line. With the $3,000,000 which Frank A. Miller of the Glenwood at Riverside, who has secured the exclusive privilege for hotels in the park, will spend in perfecting accommodations for the visitor, the next season at the Yosemite promises to be an exceptionally lively one for the transportation companies.

MIDLAND MEETING.

Malone Joyce, agent of the Colorado Midland, accompanied by W. H. Davenport, general agent of the same line at San Francisco, will leave the latter part of the month to attend a meeting of all of the representatives of the Midland to be held at Denver December 3. H. C. Bush, traffic manager, will preside at this meeting, and ways and means of getting business will be discussed, and suggestions received from all agents present.

TAKES THE COUNT.

Harry Stewart, Referee, Has Experience in Two Hospitals, but Is Now Said to Have Recovered.

Harry Stewart, formerly noted as a prize fight referee, was released last night from the Receiving Hospital, after being detained in the city institution for nearly twenty-four hours. According to the police surgeons, Stewart has been suffering from an affection of the mind.

Some days ago Stewart went to the Receiving Hospital and applied for admittance, saying that he felt very ill. After the doctor made an examination of the man he informed him that he would be ill for some days and that he had better call a private physician. Stewart followed the hospital doctor's instructions and went to the Clara Barton Hospital.

Shortly before midnight Thursday, Stewart was taken from the Clara Barton Hospital and returned to the Receiving Hospital. He seemed to be out of his mind temporarily, but the authorities at the City Jail do not understand why Stewart was returned from the private institution to the city hospital. After some delay Stewart was released, as he seemed to have recovered from his illness.

THROUGH MEXICO AND TO YUMA.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC NOW WILL RUSH ITS LOOP.

Conquering of the Colorado Means Railroad Activity in Imperial Section—Daly Comes Here as Traveling Agent for New York Central, To the Yosemite.

With the Colorado River safely shut up in its banks again, the Southern Pacific will not delay the completion of the loop on its main line from Imperial Junction down into Mexico and back to Yuma.

As soon as more construction material can be placed upon the ground, work will be resumed on this line, the completion of which has been held up by the floods of the Colorado River pouring through the Imperial Valley and completely inundating the roadbed.

By the present main line the distance between Imperial and Yuma is sixty-five miles. The new line, extending into Mexico, will lengthen the mileage somewhat, but it will enable a shortening of the time by cutting out very heavy grades, and will materially reduce the cost of maintenance by carrying the line of the road out of a region infested by drifting sands that keep a force of men busy nearly all the time clearing the rails of the shifting deposits.

NEW TRAVELING AGENT.

George W. Daly, formerly for a number of years with the Chicago general offices of the New York Central, has been appointed traveling passenger agent for Southern California, with headquarters at Los Angeles.

Accompanied by his wife, Mr. Daly has just arrived in Los Angeles to report for duty to F. M. Byron, passenger representative of the road in this territory.

Come And Talk To Us!

There's the point—the most vital one. Don't be afraid—don't be backward—consider us your friends. We want to talk to the young man, the father, the middle-aged man, we want you to feel that we never abuse any confidence placed in us.

We've been right in Los Angeles and right in one location for years, and by special permission we have framed and prominently exhibited in our reception rooms many unsolicited testimonials. They are placed there to make the stranger feel right, to let him know that he is in the right place, to make him feel that we know our business.

We cure when we take your case. If you are sick we want you to come and talk with us. If you are incurable you want to know it. Consultation costs you nothing—surely your health is worth considering.

VARICOCELE
Any doctor can treat it, but it requires the knowledge and skill of an expert to cure. We cure it, and no operation.

WEAKNESS
Many men, young and old, have spent a small fortune in trying to regain their vitality. They become discouraged and disgusted. They get the blues. They have tried all patent medicines and only grown worse. Poor souls. Health and happiness can only be reached by a thorough scientific, conscientious course of treatment. We can cure you, but not unless you use our treatment. Begin now.

STRICTURE
You may have been "sounded" and "dilated," but you are not well and you know it. Perhaps you are relieved but that is all. There may be others who know how to cure stricture without operating, but we do not know who they are. We do know that we cure it, and you stay cured forever.

BLOTCHES
and skin diseases cause great discomfort of body and mind. See the young man with pimples all over his face. See the fingers pointed at him. We can remove them in seven days and cure you. We are your friends.

NOT A DOLLAR NEED BE PAID UNTIL CURED

You do not pay us until you are satisfied that you are restored to health. Can we say more? You may consult us free of charge and get our opinion without any cost to you. Call and let us explain our method of treatment. We cure Varicocele, Rupture, Stricture, Prostatic Ailments and All Diseases of Men.

Consultation Free and Invited. Our reputation and work is not of mushroom growth, nor is it the experience of one man. In complicated cases the entire staff consult without extra charge, thus getting the knowledge of five instead of one. We are incorporated and chartered by the State of California, and our reliability cannot be questioned.

Write, if you cannot call. All correspondence strictly confidential and all replies sent in plain envelopes. Inclose 2-cent stamp to insure reply. OFFICE HOURS—9:00 a. m. to 5 p. m. Evenings, 6:30 to 8:20. Sundays, 9:00 a. m. to 12 noon.

THE PENALTY OF OVERWORK

Work has been man's lot since the creation, but a day of toil should not have its penalty of pain. Why is it, then, you ask, that backache so often follows? It is because the modern tendency is to overwork, to tear down faster than nature can rebuild. An unnatural strain is thrown upon the vital organs, and more especially upon the kidneys, which have the work of filtering the blood free of waste and poison.

The heavy tax of overwork—the strain upon the back that is so common to many trades and occupations, is too great. The kidneys begin to fail in their work, and there is a double danger to health. The poisonous matter collects in the system, and the kidneys themselves begin to break down.

Pain in the back is only a warning of trouble in the kidneys. An inflammation has set in, and a disordered condition of the urine soon becomes apparent.

Too much or too little urine, with a constant desire to void the secretions; any noticeable deviation from the normal color; the appearance of a sandy sediment, proves a disordered condition of the kidneys, that needs quick attention.

If your work seems hard for you, if you have a lame, weak or aching back, if you seem tired and listless, and seem to be running down without apparent cause, begin at once with Doan's Kidney Pills, the great kidney remedy that has cured so many of your neighbors. It has given thousands of workingmen and women strong, sound backs for their daily work.

LOS ANGELES PROOF.

L. M. Venard, butcher, living at 313 Commercial street, Los Angeles, says: "I suffered off and on for a long time with dull, heavy aching pains in my loins, back and kidneys. My work requires considerable stooping and the strain on the muscles of the back caused severe suffering, and I had to be careful in straightening up. Whenever I caught cold it settled in my kidneys, causing too frequent action, especially at night, when it disturbed my rest. I tried several different remedies but received no lasting benefit. In some way my attention was called to Doan's Kidney Pills and I procured a box and commenced their use. By the time I had taken three boxes I was entirely cured."

MEN I Not Only Give Immediate Relief But

Every case I treat is thoroughly and completely cured, the system purified and cleansed. There is a cure for these diseases, which are often treated blindly and by unreliable methods.

Contracted Diseases, Stricture are destructive to the reproductive system, impairing strength and vitality. I remove every vestige of poison and effect a prompt and permanent cure.

VARICOCELE undermines and weakens the reproductive system. Cold, clammy conditions usually prevail as a result. I cure these conditions in four to six days.

Functional Decline
Organic Weakness

My Treatment of this condition is most rational and scientific. It restores health and strength, and you will note improvement from the first.

THE CITY IN BRIEF

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Los Angeles Street Sale.

R. A. Rowan and Company have sold to a local investor for E. P. Bryan, a lot 70x126 feet on the west side of Los Angeles street, 100 feet south of Eighth, for approximately $40,000.

Seeks to Recover.

Emma Blanchard of this city has filed suit in the courts of Providence, R. I., against Martin T. Birmingham, Harriet S. Birmingham and Delia T. Birmingham, alias Jane Frisbey, of Warwick, to recover $5000 upon a note alleged to have been made by the defendants.

Negro Struck Woman?

A. Williams, a negro, was arrested last night at Fifth street and Central avenue, and is held on suspicion. Williams is said to be the man who struck Bessie Mathews, a negress, in a fight several days ago. She swore to a complaint of battery against him.

Suffers Bruises.

Charles McCleary of No. 207 East First street, attempted to board a car at First and Hill streets last night, and fell on the pavement. McCleary sustained a deep wound on the forehead and several bruises about the body. The car crew assisted him to the Receiving Hospital.

Had Rock in Pocket.

W. Jones was arrested on Central avenue near Fifth street, last night, on suspicion. The arresting officers say that they saw Jones following a man, apparently, and when they overtook him, he attempted to escape. In Jones's pocket was found a rock. Jones is held for investigation.

Fun Before Christmas.

Branch No. 57 of the United National Association of Postoffice Clerks will give a dance and card party November 20 at the Woman's Club House, No. 916 South Figueroa street. On account of the coming Christmas rush, which is expected to be greater than ever before, this will be the last dance given in 1906 by the clerks.

Arrested on Suspicion.

M. Brown, a negro, was arrested on East Third street on suspicion of being connected with the robbery of a man on South Main street, near First street, Monday night. Brown and a negress were described by the man robbed as the parties who robbed him. Laura Gardner, a negress now in the City Jail is supposed to know something about the matter.

Negro Alleges Robbery.

Isaac Scott, a negro, living at No. 2307 East Fifty-first street, reported to the police last night, that three men had robbed him of $52 at No. 222 East Third street. Scott found Patrolman Cline, and he and the officer went to the place, but found no one. The matter was referred to the detective department for investigation. Scott said three men held him up with knives and guns.

North California Promotion.

A new promotion organization has been effected called the North of Bay Counties Association, which embraces all the promotion interests of Sonoma, Napa, Marin, Mendocino and Lake counties. They have opened on ...ice in Los Angeles, and their representative, Francis Hope, will remain here and endeavor to interest people in that section of the State.

Hurt by a Car.

In a collision between an inbound Los Angeles-Pacific car and a wagon at Sixteenth and Georgia streets last evening E. G. Euciso of No. 2220 Hunter street was hurled from the vehicle and rendered unconscious. Euciso was sent to the Receiving Hospital and later removed to his home. Euciso was proceeding in his wagon west on Sixteenth street and when he noticed that a car was nearing him he attempted to cross in front of the trolley. The crash followed. His injuries are not of a serious nature.

Students Present Plays.

Students of the Polytechnic High School were entertained yesterday by the school's Dramatic Society which rendered two plays that thoroughly pleased its audience. The plays, one entitled, "A Love of a Bonnet," and the other "Turning the Tables" were criticised by judges who will give an opinion as to whom they consider capable for taking parts in the large plays. The auditorium was well filled and the performances kept the audience in a roar.

East First Paving.

It was reported at the meeting of the Ninth Ward Improvement Association, held at No. 2114 East First street last night on the matter of the projected paving of East First street, that the signatures to the petition represent 10,000 feet more than the required frontage. The secretary, W. J. Bryant, was instructed to write to the Board of Public Works urging the immediate construction of storm sewers without waiting for the proceeds of the bonds which have already been sold.

FEET ARE TOO BIG.

Colored Women Betrayed by Their Boots—Arrested for Supplying Liquor to Prisoners.

Two negro women were caught early yesterday morning smuggling liquor and tobacco to companions in the City Jail by a novel method. Carrie Douglas and Bessie Matthews are the names they gave when arrested.

A telephone message to the Central Police Station warned the officers that the pair were underneath the rear windows of the jail and were acting in a peculiar manner. Patrolmen Home and Humphries investigated. In neighboring houses they discovered the prisoners. Carrie Douglas was not short enough to conceal her feet beneath a bed, and the Matthews woman was found beneath a table.

They had fastened a bucketfull of tobacco and bottles of liquor to a rope lowered by two colored women prisoners when the informant of the police saw them.

WITH THOUSAND TONS OF CONCRETE TWELVE MEN GO DOWN TO DEATH.

Main Portion of Great Bixby Hotel at Long Beach Collapses, With Terrible Results—Green Cement and Weak Supports Blamed.

THE Bixby Hotel at Long Beach, the largest reinforced concrete building in the world, partly collapsed yesterday morning.

The main structure gave way and crumpled into a dust heap, but the two wings are standing intact.

Twelve are known to be dead and eight injured. Three bodies still lie buried beneath hundreds of tons of ruins.

Architects attribute the collapse to "mongrel" construction, and the supposition that the supports were removed from green concrete, not properly dried and "set."

One hundred and forty men were employed on the building. The escape of the majority from instant death was in many instances regarded as almost miraculous.

The building, five stories, is shaped like the letter H. The bar to the H gave way, and carried down the five stories.

For two hours after the great building collapsed the muffled cries of the workmen buried beneath tons of concrete and twisted steel could be heard.

Strong men worked until they fainted from exhaustion trying to reach those pinioned under the mass. All night hundreds of rescuers worked by electric light.

The directors of the Bixby Hotel Company met last night and adopted a strong resolution that the accident shall not interfere in the least with the rebuilding.

The damage to the building is estimated at from $25,000 to $50,000. The exact loss will not be known for several days. The Bixby is to cost $750,000, and is expected to be the premier strand hotel of the Pacific Coast.

Eager rescuers working on the apex of the death-dealing avalanche of concrete and twisted steel in the heart of the Bixby Hotel building; also side view showing how the columns and girders were snapped on the wrecked main building.

The main portion of the new Bixby Hotel building, under construction on the strand at Long Beach, collapsed yesterday morning, carrying with it the 140 workingmen employed at the time.

Of the total number of men on the building at the time, nine are known to be dead, and their bodies have been recovered; three are still missing, and are believed to lie beneath the 1000 tons of debris, and eight are in the Long Beach Hospital, in a serious condition.

The escape of the other 120 from death or injury is wonderful.

DEAD SO FAR FOUND.

ALBERT HARTEL, carpenter, aged 35, lived at No. 130 East Main street, Long Beach; married; leaves widow and two children.

CARLTON BRASHEAR, aged 40, plumber, single; lived in Long Beach.

B. A. HUBBLE, aged 33, lived at No. 621 West First street, Long Beach.

L. N. PHILLIPS, finisher, lived at No. 659 Maple avenue, Long Beach. Died in hospital.

F. NORTON, aged 35, boarded on Third street, Long Beach.

ALVIN BESSHEZER, aged 35; came to Long Beach three days ago from Kansas City.

UNRECOVERED BODIES.

—— COLLINS of Bakersfield, a carpenter.

LIST OF INJURED.

E. C. WATSON, laborer, Long Beach; head, face and body cut and bruised.

F. W. SCHULTZ, carpenter, lives in Long Beach; cut about face and arms.

ALEXANDER BANAY, leg fractured; lives in Long Beach.

P. H. IMLAY, single, lives on American avenue, Long Beach; crushed about the legs and head.

G. RINABARGER, cement finisher, lives in Long Beach; body and legs cut and bruised.

J. J. WALSH, condition serious; lives at No. 621 West First street, Long Beach.

SUDDEN SNAP AND CRASH.

At exactly 9:45 o'clock the catastrophe occurred. Without warning to the workmen engaged in almost every part of the building, the fifth floor sagged a trifle, then bending slowly, the great concrete beams broke like reeds, the steel rods which bound the cement together snapped with startling sounds; with a great downward rush it struck the floor below, and like a house of cards, the sides, tops and floors of the structure melted into a mass of roaring, plunging debris, which did not stop until the entire main structure was lying in a great distorted heap in what was intended to be the court of the hotel.

Like ants caught upon some great avalanche the workingmen rushed for safety. As they strode the floors they had builded trembled and gave away. They cried out shrilly and clutched at the beams and girders, and then plunged into the seething, roaring mass of crushed concrete, tile and twisted steel.

ONLY THE WINGS LEFT.

It was over in a small fraction of a minute. Where had stood the imposing five-story main portion of the hotel, nothing but the naked walls of the two principal wings of the building remained. Workmen who were outside of the radius of collapse fainted and clung sobbing to the girders. Some workmen leaped wildly to their fate in the awful pit which once marked the court. Five stories and the roof of what is to be one of the most imposing hotel buildings in Southern California lay now a mass of debris from which came the feeble cries of the victims.

MEN CLING TO SIDES.

About the sides of the remaining two wings a score of workmen clung like leeches. Shrilly their cries rang out through the clouds of lime dust. The survivors who were in places of safety, numbed by the calamity which they had so narrowly escaped, lay prone upon their faces and sobbed and cursed in their horror.

As the dust cleared away and the skeleton of the building was revealed, a silence that was awful in its intensity hovered for a moment over the little city by the sea, and then a great heart-rending sob went up, and the work of rescue was on.

From the upper floors of the remaining portion of the building, the uninjured workmen came leaping and jumping grotesquely. From floor to floor, distances of sixteen feet, they plunged. Absolute disregard of their safety seemed to dominate the men. Out of the clouds of lime and cement dust which were settling about the building, they plunged, sobbing like children. They rushed pell mell out on Ocean Front avenue, where they halted. But a minute had elapsed since the walls had crumpled in upon themselves, and they stafed dumbly into the pit where a great conical mound of debris hid the toilers, who a minute before were singing at their work.

CRIES BRING RESCUERS.

The halt was but a second, then through the air came the piercing cry of one of the injured. It acted as a spark to powder. With one accord the workers rushed for the building, which but a moment before they had left in terror.

Leaping and calling out the names of their comrades, they dashed into the basement and tore and scratched at the immense blocks of flinty concrete and twisted steel.

The people of Long Beach swarmed toward the building, and within five minutes after the accident 500 men were struggling with the twisted mass and shouting words of encouragement to the victims who could be seen.

The fire department turned out on the run and volunteered its service. The police department to a man rushed into the wrecked building and helped in the rescue.

Immediately in the center of the structure was the mass of a thousand tons of debris. The top extended above the second floor. Great columns which had snapped off at their base had plunged down the five stories and the puny hands of the workers were as nothing against their weight.

Two hundred laborers were rushed to the scene by the Pacific Electric Railway Company. Every able-bodied man in Long Beach took off his coat and made a hero of himself as he toiled along with the peons to rescue the victims.

DANGER LOOMS.

A cordon was quickly strung about the ruined building and Company H, Seventh Infantry, N. G. C., of Long Beach was called out. Like veterans the soldier boys started for the doomed structure on the run. With fixed bayonet they kept the eager crowd of the curious at a safe distance.

Danger loomed largely about the structure. No one could tell whether the towering sides of the two wings would go down in the same deadly manner. Yet on the ground floor, on a level with the beach, 500 frenzied men worked with bleeding fingers regardless of the menacing masses of concrete which towered above them.

With the presence of Co. H the women and children who had rushed into the building were ejected, and systematic work of rescue began.

BIG BEN, HERO.

On top of the deadly cone of débris one figure stood out vividly in the sunlight. It was Big Ben O'Brien, a carpenter. He was rending and tearing at a mass of débris and alternately cursing and sobbing. Blood streamed from a cut at the side of his head. His fingers were mere red stumps, but he still tore at the mass. The other workers called to him to come down, but he paid no heed, cursing and sobbing the louder. The man worked like a demon. Others clambered to his side and tried to take him away. He struck at them with his stumpy, bloody fingers and continued his work.

An awed silence fell over the workers for an instance at the man's great passion and grief. Then, through the instant's stillness came a feeble voice.

AN APPEALING CALL.

"It's me, Ben, Fred, you know. Down by this column."

It was the voice of Fred Collins, bosom chum and comrade of O'Brien. Five feet beneath the débris, flattened out against a great column and pinioned fast, he called feebly to his comrade to rescue him.

A hundred eager men leaped upon the top of the pile and tore and wrenched at the mass. The battle was against them, and with quavering, sobbing sound the voice ceased. Like a demon O'Brien beat his hands against the hard blocks of concrete. He was forcibly taken away. Through his foot a spike five inches long had pierced. A piece of wood still clunge to the nail, but he had not noticed such a thing when he heard the voice of his comrade slowly dying out as the great weight crushed the life from him.

At 6 o'clock last night, when a steam derrick had been brought into play, the body of Collins was recovered. In his hand he still grasped his carpenter's level, which had saved him from instant death by wedging across his chest.

HEART-TOUCHING SCENES.

GREEN CEMENT, WEAK SUPPORTS.

CONTRACTOR F. L. SPAULDING.

ARCHITECTS who visited the scene of the disaster during the day and viewed the ruins, were seemingly unanimous in the opinion that insufficient supports under the fifth floor and possibly green cement caused that floor to give way under the weight of the roof, and that the mass was precipitated downward, carrying each succeeding floor with it until the basement was hit.

This theory is stoutly opposed by Contractor Spaulding and his superintendent. They contend that the footings of the great center columns shifted in the sands, that this caused the first floor to twist, and that the heart of the building was thus pulled out.

The center columns are still guarding their own secret. Their base is buried beneath thousands of tons of debris. Last night 500 men were working to clear away this mass, searching for the bodies of three laborers who are still missing. But another twenty-four hours must elapse before the mystery of the sands can be revealed.

Workmen employed on the building at the time it fell are standing by Contractor Spaulding almost to a man. They either say that the first floor fell first or they keep their peace. While the few persons who witnessed the disaster from the street are unable to remember anything except that "the top folded in like two breakers curling on the beach and the whole mass sank amid a cloud of dust that hid everything."

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The Board of Public Works yesterday made agreements with property owners south of Santa Monica avenue, whereby the city is to allow them the use of three heads of sewage water for the irrigation of their lands.

Bids were awarded yesterday for the construction of seven pieces of street work.

A delegation of Boyle Heights citizens was promised yesterday that the Board of Public Works would advance the storm-drain project for the Sixth street and Stephenson-avenue district.

In the case of Anton Besold, who is accused of murdering his wife in Temescal Cañon, counsel for defense announced the intention of having the body exhumed and exhibited in Justice Young's court. Mrs. Pickett, with whom Besold went through the marriage ceremony, was put on the witness stand, but her testimony was stricken out on technical grounds.

Judge Wilbur yesterday overruled the demurrer in the suit of the Banning Company and others against the Longshoremen's Union at San Pedro, and issued another injunction.

The case of Pablo Moreno, who is charged with the murder of Pablo Civala, will be given to the jury in Judge Smith's court today.

Jerry Cahan, a miner, claims that he has been swindled in a horse deal at the sales stables of Frye & Goetz, at No. 1110 North Main street, and he is awaiting the city prosecutor's decision as to prosecution.

Harry Tharp, who is charged with assault on his wife and a patrolman, was put under $2500 bonds in Justice Austin's court yesterday, pending a preliminary examination. Saloon-keepers furnished the money.

H. W. Frank, the druggist, who was arraigned on the charge of employing an unlicensed pharmacist, was found guilty in Justice Chamber's court yesterday. He will be sentenced today.

AT THE CITY HALL.

SEWAGE TO RUN UPON RANCHES.

PUBLIC WORKS BOARD ADOPTS RELIEF PLANS.

Will Allow Three Heads of Sewage to Go on Four-Hundred-Acre Tract, and Hasten Completion of Santa Monica Avenue Section for Temporary Measure.

Work is to be rushed on the 4300-foot stretch of the new outfall sewer on Santa Monica avenue, so that this drain can be used in the Board of Public Work's plan for relieving the pressure on the old outfall sewer.

It is estimated that three months will be required to finish this section, but the board does not propose to await even this time. It plans the using of temporary ditches to divert some of the sewage until it can use the Santa Monica avenue outfall.

The board has had surveys made to determine just how much land below Santa Monica avenue and Arlington street can be irrigated with the sewage as it can be carried by gravity. It has been determined that fully 400 acres are so situated in that neighborhood that they can advantageously use the sewage.

Yesterday the owners of this land, Messrs. R. D. List, Charles Baldwin and G. A. Nelson, appeared before the board and the maps and plans were discussed. The understanding which has been reached is to the effect that these land owners are to have the free use of three heads of sewage, of 300 miner's inches, for use on their lands until the completion of the whole new outfall sewer. After that period they are to have a like amount of sewage for at least three years upon the payment of the usual sewage rates.

As soon as the uncompleted section of the Santa Monica avenue sewer is finished, sewage will be diverted from the old outfall to this drain, and the three heads will be allowed to escape on the 400-acre tract.

BIDS AWARDED.

MORE SEWER WORK.

To sewer Avenue 54 and other streets—Awarded to M. L. Hostetter, at $4498, for sewer complete.

To sewer, Twenty-second street, from Adair street to San Pedro street—Awarded to C. Ukropina at $330, for sewer complete.

To improve Compton avenue, from Sixteenth street to Twentieth street—Awarded to Withers & Orton at $2.87 per lineal foot for grading and graveling; 34 cents per lineal foot for cement curb; 13½ cents per square foot for sidewalk.

To curb and sidewalk Victor street, from Bellevue avenue to Temple street—Awarded to J. S. Helsley at 25½ cents per lineal foot for cement curb; 13½ cents per square foot for sidewalk.

To improve Normandie avenue, from Thirty-sixth street to Santa Monica avenue—Awarded to George Rheinschild, at $2.18 per lineal foot for grading and graveling; 37 cents per lineal foot for cement curb; 13½ cents per square foot for sidewalk.

To improve Repton street, from Avenue 66 to Garvanza Addition No. 1—Awarded to W. T. McBride, at $2.67 per lineal foot for grading and graveling; 36 cents per lineal foot for cement curb; 13 cents per square foot for sidewalk.

who married Besold, the alleged wife-murderer, and Justice Young, who declared he would punish an artist for contempt of court if he undertook to sketch her on the witness stand. This shows Mrs. Pickett as she appeared in court when she removed her veil temporarily.

Street Widening Plans.

A large delegation of property owners in the vicinity of South Park appeared before the Board of Public Works yesterday, to discuss plans for the widening of East Forty-ninth street, just north of the park. When the land owners of the north side of Forty-ninth street laid out their tract they dedicated to the city a 40-foot street, and placed the cement sidewalk and curb on the north side of the street, and a cement curb on the south side, one foot north of the southerly street line. But when the property-owners on the south side of the street made their subdivision, they planned to front their lots on South Park avenue, facing a sidewalk running through the park, but which is not on a street. As a result, the rear of their lots faces the street donated by the first subdividers. Now, the north-side property owners ask that those on the south be compelled to donate a strip of land twenty feet wide for street and sidewalk purposes. This is objected to because of the shallow lots which would be left. A long discussion before the Board of Public Works yesterday resulted in a tentative proposition to dedicate a 9-foot strip on the southerly side, thus giving a 10-foot strip for curb and sidewalk. Assessment Clerk Schreiber will make estimates on the amount of assessment necessary to carry through this project.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

WANTS MERCHANTS' HELP.

The Board of Health at its meeting last night gladly accepted the offer of the Southern California Retail Grocers' Association whereby they will coöperate with the board in an effort to secure State legislation which will make the California laws conform to the new pure-food laws of the United States.

The Board of Health, however, did not take kindly to another suggestion made by the merchants' organization. In its communication this body stated that it had discussed at its last meeting the methods of the Board of Health in testing milk, and it suggested that some provisions be made whereby the local merchants might be protected. The desire was expressed that when the milk inspector takes samples of milk from stores they be required to seal the bottle containing the remainder of the milk, and that the grocer may then submit this retained milk to some reputable chemist for analysis, and thus protect his interests.

This suggestion aroused the ire of the Health Board members.

"We have absolute confidence in our inspectors," declared Dr. Manning. "These men are the servants of the public as well as agents of the Board of Health, and if the public can't trust them we'd better quit business."

It was decided that the Grocers' Association be notified that its suggestion is considered impracticable. Dr. Kurtz stated that in most of the cases where milk is condemned it is not made apparent by a chemical analysis, but by a count of the bacteria.

The board indorsed the plan of the Board of Public Works to appoint a man to the position of inspector of garbage collection. It also approved the plan of the Public Works Board to burn waste papers gathered in the garbage collection on the plot of land known as the Redondo Triangle, located out on South Santa Fé avenue at the city limits. A protest was received from property owners in that vicinity, who declared that these fires caused an unspeakable odor, but the protest was filed.

While no formal action was taken on the matter, a tacit understanding was reached that the Board of Health will refrain from pressing property owners to make sewer connections, because of present conditions at the outfall sewer.

A resolution was passed requesting the Board of Public Works to furnish at least three of the cottages at the Detention Hospital, so that the city would be prepared to care for patients should there come an outbreak of smallpox.

Eighteen applications for permits to sell milk were granted.

The reports of inspectors showed that within the past two weeks there have been condemned 17,675 pounds of fruit.

Boyle Heights Storm Drain.

Boyle Heights citizens are getting anxious for the storm drain promised three years ago. Yesterday property owners in the Ninth Ward, headed by their Councilman, F. L. Blanchard, appeared before the Board of Public Works, and asked that the storm drain be built at once from Sixth street to Stephenson avenue. When confronted with the plea that there are no available funds, and that the general fund will have to be drawn upon for the building of two bridges in the Ninth Ward, "Uncle Billy" Workman declared: "My God, sir, the city would better spend the money for storm drains than voting machines. Leave the matter of funds to Councilman Blanchard, and he'll get the necessary money from some source." The board finally agreed to advance the storm-drain project as rapidly as possible. While the work has been estimated to cost at least $2000, City Treasurer Workman declares it can be done for $1200.

EXECUTIVE SESSION.

MYSTERIOUS POLICE BOARD.

There was a long drawn out executive session of the Police Commission, last night, in the office of Mayor McAleer, and at its close neither the Mayor nor any member of his commission was willing to give out any of the results of this deliberation.

"What we have done is simply for the best interests of the city," declared Mayor McAleer, when pressed for a statement of their action. "I am not at liberty to say just now anything further. We have taken no definite action—simply been discussing what is best to be done."

That the subject of the Chieftainship of the police department was the point of discussion was evident. Acting Chief Flammer was present. He also was one of the Mayor's guests at the outing given the day before in Griffith Park, and while there spent much time in close conversation with Councilman Edward Kern, who is said to be slated for the position which Flammer now holds.

City Hall gossip says that it is probable the appointment of Kern will be made at next Tuesday's meeting of the Commission.

Want Grade Established.

Property owners on Mohawk street have petitioned the City Council to establish the official grade of that street from Montana street to Angelica. A petition has also been received, asking for the establishment of the grade of Hyperion street from Effie street to Sunset boulevard.

Fire Board to San Diego.

Fire Chief Lips and the members of the Fire Commission have agreed to go to San Diego on December 8 to witness a test of the new Ahrens fire engine, which has been ordered for that city. Chief Shulte of the San Diego fire department was in Los Angeles yesterday, the guest of Chief Lips, and made arrangements for the shipment of the new Ahrens engine to the Bay City. He claims for this engine great power and simplicity, and the Los Angeles commissioners will study its work with the view of placing orders for fire engines for use in this city.

Makes Way for Cathedral.

The Board of Public Works yesterday allowed the request of Bishop Conaty and declared vacant the alley extending through the church property from Green to Whittier streets and between Eighth and Ninth streets. This is the site on which will arise the great cathedral for the Diocese of Monterey and Los Angeles and the vacation of the alley is required for the carrying out of the plans for this structure.

Socialists Want a Place.

The Socialist party has filed with the City Clerk its petition for a place on the official ballot for the coming municipal election.

Street Improvement.

Property owners have petitioned for the improvement of Norfolk street, between Griffin and Eastlake avenues, under the bond provisions of the Vrooman Act.

City Treasurer's Report.

Balance on hand from September, $1,923,145.05. Cash received in October, $477,471.45. Transfers and apportionments, $361,059.60. Total, $2,861,676.10. Demands paid, $508,803.78. Transfers, $261,059.60. Balance on hand October 31, $1,891,813.72.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

EXHUME BODY, EXHIBIT SKULL.

CORPSE OF CANYON MAY NOT BE BESOLD'S WIFE.

Counsel for Defense Hopes to Prove This—Assistant District Attorney Objects to Taking Up Remains at This Time—Mrs. Pickett a Witness, but Testimony Stricken Out.

The body found in the Temescal Cañon, and claimed to be that of Mrs. Caldie Besold, wife of Anton Besold, is to be exhumed and the skull exhibited for the inspection of Justice Young in the preliminary examination of Besold on the charge of murder.

Asst. Dist.-Atty. McComas objected strenuously yesterday to the suggestion of Le Compte Davis, counsel for the defense, that the body be taken up at this time. He said that he was willing, and, indeed, himself intended to have the body exhumed in time for the trial in the Superior Court, but he objected to having counsel for the defense take this step.

Mr. Davis, in turn, objected to the assumption that there would be a trial; he thought Justice Young had some freedom of action, and no indication, so far as he knew, had been given as to what the court might do. Mr. Davis added that he had given notice of his intention to exhume the body so as to get the coöperation of the prosecution; if this was withheld, then the defense would act independently.

This announcement came at the end of an interesting session. It was women's day yesterday. There were a number of them among the spectators and some of them on the witness stand.

The prosecution attempted to prove the marriage of Besold to Mrs. Martha Pickett at Santa Ana on August 21, but, by the provision of law that forbids a wife to testify against her husband without his consent, the attempt was not very successful. Mrs. Pickett was coy and objected to appearing in court without her automobile veil, which she kept closely wrapped around her head so that only a pair of beady eyes and the tip of a thin, determined-looking nose were visible. She said that she didn't want to be snap-shotted by any of those naughty reporters for the papers, and, as she sidled into court with her back to the spectators, her appearance caused some smiles.

The court, after occupying the bench for eight years, established a record by laying down the law that no one should take a picture of a witness, on penalty of being fined for contempt. To avoid incurring this penalty Mrs. Pickett was ultimately prevailed upon to lay her veil aside.

Mrs. Pickett is a lady of somewhat mature years, with iron-gray hair. She wore a check dress cut with a Princess effect, with a white satin flowered waist, and a brown velvet hat covered with the brown veil already mentioned.

Her position was embarrassing, for Besold sat opposite to her and she was called upon to tell all about her marriage to him. She said that she could hardly call herself a business woman, but that she sold real estate in small lots.

"How old are you?" inquired Mr. McComas.

Mrs. Pickett looked down demurely, and counsel came to her relief by suggesting that she was more than 21, and to that the witness gave ready assent.

Mr. Davis interposed to state that, from what had been said, he believed it was the theory of the prosecution that the witness was the wife of Besold, and if so, he objected to her testifying in the case. Mr. McComas said he would withdraw the witness if the defense would object to her on that ground. Mr. Davis was not to be caught napping and replied that he didn't object on that ground, for the law didn't require him to do so. It specifically set out that a husband or wife could not testify against the other without the consent of both, and this had not been obtained.

"I first became acquainted with the defendant about June," said Mrs. Pickett. "It was at his meat market on Eighth street. I had some property at Dolgeville, and wanted him to open a bakery and meat market there, as it was a good opening. He said that, after taking the trip north, he would do so. At that time he told me that he had his brother's wife here from Missouri for her health. He said that she was such a charge upon him that he couldn't go into business while she remained. He said that he had consulted a specialist and the X-ray had been applied to his sister-in-law, and the disease determined to be a form of tuberculosis, and that nothing would cure her if treatment at the West Virginia Springs didn't do her good. Later he told me that he had bought a ticket for her to West Virginia Springs, with a day stop off at St. Louis to see her husband.

"When he returned from his trip," continued the witness, "he said that he had sold two timber claims at Bellingham, and had received a cash payment of $3000, the balance to be paid later. It was about August 16 that he came to see me, and suggested that we get married, open up business at Dolgeville and build a home on my property. In August we were married."

When Mrs. Pickett stated that she did claim Besold as her husband the question of the admissability of her testimony was resumed. Mr. Davis moved that all of her testimony be wiped out, and the court so held.

Edward Smithwick, justice of the peace at Santa Ana, was put upon the stand to identify Besold as the man he had married, and Mrs. Pickett as the bride on that occasion, but he couldn't identify him, he said.

Miss May Coulter, one of the deputy county clerks, who witnessed the ceremony, did, however, identify the two as being the man and woman married under the name of Bartenstein and adhered to her statement under cross-examination.

Mrs. Martha Nichols, who keeps a restaurant on West Eighth street, next to the meat market once run by Besold, told of a conversation she had with him after he returned from his northern trip. She inquired after his wife and asked if her health had improved. He replied that she was doing nicely at the springs in West Virginia. Then he had dinner in the restaurant, and after that she didn't see him again.

When Besold was brought into court yesterday he was confronted with Mrs. Martha Pickett. For a moment she drew aside her heavy veil and Besold saw the woman whom he is said to have deserted after a honeymoon of a few days. Though counsel for the defense refused to acknowledge the Bartenstein marriage, Besold himself said rather airily, while conversing with newspaper men, that he was guilty of bigamy, but not of murder. He reiterated his old story that his wife had gone to Mexico with a mining man, and that the clothes introduced as hers were not hers.

Mr. Davis, too, while informing the court of the purpose of the defense in having the body exhumed, said that they would produce the body found in Temescal Cañon in court and, by a number of witnesses, show that it was not that of Mrs. Caldie Besold. This would be done by establishing the fact that Mrs. Besold had upon her person certain marks that could not be simulated.

The hearing was then continued until Monday morning.

ANOTHER INJUNCTION

AGAINST SAN PEDRO TOUGHS.

Judge Wilbur yesterday again administered a blow to the Longshoremen's Union by ordering that a temporary injunction be issued in the same language as the previous restraining order, pending a final determination of the suit wherein the Banning Company and others are seeking protection from the threatening tactics of the union.

The decision was given in an opinion on the demurrer interposed to the complaint in the suit, which was overruled and the order made as noted. Judge Wilbur answers the contention of the union that the remedy, if any remedy is needed, is not through an injunction, by quoting as follows from a decision of the Supreme Court, in a case where the same bitter objections to an injunction were raised: "These defendants had no right to use the means which were forbidden by the restraining order now brought in question, to prevent these operatives from continuing to work for the complainants, and that, in doing so, they are inflicting injury upon the complainants in respect to their private rights precisely the same as they would if they broke, interfered with, or clogged the engine that drove the machinery, and that for such injury complainants are entitled to a legal remedy by action. Now, this being so, the next question is, what right have the complainants here in this court asking for the restraining power of the court? Why, the answer to this is twofold: First, it is quite clear that the relief of damages to be recovered in an action at law is entirely inadequate. It is quite absurd to say that they can sue each of these persons and recover damages against them in separate suits for every little act which in the aggregate tends to result in injury. In the second place, the injury is continuing and irreparable, and not capable of admeasurement according to legal principles, so that at law the remedy is entirely inadequate. It is therefore a clear case for the interposition of a court of equity to exercise its preventive remedy, and that is the particular sphere at this day of a court of equity, as contradistinguished from a court of law."

These words, said Judge Wilbur in his opinion, apply with the same force in the action against the San Pedro Longshoremen's Union.

In the same decision of the Supreme Court the formal judgment is quoted by the judge, and made part of his opinion. It reads as follows:

"Now therefore, it is ordered, adjudged and decreed, that all and each of the defendants herein are hereby enjoined and restrained from interfering with, or harrassing, or obstructing plaintiff in the conduct of its business, at any of its places of business or causing any agent or agents, representative or representatives, or any picket or pickets, or any person or persons, to be stationed in front of or in the immediate vicinity of such places of business, with a placard or transparency having on it any words and figures as alleged in the complaint herein, or any placard or transparency having words or figures of similar import, and at said places of business, or in front thereof, or in the immediate vicinity thereof, by means of pickets or transparencies or otherwise, threatening or intimidating any person or persons, transacting or desiring to transact business with said plaintiff, or being employed at said place or places by the plaintiff."

AUCTION Sale
ORIENTAL RUGS

An event of great importance to every household. It is a bonafide sale conducted in its own store and department by a reliable concern which stands back of every transaction. The sale

Begins Monday, November 12th
Sales Each Day Next Week
At 10:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m.

We will offer a collection of Oriental Rugs larger than the stocks of all the rug stores and departments of Los Angeles combined.

We will reserve nothing—every rug will be sold and you will name the price.

Understand, please, this is not a scheme to dispose of unsalable odds and ends, but a genuine sale of every oriental rug we possess.

The rugs are now on display. The regular selling prices are there in plain figures. You can make your selection today and they will be put up for sale whenever you say.

The Reason?

A natural question. We want to advertise in some striking and substantial way our store, particularly the Oriental Rug Department. We want you to come in and look around. We want you to know us better. We want you to share in the great rug bargains during this sale. We will consider the loss a good investment.

For fully one minute the cloud of dust hung over the building like a pall and then it settled and where the center building had stood I could look out and see the ocean beyond."

CORONER ON HAND.

Coroner Trout appeared at the building about 3 o'clock and held a consultation with the contractors, engineers and architects in charge. He said he would summon every one of them before Monday to explain the cause of the disaster. He reserved any opinion in the matter until evidence can be gathered as to the method of construction used, and the care taken by the contractor to guard against such an accident.

GHASTLY IRONY WITH TRAGEDY.

SWEATING COOLIES INSTEAD OF BEAUTY IN PATIO.

Scenes That Burn Into Memory Witnessed by Thousands—Disaster Said to Have Sounded Like the Roaring of an Angry Sea—Swift System and Order.

The avalanche of twisted iron and cement that went crashing through floor after floor, from roof to ground, finally poured into a pretty patio where a little perfumed fountain was some day to have played.

Instead of women in dinner gowns, it was Fate's irony that the first people to spend the evening there should be sweating Jap coolies dragging dead crushed bodies out of a mountain of twisted debris; that the first music to which it should be attuned was the hoarse puff and blow of a steam wrecking crane, and the "Ho-he" of gangs of workmen pulling on wrecking hawsers.

There were many eye-witnesses to the whole disaster.

Most of them agreed that it sounded like the roaring of the sea.

One man who was standing across the street when the floors went down said that it sounded like the pounding of a heavy sea, sending in breaker after breaker crashing in on a hard beach as the successive floors were carried away.

A woman who was walking on the sidewalk opposite the half-built structure thought it was a tidal wave and ran for her life through the park to get away from the ocean front.

It began with a slight downward heave. Some of the workmen on the top floor felt the quaver and fled into the wings and were saved.

From the first quiver, the cement broke into a stream of pulverized material that flowed gently, like sand poured from a child's hand; then increased in volume until the whole center of the vast structure went roaring down in a cloud of dust that rose high over the building like smoke from a big fire.

The sound was heard far away in the office buildings in town, and people swarmed down to the front in thousands, automobiles filled with hatless men racing with boys on bicycles, weaving in and out a hurrying, jostling river of breathless, horrified humanity.

IMPRESSION IMPOSSIBLE.

A vast, turbulent crowd rushing into the gaunt skeleton of a building and rushing out again, bumping into each other; rushing in when a groaning body was torn from the wreck—rushing out in crazy panic lest the building should be falling again.

On the ocean side the first watchers saw a workman—hatless and insane—come to a third-story window in one of the wings and jump out, light in a heap on the sand, scramble to his feet and hobble away with a sprained ankle, running like a wounded bird—he knew not where—down the beach.

Some persons claim that they saw one of the black specks leap from the debris as it fell, gain a footing on one of the floors and thus find safety.

They say the freight elevator which carried wheelbarrows to the top of the building could be seen rushing up and down at full speed, striking successively the top and bottom of the shaft with a terrific bump and rebounding.

Out of the frantic chaos came a strong, cool voice, in the accents of a negro, ripping out orders like a veritable black Napoleon. It will never be known certainly who this man was; it wouldn't be worth while to know; he would probably turn out to be some entirely undesirable person. Heroes won't do for a steady diet. But he lived his deified moment and was glorious.

They say that while the building was still trembling from the shock the negro rushed in, climbed into the smoking debris and issued orders through the haze of falling plaster that all men jumped to obey.

One of the first men who came to the scene was a private in the Long Beach militia company. He ran back to town, passing the word from one man to another. Just at a time when the few policemen were in despair of keeping the crowd from absolutely stampeding the work of taking out the wounded, a company of neat khaki soldiers came swinging down the road at double time. A string of sentries with fixed bayonets were planted on four sides of the building and great hawsers were strung to keep back the gaping, morbid crowds.

Military tents were set up in the ruins and cook fires lighted for the camp dinners—as though they had been there always.

ORDERLINESS OF IT.

The wonderful feature of any disaster in America is the swift system that takes possession of it. In an hour one would think that Long Beach had a hotel disaster every morning promptly at 9:45, and had got used to handling them.

At the top of the hill stood a tall, calm man in a derby hat, who was in sole command—the Mayor of the town. He coolly "sized you up" and gave you a written pass through the sentry lines.

The long shriek of a locomotive sounded from down the beach, as the Salt Lake whirled in a special train with a huge steam crane from the water front. Its shriek was answered by the toot of an electric car loaded with Japs and Mexicans rushed in from the Pacific Electric and Salt Lake grading gangs.

Little brown men took up the handles of the barrows in the place of dead hands and worked with silent, tense unexcited zeal. Their section bosses took command and directed this way and that—as though it were merely a railroad cut.

One stout-hearted woman—across the street—took one look at the dust cloud that shot like a volcano above the building and rushed into her lodging house to strip the sheets from the beds—for a ghastly purpose.

Another woman who seemed to burst from somewhere had a bundle of linen she was tearing into rags as she ran. Every woman she met who wasn't crying and "taking on" she grabbed and tied a rag about her arm.

Thus was the White Cross of Long Beach organized in five or six minutes.

It's members ought never to be forgotten—and will never be known.

All day and nearly all night, two splendid, cheerful women stood in the midst of the workmen—waiting. Their mission was to hastily draw the lodging-house sheets over the dead faces as they were dragged out from the ruins.

They stood there until the light faded and dusk filled the ruins. Someone thrust lanterns in their hands and men's overcoats over their shoulders and they stood on through the night lighting the work of the little brown men—drawing sheets over torn corpses that were hustled back through the crowd.

Other women stood hour after hour at long tables ladling out coffee and serving sandwiches to the workers.

HORRIBLE SCENES.

The scenes that they witnessed were horrible. They heard the distant muffled cry "Fred, Fred," from under the debris, the cry that grew fainter and fainter and ceased at last.

They saw one corpse taken out—a headless trunk. They saw forms that were crushed out of all semblance to humanity.

An old man came hurrying down the hill with the unsteady gait of old age and sat down on one of the fallen pillars weeping like a child for his son who was somewhere in the ruins.

The wife of one of the workmen went insane when she found that her husband was buried under the debris. They took her screaming away in an automobile, from which she tried to throw herself, struggling and flinging her arms.

Another woman—a tall, fair young woman—came piteously begging word of her husband. They asked her the name. She stared at them in bewilderment, and sank sobbing to the ground; she had forgotten her own name.

One of the most ghastly sights of the wreck was just the timekeeper standing on a pile of débris and checking the names of the dead as they were carried out of the ruins. It was like the roll call of death.

LITTLE THINGS THAT BURN.

After all it's the little things of a great disaster that burn into one's memory.

It wasn't the sight of a corpse with one dead hand lifted on high, as though to call some one to witness—one dead hand raised and the face gone—that was not the most horrible—nor the sight of one corpse dragged out with his plumber's lever still clutched in his hand that was most touching.

All the tragedy and all the pathos could be felt in the row of black undertakers' wagons—so grim and businesslike and cold and patient—backed up to the edge of the building, exactly like express wagons at a depot, waiting for the next body to be dragged out.

BUSINESS MEN JURORS.

CORONER SELECTS TODAY.

Coroner Trout said last night that he will select a jury at Long Beach today to inquire into the deaths caused by the collapse of the Hotel Bixby structure. He said that he will choose them of prominent business men there. He will have them view the remains today, but will not hold the inquest till Monday, so that there may be time to develop the facts needed for the jurors to reach an intelligent verdict.

Five starving men on the Nova Scotian coasting fish schooner, A. M. Lewis, were succored on Wednesday by the officers of the steamer Armada, which arrived at New York yesterday.

Sale of Sixty Sample Suits $18.75

Regular $25 to $30 Values

The Western representative of one of the most prominent wholesale tailors in America, having finished his last trip for fall business in Los Angeles, offered to sell us his line of sample suits at a price rather than bother taking them back to headquarters.

The lot includes just sixty suits in all, representing the cream of the firm's output—the choicest patterns and the finest workmanship. You can depend on any firm making sample suits good.

The figure quoted us was low, we bought them quickly, and we put the price low for a quick sale, glad to give our customers a big bargain and further establish the name of Lowman & Co. as clothing dealers. Every man who has the good fortune to secure one of these suits will be a life-long customer of Lowman's clothing department.

You couldn't buy the cheapest for less than $25 regularly—the majority of the lot are regular $27.50 and $30 values. Take your choice while they last at $18.75.

Pen Points

Germany is having trouble with a court camarilla. But maybe the Kaiser will set a trap for it.

We fail to notice anything in any of the municipal political platforms concerning the street-car hog.

Of course it is quite proper that the President should go to the isthmus, particularly since the isthmus couldn't come to him.

Count Boni's creditors are beginning to find out that he hadn't nearly the strong pull with his wife that they thought he had.

A commercial journal speaks of copper as a barometer of trade. In Montana it has often also served as a barometer of politics.

If "Uncle Joe" Cannon has received a congratulatory message from Sam Gompers he has failed to mention the fact to the reporters.

Jerome and others are now saying that Hearst might become a useful man were he so minded. But can the leopard change his spots?

In the effort to drive Murphy from Tammany Hall, Mayor McClellan might go still farther and drive Tammany along with Murphy.

Abe Ruef appears to be laboring under the impression that the people have amended the Constitution of the State for his especial benefit.

The Congressional returns indicate that Gen. Prosperity will be in command of the army of industry for at least another two years to come.

If we understand the situation correctly the French creditors of Count Boni Castellane are endeavoring to induce the courts to put the bills in his wife's name.

It is generally thought that the real purpose of the President's visit to Panama is to find out whether the fellows down there have been working or just playing pinochle.

More or less fun is being made of mothers' congresses, but we don't see how they can act more foolishly than the fathers' Congress that meets regularly in Washington.

By spending four days on the isthmus, the President probably hopes to find out as much about conditions there as Poultney Bigelow did in a part of one afternoon.

Lord Kelvin says that 20,000,000 years ago the earth's surface was so hot that water could not rest upon it. Even now it gets so hot that some people can't rest upon it.

In Seattle a man must pay an extra tax on each of the children in his family over the number of eight. Neither Seattle nor any other city will get rich on that proposition.

In Texas members of the Legislature will be allowed to accept passes from the railroads. In other States the members will have to content themselves with something that represents a pass.

The newspapers frequently call attention to "a romance that ended in a wedding." But you will have to hunt up a lot of old files to find an account of a wedding that ended in a romance.

Let us commend to all our fellow-citizens who are growing gray-headed and gray-hearted over the tasks they set themselves to do, the Roosevelt ian method of combining hard work with pleasure.

In reading a tariff war with the United States, the Germans should take courage from Gov. Cummins of Iowa, who jumps into a tariff war with the United States every morning as soon as he gets out of bed.

The town of West Bridgewater, in Massachusetts recently celebrated its first church wedding in a period of forty years. And that reminds us of the fact that when church weddings were in fashion divorces were not.

Mrs. Peary says she will "follow her husband as far as possible when he goes north again." A great many other women have tried to do the same thing when their husbands were going south, but found that they were ultimately compelled to give up in despair.

Kansas City is deploring the fact that one of its large halls was filled with spectators who were in attendance on a prize fight and that the next week an art exhibition in the same hall failed to bring out sufficient numbers to quarter fill it. They do not seem to have yet learned in Kansas City that prize fighting is also an art.

POLITICIAN OR PATRIOT?

There is danger that considerable bitterness will grow out of the Mayoralty complications unless prompt action is taken to insure the withdrawal of one of the two candidates whose persistence in running against each other would divide the Republican masses and the business and law-and-order vote, promote the election of a peace-disturber and mischief-maker and probably bring upon Los Angeles the doom that has overtaken San Francisco.

So acute is the crisis and so deeply concerned are the citizens—the men who are making and guarding the best interests of Los Angeles—that the call for a getting-together has become loud and pressing. The demand that one of the two gentlemen withdraw and withdraw at once is a more intense expression than The Times remembers to have heard before from people in all walks of life with regard to a political exigency.

Public resentment is rising high against two or three meddlers with private axes to grind, like "Citizen Fixit" and his particular mouthpiece with whom "Fixit" has attempted to disguise his own impertinent voice.

Unless there is quick action it will be too late to save the city from the results of civic folly and disintegration. The enemies of settled conditions, those who would repeat the Schmitz programme in this city, are gaining ground every hour that an adjustment of differences is postponed, every hour that the breach between those who have the highest good of the city at heart is allowed to widen.

It is not an issue between factions that the city faces. Those who have been shouting so noisily that it is a factional or an "anti-railroad" contest are either imbeciles or enemies of the city.

It is not an issue between men. Both Lee C. Gates and Dr. Walter Lindley are strong and true and worthy men and, as The Times has reiterated, either would make a splendid Mayor.

Here is the one and only issue: Shall the elements of political strength and the forces of good government, which should combine and coöperate, be split into quarreling divisions, making it impossible for the powers of peace, order and righteousness to retain their control of the city and maintain it the free, prosperous and progressive Los Angeles of this day?

This is the issue, and it must and can be settled only in one way. Will one of these two gentlemen, these two deserving candidates, clever and clean men, good friends, dismiss all considerations but the peril of the hour and the good of the city? Will he be a patriot and not a politician?

To what one condition, more than to all others, does Los Angeles owe her present peace and prosperity? To what one condition? Be frank, and answer!

Will you help maintain and preserve this condition? Or will you aid and abet the disturber? This means you, Mr. Candidate! This means you, Mr. Influential Citizen! Will you, each of you, be a patriot or a spoils-seeking, grudge-gratifying politician?

TRAVELING TOWARD THE MILLENNIUM.

Scarcely a day dawns in these latest years of human history that a new record is not made in some line affecting the daily life of the people. The happy thing about these new departures from old procedure is that they are nearly all sure to make for better conditions of life and more friendly relations between the different forces in which we are divided in our industrial and economic life.

The latest departure is the voluntary increase in wages granted by the railroads and other great corporations. This move is as wise as it is just. The justice lies in the fact that during the past ten years of great expansion in all our industries and the corresponding growth of prosperity for the owners of capital which cause these wheels of activity to turn so fast, there has been a necessary increase in the cost of living. Of course, before the present moment the wages paid to labor have been constantly increased. In the building trades notably the increased pay has equaled the increased cost of living. But in many other activities there has been little or no increase in pay. This has been notably true in the immense army of persons employed by railroad companies and other gigantic corporations in doing clerical work. One might characterize them as persons living on a salary rather than on day's wages. This great army of intelligent, industrious, faithful, sober men and women who render the highest service known in our industrial life have reaped but little benefit from the great growth of earning power with the railroads and kindred corporations. So the action now taken by the railroad companies and others is eminently just.

The wisdom of this move dwells in the very important item that these two factors in our industrial life, labor and capital, are interdependent the one upon the other. If either is to enjoy any measure of prosperity it must be by the most amicable relations one with the other. Capital is quite as dependent upon labor as labor is upon capital. Those in control of the factor represented by capital in our industries have therefore been exceedingly wise in recognizing the justice of paying their employés a larger wage or a larger salary, thus dividing with them their unusual gains in these times of activity. It is better to grant any such just claim willingly than to wait for a demand. The most unwise course in the world is for those controlling the capital factor in the industries of the country to resist the just claims of their employés and thus incite discontent and antagonism and provoke strikes.

There is another good reason for this action on the part of the corporations reaping such a rich harvest from the industrial prosperity of the country. The masses of the people live from hand to mouth and will do so no matter what wages or salary they may receive. The more provident and careful members of the great army of workers, who save part of their earnings when they are large enough to permit it, accumulate capital by placing their surplus wages in savings banks or by putting these savings into a home for themselves and their families. The man who has a savings-bank book in the breast pocket of his coat, or who has a piece of ground with a cottage upon it furnishing a roof of his own to protect his family is a much better citizen than he who has nothing at stake. The multiplication of this class of our wage-earning people should be encouraged by every proper method. Capital is useless unless it is alive. It is only alive when it is in every-day use. The stagnation of our industries between 1890 and 1896 was largely due to the low rate of consumption of the products of industry. The consumption was small because the people were out of work or earning but scant wages, and they had to "scrimp" in everything applying to their daily life. Their grocery bill, their butcher bill, clothing bill, and rent bill all had to be cut down within the narrowest limits. The banks were bursting out with money that could find no employment. With the increased activity in our industries and the raising of salaries and wages the great laboring army of the country moved into better houses, bought better clothes, and more abundant food, and spent more of their earnings upon amusements than they had been able to do in the previous period. Thus the activity was cumulative. The merchants, the manufacturers, and everybody engaged in the production of necessaries and conveniences of life and all through the great class of middlemen who handle these things found their business expanding day by day and their profits increasing at a like ratio.

The general rise of wages will still further enlarge this activity on the part of the money of the country. In the Pennsylvania Railroad alone the increase amounts to something like $12,000,000 for the year. Should the contemplated project be carried out and similar rises be granted by all the great railroad and other corporations, the increase in the active volume of money will run into enormous figures. It will tend to expand and perpetuate the present prosperous industrial condition of the country. A great deal of this enlarged pay will flow back to the corporations. The people will travel more; the landlord will obtain higher rents; places of amusement will be more generally frequented; and all of our prosperity will be increased by this increased pay to the laboring classes.

But deeper down than all these considerations lie the more sympathetic relations which will be established between employers and employés. There is a spirit of discontent abroad in the world which is very disturbing. We have among us altogether too many people of undisciplined minds, coarse, vulgar, and possessed of a love of disgusting ostentation. They are uneducated, untrained, undisciplined people who have become suddenly rich. They recognize no responsibility that they owe the rest of the world. They squander these newly-acquired riches in the most vulgar display and in gratifying their own low passions, more degraded than those of the brutes. The rich man who pays $10,000 for a splendid automobile is not spending his money badly. It goes to pay the mechanics who built the handsome touring car. The millionaire who builds himself a home, even of palatial proportions, surrounds it with large and handsome grounds and provides it with costly furniture is spending his money well. It goes to the great army of workers who build his house and who make the furnishings for it. If he keeps a reasonable number of domestic servants inside and outside he is certainly helping to support the most worthy members of the community. They are industrious, moral and provident persons whose services to the world are of inestimable benefit. In all ways the great toiling army is entitled to a just share in the gains that grow out of our industrial life. The larger these gains are, the larger the share of them which should go to the laboring factor which tends to produce it.

But while the builder of a magnificent house or the buyer of a big automobile is in every way to be commended for this use of his money, there is a large number of these suddenly rich people who do unspeakable harm by the display of their wealth. The millionaire's wife may with entire propriety wear a tiara of diamonds, or a string of pearls around her neck, at the proper time and in the proper place. The money paid for the jewels went to sustain the miners in the South African diamond fields, the pearl fishers in the Gulf of Persia, and the cutters and setters of gems in Paris, London, and New York. But the newly rich, vulgar upstart who, making a fad of charity, goes under the cloak of that heavenly virtue in a $10,000 touring car to visit the poor of her city and out of fingers weighted down with jewels drops coppers into the hands of misery by the bedside of dying children—she would far better stay at home, or, still better, take to the woods.

This action of the great corporations will do more to silence the inflammatory tongues of pessimists and to create a spirit of optimism in the hearts of mankind than any event for generations.

What's the use of holding a city election? Earl's Evening Express (Dem.) has Mr. Gates elected already and gives the "figgers" to prove it. Wonderful figurer, the Express. Why, weeks before the Republican State convention it had Dr. Pardee renominated by a big majority on the first ballot; and in this case, too, it gave the "figgers" to prove it.

THE LONG BEACH FATALITY.

It is too early to decide with any degree of certainty as to the cause of the collapse of the Hotel Bixby at Long Beach yesterday. Opinions widely differ among architects, contractors and owners as to the cause of the calamity. It is claimed that casings were taken away from some of the supports while the concrete was still "green;" that the accident was due to flimsy construction; that the foundations were defective, etc. All these matters will have to be determined by the official investigation which must soon be held.

Naturally, a cry will be raised against reinforced concrete construction—for the collapsed structure was built of that material. Such criticism will be premature. In this connection it is but just to state that no structures stood the test of the San Francisco earthquake and fire better than those which were built of this material. It will not do to condemn this mode of construction because of the fall of one part of a single building, when hundreds of large concrete structures are standing stanchly in various parts of the country. Nor must the fact be overlooked that buildings of brick and stone have collapsed at various times and places.

Several lawsuits are certain to grow out of this disaster, in any event. These will assist in throwing light upon the real cause of the accident—although this should be determined beyond a reasonable doubt before any private suits are brought to trial. In the meantime, judgment should be suspended until all the essential facts of the case shall have been fully established.

Yes, perhaps it will take a few more election returns to satisfy "Citizen Fixit" and his assistant boss on the Non-Partisan committee that "there are others."

CAN THIS BE TRUE?

Brig.-Gen. William Crozier, Chief of Ordnance, has sprung a big sensation in his annual report, which was made public at the War Department on Thursday. He declares, in effect, that the 12-inch guns which are now in use at most of the coast fortifications of the United States, "would not last through an engagement of two hours, the period that would elapse from the time the leading vessel of a fleet would come within the range until the last vessel would pass beyond the range for the guns."

The question arises—if this is true, why has not the truth been made public sooner? Who is responsible? If the large guns of our coast defenses are practically valueless, why has not the fact been discovered ere this? It seems incredible that such a state of affairs could have existed for any length of time without discovery and exposure. The matter is very serious. If it be true that these guns "would not last through an engagement of two hours," then our coasts are at the mercy of any hostile fleet that might see fit to attack us.

The situation demands immediate investigation, and this will doubtless be ordered upon the assembling of Congress next month. Some method must be found for remedying the defect, if the situation is as grave as the Chief of Ordnance declares it to be.

Wonder if the Express (Dem.) has hit the mark as well in its positive statement of how the city election will go, the number of votes each candidate will receive, etc., as it did in its predictions as to the renomination of Pardee and the election of Bell?

HAWXHURST'S TYPES (NO. 7.)
THE PIONEER.

BY HENRY IVINS HAWXHURST.

The blood that spurted hot in us

We sort o' hate to go, boys—
We staked out this bully West—
And it makes us mighty sore, boys,
To lay off and take a rest.

Them days were pretty hard, boys,
When we came across the plains;
A-losin' our own scalps, boys,
An' some a-losin' brains.

But we lit upon this Paradise,
A-stretchin' out here West;
And here we squatted down, boys,
To do our dammidest.

There ain't no use a-kickin', boys,
We'll leave things in your care;
So take the reins and drive, boys,
And do things on the square.

That's how we built the West, boys;
Now be good to what we've made;
For we're mighty near the gulch, boys,
A-slidin' down the grade.

A KNOCK-OUT BLOW.

As was expected, Arizona knocked out joint Statehood by votes ten to one. It is to be assumed that Senator Beveridge will continue to proclaim, however, that the voters of the Territory are controlled by the copper mining corporations and that only the tenth man is untrammeled. It happened that the largest percentage of the anti-Statehood vote was cast in the agricultural communities, though the miners, stockmen, lumbermen and railroad men all participated in the overwhelming expression of negation. So unpopular was the jointure idea that the Republicans suffered locally because their party nationally had supported it. The Arizonans made their refusal emphatic enough to be heeded by any politician with any degree of canniness. It is to be hoped that the coming Congress will appreciate it.

In New Mexico jointure was favorably considered, though by only a moderate sort of vote, not nearly as strong as had been claimed. The New Mexicans now propose to hold a constitutional convention, to frame a constitution and to apply for admission as a State, without reference to Arizona. It is improbable that anything of the sort will be done in Arizona, wherein is demonstrated the truth of the adage that "A burnt child dreads the fire." Just now the subject is not a pleasant one to her residents. Yet Statehood, single and alone, is not far in the future and now is none too early to begin preparation for its reception. It is not at all unlikely that Republican New Mexico will be admitted this winter, to balance Democratic Oklahoma, as a political measure, if not upon the ground of merit. Such action would leave Arizona the only Territory in the Union, occupying an anomalous sort of political position, midway between a State and a colony. Because of this Statehood might be had without effort within a couple of years, as suggested, both as a matter of politic course of procedure, meantime, that the best of all for Statehood would be the development of the Territory's immense natural resources and existence in following after the leading lights of the Democratic

TO BE SPREAD IN THE VALLEY OF THE MISSISSIPPI.

Representative of a Chain of Papers Here—What Mr. Kellogg and Mr. Wolcott Say of Our Progress—The Value of Their Publicity Campaign. Middle West Turns to California.

E. E. Wolcott, representing a chain of newspapers published in the Mississippi Valley, is registered at the Hotel [illegible]. The papers with which Mr. Wolcott is connected are the Minneapolis Daily News, the St. Paul Daily News, the Omaha Daily News, the Kansas City Daily News, the Des Moines Daily News, the St. Joseph Star and Farm Weekly. All of these newspapers are conducted by Kellogg & Wolcott, publishers, and have a combined circulation of over 220,000 copies. Mr. Wolcott is commissioned to prepare a special feature story for these papers which will deal with the conditions existing in Los Angeles and Southern California.

Mr. Wolcott's article will be of special interest to the city of Los Angeles because of the wide circulation of the papers he represents is in a section of the United States that has furnished thousands of Southern Californians, and which is sure to furnish more in the future than in the past. Commenting on the purpose of his visit, Mr. Wolcott said:

"The people of the Middle West, in a large majority, have an idea that the San Francisco disaster was more widespread and far-reaching than the facts warrant. They even believe that all parts of the State suffered from the shock of the earthquake, and there is a large number among many who are misinformed that California is rather an unsafe place for investment or a place to visit. These opinions, due to the San Francisco disaster, are being eradicated, but while they undoubtedly have a tendency to retard travel to California, it is for the people of the whole country to get the real facts about California. It is better for everybody concerned. The object of my visit is to the readers of our publications about Southern California, its present, its tremendous future. In fact, I will tell of the opportunities, and probabilities of today, and statistics and illustrate what I firmly believe—that it is the most wonderful country in the world today.

"I am astounded at the evidence of prosperity I find on every hand in this city. I thought I had anticipated somewhat what I would find in Los Angeles, but my imagination fell far short of the real conditions that confront me at every hand. The papers which I shall circulate throughout Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Wisconsin, Minnesota and North and South Dakota I expect to supply about 2,000,000 readers of interesting matter and information about Los Angeles and Southern California. I appreciate the fact that it is not an easy task to tell anything interesting about Southern California, but I do expect to be able to interest the subscribers of our papers in Los Angeles in no more delightful section of America than Los Angeles."

Mr. Kellogg, one of the publishers of the papers represented by Mr. Wolcott, has a winter home in Altadena. He is a great part of many years in Los Angeles and is so deeply interested in the welfare of the State, and so firm in his belief in Los Angeles and its marvelous future, that Mr. Wolcott is here to get the story of real conditions as they exist in Southern California. As a matter of personal interest to all Southern Californians is the fact that the section of the United States in which Mr. Kellogg's papers circulate is today enjoying unusual prosperity. The farmers of Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska and the Mississippi Valley States have not only paid off their mortgages but are saving millions of dollars to deposit in banks and New York through the crops they are carrying the farmers' wives.

It is not that when the residents of the Middle West seek retirement from business or amusement in travel, they turn their faces to California, where thousands of their neighbors and relatives have gone. A mass of information that tells of the glories of California to the people of the Mississippi Valley means much to them.

Messenger Boy Hasn't Delivered Note Left Him Who Disappeared, but Who Is Now Found.

The disappearance of a messenger boy was reported to the police report that Winfred [illegible], aged 16, 723 East Fortieth street, had disappeared from his home a week ago last Wednesday afternoon. It is now believed that as soon as Davies read the note left by the lad, one of his supposed disappearance, he immediately telegraphed to Azusa, where he was, to his friend.

Davies had gone to Azusa with a friend and sent a note to his wife by the friend, telling her of his leaving. It is said that the friend after leaving delivered the note to his sister, Mrs. Minnie [illegible], who lives at Twenty-fourth and Figueroa streets. The man asked the sister to wait with him to Azusa, and as there was no time for Davies to go to the house to get a note by a messenger.

Subsequent events have proved that the note has not yet been delivered. The family was prostrated with grief at the absence after two days and notified the police. As he had just received a large sum of his home for a large cash payment, it was thought that he might have taken a trip. Mrs. L. Johnston of No. 1107 Twenty-fourth street, Davies's sister, was called to The Times to find out if he was there. His return was reported to The Times and the police

Well-Dressed Men

It's a mistake to fancy that to be well-dressed a man must buy his haberdashery at the exclusive shop. It is nice to pay a big price for ties, etc. if you can afford it, but it is unnecessary.

For example, here are fancy half hose, and plain, too, in a range of styles unsurpassed in town—we mean that—at prices from 2 for 25c to $2 a pair.

Take the question of cravats—splendid four-in-hands of very latest cut and design cost 50c, 75c and $1 here, match them with your exclusive dealers' prices.

Globe Derby ribbed wool-and-cotton underwear—a perfectly-fitting, splendidly-wearing undergarment, may be had here for $3 and $3.50 a suit, two weights.

And all the other good makes of underwear for fall, in merino, all wool, silk-and-wool, pure silk, and linen mesh, and so on down the line, come to you at remarkably reasonable prices, because we are satisfied with department store profit.

Holiday lines of men's smoking jackets and lounging robes are ready, already; jackets from $5 to $15, robes $3.50 to $12.

For Your Silken Evening Gown

A popular new silk---Marquisette "Manon," the real French goods, all silk, 45 inches wide, shown at the silk counter in pastel shades and black, for $2 a yard. Your fashion books indicate it for evening or party dresses.

Another new and handsome all-silk material for evening wear is pompadour crepe de chine, shown in five different pastel combinations, 24 inches wide, $1.25.

Brieflets

Moving disclosed a number of short lengths and odd pieces of really choice veilings, in brown, navy, black and other colors, meshes broken, fancy, plain, which were formerly priced between 35c and 65c a yard. Fifteen cents should quickly close them out.

Plenty of ruchings to sell at 25c a box of six, and fancy bits of neckwear that should bring 35c and more, at 25c a piece, this morning.

A lot of odd leather and silk belts, whose true worth is between 75c and $1, are re-marked 50c, for hurrying out today. Black and colors, a number of good styles, most sizes.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

CAR LINES RACE WITH GROWTH.

EXTENSIONS NUMEROUS FOR PASADENA CITY.

PASADENA, Nov. 9.—The officers of the Pasadena Park Improvement Company today officially notified the city authorities of their acceptance of the terms under which the franchise for the construction of a street-railway line on East Orange Grove avenue was granted. At the same time a bond for $10,000 was deposited to guarantee the carrying out of the compact and the proposed line now becomes a certainty.

Wilbur O. Dow, manager of the company, today stated that the contract with the Pacific Electric Company, calling for the construction and operation of the line, had been signed and that the construction work would begin as soon as materials could be secured. Rails, poles and wires are now on the way, says Mr. Dow, but it is feared that there may be some trouble in securing ties as there is a scarcity at present and the company is finding trouble securing a sufficient quantity for the enormous amount of construction work that is now under way. The delay can be but temporary, however, and it is hoped to have the line in operation by spring.

The projected car line will run from the present terminus of the East Orange Grove line out through the Pasadena Heights district and well beyond the city limits. The line has been expected for some time, but there was a difference of opinion concerning the value of the franchise and the matter was delayed pending a settlement of the dispute. Many people bought land with the understanding that the line would be built and there has been considerable dissatisfaction in some quarters concerning the delay. The improvement company is as anxious to have the road built as any one, however, and the prospect is causing general satisfaction.

The construction work on the new line is to be first class and modern, and up-to-date equipment is to be provided. Cars will be run on a frequent schedule and the line will be one of the best in the Pasadena division of the Huntington system. The city is rapidly growing eastward and it will doubtless be but a short time when even more of the outlying territory must be annexed. The new electric line will give access to the rapidly-growing territory and will undoubtedly give real estate in that section a substantial boom.

The Pacific Electric Company has other construction work in view and it will be some time before the company will be able to take its construction forces away from the city. So rapid has been the growth of the city and so great the demand for street-car extensions that the company has been forced to stop work elsewhere in order to complete new Pasadena lines in time.

PAVING SOUTH FAIR OAKS.

The work of paving South Fair Oaks avenue is being rushed along as rapidly as possible in order to have the street in a passable condition by the time that the visitors from the East begin to arrive. At present the street is so badly torn up in places as to make traffic almost impossible, but the contractors are working a large force of men and will have the job completed as rapidly as thorough workmanship will allow.

It is generally regretted that the job could not have been commenced earlier in the year, but there has been an enormous amount of street work to be attended to this year and the Council has had its hands full making the necessary arrangements. South Fair Oaks was neglected longer than it should have been, but it is the policy of the administration to accomplish as much with the streets as time will allow, and the officials are doing their best to make up for lost opportunities.

The next big undertaking will be the paving of North Fair Oaks avenue. If the growth in the northern part of the city continues it will be but a short time when the entire avenue as far north as Washington street will be given up to business buildings and paved streets will be a necessity. The heavy traffic over the avenue makes it necessary to provide a roadbed of a permanent nature. Last year the avenue became so soft during the rainy weather that heavy wagons chopped it up and made it almost impassable in places.

MAKE MILK BOTTLES CLEAN.

The question of cleaning milk bottles is attracting the attention of Sanitary Inspector Huddlesten, and, within the next few days, a ruling may be expected on what constitutes a clean bottle. Several days ago the inspector was shown a bottle of milk in which the bottom of the receptacle was covered with a greenish growth, which suggested that it had not been washed for some time. The matter was at once taken up and an investigation made. Inspection of delivery wagons revealed other bottles, and the inspector concluded to see that more attention was paid to cleanliness.

The cases of uncleanliness have only been found in isolated instances, however. Most of the concerns furnishing milk in Pasadena are very conscientious in that regard and customers have no cause for complaint. Several of the larger dairies have installed the latest improved machinery for the washing of bottles, and it is claimed that it is an impossibility for them to pass through without being thoroughly cleansed.

The milk furnished here is, in most cases, of a high grade and the dairymen have but little sympathy with the members of their craft who have been detected in the act of selling impure milk.

MANY TOURISTS.

The regular winter visitors are beginning to arrive and every overland train brings its quota of tourists. Many more visitors have arrived already than were here at this time last year and the prospect is that the season will begin earlier than ever before. Drivers of public carriages state that never at this season of the year have they seen so many visitors here and that never has the season opened under more auspicious circumstances.

The hotels which are open are filling rapidly, and within the course of the month several thousand visitors are looked for. Furnished houses are being snapped up as fast as they are offered for rent and real estate men have received more inquiries for houses than ever before. Everything seems to go to confirm the belief that the coming season will be not only the largest but the longest in the history of Pasadena.

WOMAN AFFLICTED.

Constable Austin took Mrs. Lizzie Dechenne into the County Hospital in Los Angeles this evening that her sanity might be inquired into. The warrant was issued by Justice Klamroth and Austin went at once to the home of the unfortunate woman on Westgate street and took her in charge.

Mrs. Dechenne is said to be suffering from an incurable mental malady. The case is one of long standing and up till lately has not caused any great worry on the part of her family. Within the past few days she has begun to show signs of violence, however, and it was feared that she might do either herself or some one else injury if she were allowed to remain at large. She will be detained at the hospital until the proper authorities can decide upon her exact condition.

AT THE HOTELS.

Maryland—Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Parke, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Gould, Chicago; F. A. Walner, Hartford, Ct.

La Casa Grande—Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Totten, Mrs. F. W. Bitman, St. Louis; Miss Vaulx, Miss Branch, Miss Kearns and Miss Crockett, Nashville, Tenn.

PASADENA POINTS.

La Crescenta Club gave a dance at the Shakespeare Clubhouse this evening. Fifty couples were present. Little toy balloons were provided for each of the guests, and the clubhouse was decorated in American flags.

Throop Polytechnic Institute and Santa Ana High School will line up in a football game at Tournament Park tomorrow afternoon. Since the last game the Throop boys have been putting in a lot of time at practice and a lively game is expected. The Santa Ana team is said to be one of the best high school organizations in Southern California.

Mrs. William St. John Ranney of No. 85 North Euclid avenue was the hostess today at a daintily-appointed luncheon, given in honor of Miss Anne Goodwin, who is soon to become the bride of Julius Nissen of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Lewis Plankenhorn of No. 346 Markham avenue entertained this afternoon with an informal afternoon tea in honor of Mrs. A. W. Armstrong of Altadena and her mother, Mrs. Fullenweider of Philadelphia. Mrs. Fullenweider has been visiting her daughter for several months, and is leaving for her home next week.

The ladies of the West Side Congregational Church held the annual meeting of their union yesterday in the church parlors. The session was devoted to the hearing of various reports and the election of the officers. The heads of bodies elected are: Mrs. J. A. Holmes, president of the union; Mrs. Emily Macy, president of the Ladies' Aid; Mrs. H. D. Norton, president of the Missionary Society; Mrs. James D. Graham, chairman of the Sunday-school work.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Wagner of No. 134 Valley street entertained last evening in honor of their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bartlett of Boston.

The Throop Tennis Club will give its annual dance tomorrow evening at the La Pintoresca. The committee in charge has arranged an attractive plan of entertainment.

Last evening the Pasadena Priscilla Club entertained at the home of their president, Mrs. Edson Harris on East Orange Grove avenue. This club was formed in April in order to provide a committee of welcome to the tourists arriving here from West Branch, Iowa. The members are all former residents of that town.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Landreth of No. 337 Galena avenue have returned home from a visit of several months at their former home in Manitowac, Wis.

CONSOLIDATION AGAIN MOOTED.

COMMUNITY LEAGUE'S SCHEME COMPREHENSIVE.

Would Embrace Santa Monica, Ocean Park, Venice, Playa Del Rey and All Territory Between Santa Monica Bay and Los Angeles' Western Boundary.

OCEAN PARK, Nov. 9.—A new scheme of city and county consolidation was introduced at the weekly meeting of the Community League tonight. It involves the consolidation of Santa Monica, Ocean Park, Venice and Playa del Rey, and incidentally territory lying between the beach of Santa Monica Bay and the western city boundary line of Los Angeles. In that territory are Palms, Sawtelle, Brentwood Park and Beverly.

The discussion of the consolidation question was made a special order for next Friday night, at which time it is promised that able speakers will be present. One of the arguments urged in favor of the scheme is that consolidation will give the beach the Hyperion trunk line sewer.

At the meeting Friday night Gov. O. H. La Grange of the Soldiers' Home will talk on "Good Roads."

INCINERATOR TESTED.

The City Trustees and a number of interested property owners visited the new garbage incinerator this afternoon. It has just been completed and cost over ten thousand dollars. Satisfaction was expressed as to results today. The incinerator is located just beyond the southeastern limits of the city, and the property owners in its vicinity look upon it as a menace to property. They have threatened the Trustees with damage suits for having gone outside of the city to build the furnace.

RIVERA SHORT STORIES.

RIVERA, Nov. 9.—Chico Gonzales was before Justice Gidley yesterday on a charge of peace disturbance. He conducted a dance on the night of October 25, which citizens considered a nuisance. He was discharged because of lack of evidence.

A party of Rivera men have gone to San Juan, and thence they will go up into the hills for a few days of hunting. The party includes George Triggs, Charles Magill, Alex Cate, Tom Pallette and F. J. Fay.

The funeral of Miss Mabel Bray was held on Tuesday at the home of her father, near this place. Interment was at Little Lake Cemetery.

CHECK SHOVER GROOM GONE.

SANTA MONICA BRIDE AWAITS MISSING MAN.

Paper on Which He Obtains Funds Is Found to Be Bad—Legal Question of Veteran's Right to Peddle Without Paying City License Is Taken Into Court.

SANTA MONICA, Nov. 9.—With tearless eyes, Mrs. John R. Manning is awaiting the return of the man she married here about two months ago.

Manning came here from the Randsburg country, where he had been mining, and spent some time visiting with his relatives, the Eugene Arnesons of Eighth street, and the Hugh Millers of Fourth street. It was at the home of the former that he met the girl who became his wife.

Their honeymoon was of brief duration, for he is said to have gone to Johnson's store with a check for $300. This was signed by a man named Schmidt, and was drawn on the Merchants' National Bank of Los Angeles. Manning was unknown at the Johnston store, and they declined to cash the check until it was indorsed by Mrs. Mabel Hopcraft, who had identified Manning. Thus indorsed, the check secured $50 for Manning, but when the Los Angeles bank was communicated with, the reply was that there were no funds on deposit there in the name of Schmidt. When notified of this, Mrs. Hopcraft reimbursed the bank. Nothing more was seen or heard of Manning.

CAN VETERAN PEDDLE?

The constitutionality of a law enacted by the last Legislature is soon to be established in the courts. A Santa Monica city ordinance requires that all persons who peddle goods, or wares, within the city limits shall take out a license. The Legislature passed a law, providing that ex-soldiers should be entitled to peddle anywhere within the State without purchasing a license. P. M. Moore, a book peddler, who alleges that he was a soldier of Uncle Sam, was arrested under the city ordinance for peddling books without having first secured the license required under the ordinance. He was found guilty this morning, when tried before City Recorder Gulninger, and fined $5. At the trial City Attorney Taft contended that the State law is unconstitutional, in that it is class legislation. Moore gave notice that he will carry the case on appeal to the Superior Court.

DOG EATS DOG.

A dog-eating dog is causing apprehension among the canine loving people of this beach. During the hours of last night a mongrel tore its way through a heavy screened porch at A. M. Montgomery's residence, and actually chewed up a husky eight-months-old spaniel. The attacked pup, while being torn to pieces, set up a howl that alarmed the neighborhood and called the family hurriedly to the rescue.

Succor arrived just in time to see the cur dash through the burglarized porch. The spaniel was found in the last agonies. One ear had been torn off and eaten, and the pup was torn and bleeding from head to tail. It died soon after. The tramp cannibal dog was trailed throughout the city, but none were able to get a shot at it. In the course of the night it attacked other and larger dogs, but was driven off.

A hunt has been kept up today for the bloodthirsty beast, but the animal has not been seen or heard since daylight. Tonight a patrolman's bullet sent the cadaverous beast to its long home, the dog having been run down on the beach.

GRADING IS STOPPED.

The last camp of graders for the new railroad in course of construction up the beach toward Ventura was broken today, and the laborers drifted into Santa Monica, and were paid in full. How long the work is to remain in abeyance is not known. Thus far only the first contract for five miles of completed road has been finished. This was done by W. K. Peasley, and the five-mile section is a dozen miles above Santa Monica, central to the 600-foot wharf that was built by the railway promoters. The five-mile stretch of track begins nowhere and ends likewise.

HURL VOCAL JAVELINS.

The outfall sewer question was responsible for an enthusiastic meeting at the Council chamber last night. It had been called at the request of ocean-front property owners in the vicinity of Bay and Bicknell streets, who resist the location of a septic tank in the South Side public park. They were called into action by the demand recently made by the Ocean Park Community League upon the City Trustees to proceed at once with the construction of the sewer.

Fearing that there was a disposition to erect the tank at Pier avenue, residents of the south side, Ocean Park and Venice turned out en masse. W. I. Hull presided and during an animated debate vocal javelins were hurled thick and fast. Several speakers favored the Hyperion trunk-line project, but legal advice had been received by the Santa Monica and Ocean Park City Trustees to the effect that the money received for bonds voted for a septic tank could not be diverted to Hyperion.

One speaker warmed to the subject because the Trustees had not proceeded to build the tank and accused them of "infernal negligence and chicanery." The point of order being raised against him for what appeared seeming abuse of the Trustees, the speaker said he spoke only the English language, and could not "abuse" them in that. The president weighed the point of order and remarked that he would not interrupt the debate if the speaker did not "digress from the facts," and then when the audience laughed he said he didn't mean exactly that.

A pacific speaker in the person of City Attorney Taft said there had already been a "jumble of history and evasion of fact," and proceeded to correct some errors. The information was developed that the South Side park had at one time been condemned by the courts for right of way for sewer system, and also that the Pier-avenue outfall right of way had been purchased for sewer purposes.

David Evans moved that it was the sense of the meeting that the City Trustees proceed at once with the construction of a tank at Bay and Bicknell. The motion would have prevailed if it had reached a vote, but adjournment forestalled action.

In the meanwhile one City Trustee is out of town and with four present there is a tie, two each voting for Pier avenue and Bay street.

WHITTIER BANK PROSPERS.

WHITTIER, Nov. 9.—The stockholders of the Whittier National Bank this week unanimously voted to increase the institution's capital stock to $100,000. The bank opened its doors for business in October, 1901. Its capital then was $25,000.

Members of the Pio Pico House Committee from the Whittier Woman's Club, East Whittier Woman's Club, College Auxiliary and Board of Trade appeared before the members of the City Council last evening and asked what the Council could promise them in relation to the restoration of this picturesque ruin. As the adobe stands on land purchased by the city for its water-development work, the organizations represented felt that it was hardly worth while to attempt the restoration of the landmark unless it could be properly safeguarded. They ask for a fifty-year lease, at a nominal figure. The Councilmen referred the matter to the City Attorney and the Park Committee.

A representative of the local W.C.T.U. appeared before the Council this week, asking it to have all places of business, except drug stores and restaurants, closed on Sundays. No action was taken.

Two young Whittier men, Wendell and N. K. Mills, plan to open a grocery store at the mining camp of Johnnie, Nev., and will take a building in sections by wagon.

Among the recent arrivals here for the winter months are: S. Sheppard of Wilmington, O.; W. Black and H. Jack of Newton, Iowa; and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wiles of Denver, Colo.

TO BOOM HOLLYWOOD.

Active Campaign Begun to Increase City's Prosperity—Trustees In Tangle.

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 9.—Hollywood realty men to the number of fifty met in the City Hall last evening to plan an active campaign in the way of advertising Hollywood. O. E. Bletcher was made chairman and E. R. Walker secretary. This committee, to act with the Advertising Committee of the Board of Trade, was named: E. R. Walker, C. E. Boag, Sanford Rich, and H. R. Blackburn.

It was decided to have removed all "for sale" signs from Hollywood property. Steps will be taken at once toward forming a Hollywood Realty Board, and a second meeting will be held Monday evening.

IN QUANDARY OVER TAMPER.

The City Trustees are in a tangle over a tamping roller. Bids were opened Wednesday night, the lowest being $23,000, but the roller mentioned in this bid is not really a tamping roller, and is covered by a patent, necessitating the payment of a heavy royalty on all roadbeds on which it is used.

If the Council throws out the bids, there is no reason why the same contractor may not bid again, and to specify in the bid the particular tamping roller the city wants to use is held to be illegal. The matter is under consideration.

NEW DIGNITY.

A policeman has been engaged to add dignity to the new jail. This is the beginning of a police force in the city.

HOLLYWOOD BREVITIES.

Services were held today over the remains of the late Mrs. M. E. Williams, mother of Mrs. A. W. Baird, at the family home on Hudson avenue.

Hollywood will have a float in the Pasadena floral parade on January 1. Messrs. C. C. Hall and J. E. Williams compose the committee.

VENICE, Nov. 9.—Frank Peltret, confidential adviser to Abbot Kinney, doge of Venice, was placed under arrest this morning on a warrant charging him with malicious mischief. J. J. Coit is the complainant, and alleges that Peltret broke into the roundhouse of the miniature railway and abstracted the locomotives and passenger coaches.

Coit built the engines and has until recently been operating the road under a ten years' contract with Kinney. A disagreement arose and Coit locked the roundhouse. He claims ownership of the rolling stock, while the roadbed is the Kinney Company's property.

While Coit was out of town, it is alleged, the engines were taken out of the burglarized roundhouse and operated. Then Coit came down and went into the roundhouse and removed some parts of the mechanism, leaving the little locomotives "dead."

THOUSAND FOR JIMMIE.

SAN PEDRO, Nov. 9.—The more or less handsome face of Jimmie Stevens, official dog-catcher for the city of San Pedro, and a well-known character around town, was wreathed in smiles this morning. He received a letter from England, stating that he had fallen heir to $1000 through the death of a relative. "Jimmie" has prepared his resignation as a city official, and states that canine troubles will worry him no more.

The report of City Recorder Smith for the month of October shows that $491.50 has been turned into the city treasury as the result of fines collected. This is the largest sum from this source ever realized by the city, and represents eighty-four cases tried by Recorder Smith in the month.

COVINA BANK ELECTS.

COVINA, Nov. 9.—At a meeting of the board of directors of the First National Bank here, held Wednesday, W. H. Holliday, president of the Merchants' National Bank of Los Angeles, was elected president, in place of Herman W. Hellman, deceased.

POSTMASTER ACCUSED.

RIVERSIDE, Nov. 9.—Charges have been preferred against William J. Bradford, postmaster of Hemet, in a complaint filed in the Superior Court by Mrs. Mattie Hankland of Hemet.

In affidavits sworn to by Mrs. Hankland she charges him with having seduced Dorothea Bradford, his fifteen-year-old stepdaughter, and also states that he is constantly drunk and unfit to have the custody of the girl.

Upon the death of her mother a little over a year ago, the stepfather was appointed her guardian. When appointed he swore that there were no other relatives of the child living in the county and was made her guardian on the strength of this statement. Mrs. Hankland claims that she is the aunt of the child, and in an affidavit she says that the statement of Bradford that there are no relatives of Dorothea Bradford is false.

Mrs. Hankland has petitioned the court for the guardianship of the estate of her niece.

In the Superior Court Bradford, through his attorneys, filed a demurrer to the charges and also a motion to strike out certain portions of the complaint. Both were denied and the defendant was given until one week from Monday to answer.

CHORUS TUNING UP.

The tuneful opera, "Pirates of Penzance," has been selected by the Puritan Chorus for its next production, which will be given some time next January. The club will devote the proceeds of the opera to the clubhouse fund which the Woman's Club is raising for a new home on its lot on Main street.

HOLTZ'S HEAVY FINE.

ORANGE, Nov. 9.—Peter Holtz was fined $300 yesterday by Justice Chandler for selling liquor to a minor. The case will be appealed.

In a runaway yesterday, Robert Hotaling and his wife were thrown from their buggy. Mr. Hotaling escaped injury, but his wife had her wrist fractured and her nose broken.

"PINHEAD" HAS AMBITIONS.

WOULD PLACE WILSON TO BOSS CITY'S AFFAIRS.

McCarthy Arrives in Los Angeles and Boasts He Will "Do Things." Says Now Is Time for Unions to Gain Mastery, but Split Threatens in His Party.

"Pinhead" McCarthy, breeder of Ruefism and ruffianism, the man who made Schmitz Mayor of San Francisco, and who tried to elect Bell Governor of California, yesterday grasped the gavel of the Municipal Ownership party of Los Angeles in an endeavor to place Stanley B. Wilson at the head of the city government.

It is his last stand. Beaten at the polls in his own stronghold, turned down by his underlings, who have learned the fallacy of graft and misguided tribute, Pinhead McCarthy has responded to a summons from the Wilson camp, and will make a final attempt to unionize Los Angeles.

Pinhead arrived yesterday afternoon and registered at the Hollenbeck. In the lobby he openly boasted that the unions of Los Angeles have the chance of a lifetime to master the city. It is the chance that he had long been waiting for, he said, adding that, if Wilson could be elected Mayor of Los Angeles, the rest would be easy.

Wilson spoke last night in a tent on Avenue 20, and at the conclusion of his talk, joined McCarthy at the Metropolitan Club, where campaign matters were discussed until after midnight. It is said that there are those among the agitators of the Municipal Ownership party who object to dictation from McCarthy, and that his arrival in Los Angeles has caused a split in the labor council that threatens an open rupture during Wilson's campaign.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

Highland Orange Growers Refuse to Make Any Sales of Oranges at the Present Time, but Are Holding for Higher Future Prices—Gathering Crop Begun.

SAN BERNARDINO, Nov. 9.—About the most novel petition for a saloon license ever filed in this county, has been sent to the Board of Supervisors by citizens of Daggett. The business men of the place wish the right to sell in quantities from a fifth of a gallon and over, and after promising to put up a bond to forfeit in addition to any fine that may be imposed for violations of the license provided, the petition says:

"The saloon shall consist only of a room wide enough for one man, who can pass through and go out at another door immediately after drinking. There shall be no cards, tables, dice, music or other attractions. No gambling of the house or by the keeper. No money taken on deposit to be paid out in drinks and no checks given for the same purpose."

The petitioners then go on to state that they will keep only good liquors, and that they are willing to certain clauses of forfeiture, and it explains that the application is not expect to make money by the saloon, but its object is to remove the foul blot upon the town and county which existed two years ago, and desires to return, and that if the license is granted to others that they will only upon the conditions as laid down in this petition.

The signers are G. B. Mier, G. W. Hunt, H. W. Linhart, H. Blumenthal, T. S. Van Dyke, E. T. Hillis, Walter and George Brown.

The petition is to be acted on at the meeting of the board, probably at which time the votes cast on the local-option issue at Daggett will be canvassed. The liquor interests claim a victory for the whisky business by one vote, while the temperance people charged that four of the votes were illegal, inasmuch as the men were not legal residents of the town.

DEATH OF JOHN ALBERT COLE.

John Albert Cole, one of the, most prominent and wealthy citizens of this county, a lover of good horses, died at his home here yesterday. Mr. Cole had recently treated at Los Angeles for his failing health for several days. While at the Los Flores ranch on the desert side of the mountains north of here Tuesday, he was taken suddenly worse, and was brought down on the Santa Fé Limited. All the members of his family, many acquaintances, had been notified, the end might not be far off.

Mr. Cole lived in Springville, Utah many years ago. For many years he was one of the leading citizens there, serving one term as its mayor. He was regarded as one of Redlands's most public-spirited citizens through his efforts the city gained a reputation for its fine horses and cattle, his Los Angeles having raised some of the best steppers on the track. Among the horses are Hazel Kinney, Lady Alice, Adalanta, and Betty Gentry, all with records.

Mr. Cole leaves a widow, his aged mother and several brothers, among them Councilman J. C. Cole of Redlands and Attorney Walter D. Cole of this city. The funeral occurring from the residence, Rev. Mark B. Shaw, pastor of the First Baptist Church officiating. The interment will take place here Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

MEXICAN LABORER KILLED.

A Mexican foreman of the Tonopah and Tidewater Railroad, building from Ludlow to Tonopah, yesterday killed a Mexican laborer who attacked him with a knife. The killing caused excitement among the other Mexicans of the construction camp, but they finally consented to return to work. Tonight Deputy Sheriff Spittler wired from Ludlow stating he has in custody several eye-witnesses of the killing, and state that the foreman acted in self-defense, and the foreman will be released Saturday to meet the Sheriff and Coroner. Most of the Mexicans are friendly to the foreman. Another serious affair occurred yesterday morning at Otis, on the Salt Lake, when John Francis, who is now in the County Jail, made an attack with a knife upon Thomas O. Williams, literally cut about the face and head. He refuses to discuss the matter.

THE ORANGE CROP.

Owing to the fact that on account of a general shortage in the orange crop they are bringing good prices, the citrus fruit growers of this section have so far refused to make sales contracts for their fruit, while the Highland states that no action there has not been a sale made, and prospects for thirty days remote, though at this time numerous crops had been sold and buying was general, yet no offers have been made. Preparations for gathering the rest of the holiday fruit, that is hanging, are now being made, and packers being in readiness. Several forces have been listed for instances.

OTHER MATTERS.

The case of Redlands was placed before Judge Oster and a jury without one of the Superior this morning, charged with robbery. Mitchell, real estate broker of Redlands, a man named Cotton on a spree at the time of the alleged robbery. Dye had been released from jail on bonds, but was arrested charged with stealing a Redlands store.

The case was this afternoon continued until Monday, when the jury will be in court when the verdict will be rendered, and created a heart-throb.

A marriage license was issued today to Charles Wilcott, native of Illinois, and Hebe Maud Boyer, a native of Florida, aged 19, both residents of Santa Monica.

MILLION-DOLLAR PROJECT?

Rialto and Redlands Men Said to Be Behind Building Trolley Roads and Resorts.

REDLANDS, Nov. 9.—It is now said that the franchise for an electric line from the center of the city to the eastern boundary line was secured by Walter Kohl, the San Bernardino capitalist, and four prominent Rialto men, whose names are withheld pending the franchise the plans of the promoters is to ask for rights of way to Grafton and through the Yucaipe Valley to Oakglen. It is proposed to erect at Oakglen a large summer resort and pleasure park, the men interested already having options on 1000 acres of the finest land in that section. It has an altitude of 5000 feet. A large hotel will be erected, together with cottages and an amusement pavilion.

The other branch of the road will run north on Church street, as provided in the application for the franchise. From the north end of Church street, right of way will be secured to Highland and then on to Mr. Kohl's resort, Harlem Springs. Mr. Kohl and his associates will propose incorporating for $1,000,000, of which $300,000 has already been pledged.

"RECIPROCITY LUNCHEON."

The Crafton Women's Club gave a "reciprocity luncheon" yesterday at the home of Mrs. N. A. Johnson, in Crafton. Covers were laid for forty. The luncheon speeches were made by the presidents of the Women's Clubs of Redlands, Riverside, San Bernardino, Highland, Colton and East Redlands, and by Miss Kate Lemberger, president of the Southern District Federation of Women's Clubs.

COLTON NEWS BUDGET.

COLTON, Nov. 9.—The Odd Fellows Building Association filed articles of incorporation yesterday. The following directors were elected for the ensuing year: C. B. Hamilton, G. B. Caster, J. D. Knox, T. J. Browning, W. E. Vaughan. The Association will proceed immediately with plans for the new three-story building they are to erect on their lot on J street. This building will be 40x100 feet. The upper floors will be used for lodge purposes and the lower for store rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Marian Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Webb Avery and Miss F. M. Fox have arrived from Michigan to spend the winter with D. W. Willets.

Mrs. J. P. Willey has purchased two lots in F street and will build on the property at once.

ALLEGED TO HAVE LEFT GREAT AMOUNT OF WEALTH.

Only $1470 Could Be Found for His Heirs, Though It Was Rumored That He Owned Mining Property and Had Large Sum of Money Secreted.

SANTA ANA, Nov. 9.—Mrs. Isabel Swett of Ellenville, New York, is the heir of William Harmon, the old man of mystery, who died at the Patton insane asylum three years ago, leaving no word as to the amount of his property and where he wanted it to go. The decision that Mrs. Swett is the heir was made this morning in the Superior Court by Judge West. The residue of the old man's estate consisting of $1470.30 will go to the Ellenville woman and not to the Harmons of Illinois, who have been striving to prove that the old man of mystery was their grandfather.

By the judge's decision is ended a case that has been of much interest. At one time it was rumored that the old man had $75,000 worth of property secreted and in mines, but Public Administrator Smith, after scouring the State for any evidence of such a large sum has given up hope of ever finding the wealth if in reality it exists.

The rumors of great wealth left by Harmon brought forth many claimants to his estate. Among them were Mrs. Isabel Swett of New York, William Harmon of Newhall, California, and five brothers in Illinois. Attorney R. Y. Williams represented Mrs. Swett and Attorney A. J. McFadden represented the Illinois brothers.

SLAIN IN MICHIGAN.

"Come at once. Brother Ed is shot dead," is all the information that Mr. Robert Edgar has of a tragedy that has taken place in Michigan. In response to a telegram bearing this information he is today speeding across the States to his old home in Michigan, where the tragedy occurred.

The telegram was delivered this morning to Mr. Robert Edgar of 1027 Logan street. It was signed by Martha Burg, a sister.

VOTES RECOUNTED.

A recount of the returns brought into the Board of Supervisors from the different precincts of the county has changed the result in regard to one constable's position and made the fight in the Fifth Supervisoral District so close that now only three votes separate the winner and the loser. The man counted out is C. E. Jacken, Democrat, of the Santa Ana township. It was conceded that he had defeated Jeff Harlin by seven votes. A mistake was made in the reports from the Fourth Ward of this city and the count now stands Harlin, 871; Jackson, 869.

The recount has made no material difference in any other fights.

WHO WERE ELECTED.

Anaheim—Justice of Peace, J. S. Howard (Rep.) Constable, M. H. Litten. (Rep.)

Fullerton—Justice of the Peace, C. K. Ford (Rep.;) Constable, L. C. Edwards. (Rep.)

Los Alamitos—Justice of the Peace, J. W. Wats (Soc.;) Constable, J. D. Shutt (Dem.)

Westminster—Justice of the Peace, A. H. Burlingame (Rep.;) Constable, M. Smith (Rep.)

San Juan—Justice of the Peace, John Landell (Rep.;) Constable, O. B. Cook (Rep.)

Yorba—Justice of the Peace, August Lemke (Rep.;) Constable, Edwin Bayha (Rep.)

DIVORCES DECREED.

Final decrees of divorce were granted by Superior Judge Z. B. West in his court this afternoon to Mrs. Julia Beeker from her husband, Mr. Andrew Beeker, and Mrs. Lena Stutsman from her husband, Mr. Louis Stutsman.

At the same session of court Mrs. Fidelia M. Ballard was given letters of administration in the estate of her father, Mr. Charles D. Scholl, who died in Tustin during the year 1888.

SOMETHING DOING CLUB ACTIVE.

ONE OF NEW MEMBERS ELOPES AND GETS MARRIED.

Parents of Miss Blidget and Cash Ramsey Learn of Their Union Through Telegram from Pasadena. Celery Crop Being Moved—Walter Smith Gets a Padding, Also Clock.

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Nov. 9.—The Something Doing Club, which was organized by the young ladies of the town a few weeks ago, has proved to the people that the name is not a misnomer, for one of the newest members eloped yesterday, it is said, and was married in Pasadena, to a young gentleman she had only known three weeks.

Both parties are well known here, but the public had no suspicion of a wedding. It was first known through a telegram to the parents of the young people.

The bride is Miss Marian Blodget, daughter of Cashier Blodget of the First National Bank. The groom, Cash Ramsey, is the eldest son of J. B. Ramsey, a contractor. The parents of both the bride and groom, it is said, would have objected to the wedding, after so short a courtship, if they had had the opportunity.

The groom had been employed at Pasadena for some time, and came home yesterday. In the afternoon he stated that he would return to Pasadena before night in order to secure a room for his father, who was to go there the following day. He boarded a car at Thirteenth street.

On arriving at Pasadena, no time was lost in securing a marriage license. The groom being 21 years of age and the bride 18, no hindrance was encountered. The wedding followed.

Both the bride and groom are accomplished musicians. The bride is a pianist, and the groom a soloist, possessing a deep, mellow bass voice.

CELERY CROP MOVING.

The celery crop of Southern California, most of which comes from the peatlands north of Huntington Beach, is beginning to move. Sixteen cars went out from Smeltzer last week, and thirty cars were shipped this week. The demand from the East is so insistent that the celery is being shipped, despite the fact that it is somewhat green.

During the middle of October a biting frost ruined the celery crop in Michigan, and California growers have the field to themselves.

The price will be higher than a year ago. The eastern market price at present is 20 cents f.o.b.

Every car which leaves here is sold before it is loaded. A representative of the celery growers here stays at Chicago during the celery shipping season and reports in what condition the celery arrives there.

Help has been scarce in the celery and beet fields, as so many of the Japanese are employed up north handling the raisin crop. But now that the raisin season is about ended, it is expected that the Japs will flock back here.

GOOD DUCK SHOOTING.

Since the opening of the duck season, October 15, there have been 2000 ducks shot at the Bolsa Chica grounds, west of Huntington Beach. The club is limited to forty members and only the members and their guests are allowed to shoot.

Most of the club men come from Los Angeles, going back with well filled bags.

WOMEN PADDLED GROOM.

Walter Smith, the ex-postmaster of this town, who was married recently, gave a treat to his gentlemen friends here, several evenings ago, in return for their kindness in omitting a charivari party on the date of the wedding.

But the ladies of the town didn't like being omitted from the party, so last evening twenty of them armed with tin pans went to the Smith home and made as much noise as they could. This brought Mr. Smith to the door, much disappointed as he thought he had settled with the "boys." To his amazement he confronted women They threw him down and gave him a sound paddling, and then presented him and his bride with a handsome clock.

BAD SCARE—LIZARD.

Man With Something Up His Sleeve Has a Thrilling Experience at Corona.

CORONA, Nov. 9.—"Cut me open. Cut me open quick!" were the words of greeting two Corona men received a few days ago on driving into W. N. Kenyon's grove at Temescal and California streets. The owner of the place, holding his right shoulder in a deathlike grip, kept calling on his visitors to cut him open.

One of the Corona men whipped out his knife and made a murderous assault on Kenyon's shirt sleeve, not knowing whether that, or bleeding for a threatened apoplectic fit was required, when out from the loosened sleeve jumped a lizard which had run up the man's arm while he was working in some rubbish. Kenyon, fearing some poisonous reptile was up his sleeve, had become so weak from fright that he could scarcely stand.

FALLS AND STICKS FAST.

Groans which seemed to issue from the north wall of Tisnerat's saloon, Wednesday evening, attracted a crowd. After completing the building a cavity ten feet deep and one and one-half feet wide was left on the north side. Into this space a man had fallen to the bottom, and he was so wedged in several persons were required to pull him out. He was a tipsy Frenchman, and escaped injury save a shaking up.

ANAHEIM REPUDIATES SLANDER.

ANAHEIM, Nov. 9.—A number of papers have published an item to the effect that bogus $20 gold pieces have been in circulation in this city. This brought Secret Service Agent Cronin out from Los Angeles and after careful examination he says there is nothing in the report. Inquiry at the banks elicited the information that nothing is known of the existence of any bad money in this city. Several months ago a few bad $5 gold pieces were rejected but since then no spurious money has been seen here. It is thought that the report was started by the idle remark made by a farmer here a few days ag

Relative humidity, 5 a.m., 75 per cent.; 5 p.m., 39 per cent. Wind, 5 a.m., north, velocity 4 miles; 5 p.m., west, velocity 8 miles. Maximum temperature, 83 deg.; minimum temperature, 53 deg.

Weather Conditions.—The moderate disturbance central yesterday over the Dakotas has moved to the upper lake region, where it is causing cloudy and threatening weather and some light rainfalls. A second disturbance is moving inland over Western Washington, and light rain is reported along the extreme northwest coast and in the western portion of Oregon and Washington. Elsewhere throughout the United States fair weather is reported. The high pressure which has controlled the weather on the South Pacific Slope for the last several days has moved to the east slope of the Rocky Mountains and much cooler weather prevails this morning in Southern California. Fair weather, with some cloudiness will prevail in Los Angeles and vicinity tonight and Saturday.

Forecasts.—Local forecast for Los Angeles and vicinity: Partly cloudy weather tonight and Saturday; winds mostly westerly.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—Forecast: San Francisco and vicinity: Increasing cloudiness tonight, possibly showers Saturday; light southwest wind.

San Joaquin Valley: Fair tonight and Saturday.

Southern California: Fair tonight and Saturday.

Arizona: Fair Saturday and Sunday.

SHARES AND MONEY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Today's stock market was of much the same character as that of yesterday. Better resistance was shown, however, to depression, in spite of the aggravation of the money stringency. Money to call went to 15 per cent., quite early in the day, and to 15 per cent. before the close. The strength of the time loan market was less increased, and the payment of premiums over the legal interest rate extended in some cases to loans for the six months' period. Loans for sixty and ninety days were on a 7 per cent. basis. The expectation became general that a weak showing would be made by the banks in the weekly bank statement tomorrow. The outgo to the interior has gone on this week, and with the absorption by the subtreasury, promises to diminish the cash reserves of the banks by between two and three million dollars. It is to the change in the local market, however, to which most importance is attached. The action of the money market for the last day or two has suggested that the banks are beginning to feel at last the pressure upon their resources due to the transfer of loans from London to this market in connection with the large reduction in the account in American securities supposed to have taken place in London at the last stock market settlement. It has been the subject of puzzled conjecture in the financial district that no effect has been shown on the loan item of the banks in the last two statements as a result of this shifting process from London to this market. So far, contrary to expectation, was the bank showing in the last two weeks that there was not lacking those who maintained today that tomorrow's statement would show a continued contraction in the loan item. There was a marked difference in the tone of the money market today, however, from that on the days preceding the two former bank statements. Northern Pacific was again a point of resistance to the depression in the market, with no news beyond the reiteration of the rumor of a coming "melon cutting." The report of the determination to capitalize the Pullman surplus and to distribute it to stockholders gave some sympathetic credence to the Northern Pacific report. Pullman rose sharply at the opening, but fell violently afterwards. Reports were circulated of intended resistance to the form of the proposed bonus to stockholders on the part of an organized majority. American woolen extended its break of yesterday on account of the decision to increase the issue of preferred stock. This stock subsequently rallied. The foreign exchange rates were affected by the local money situation, and declined in spite of the rise in sterling rates, both at Paris and at Berlin. The private discount rate also rose at Paris. The recovery in the money rate after easing off unsettled the closing of the stock market, and lifeless and left net changes mixed. Bonds were steady. Total sales, par value, $1,344,000. U. S. bonds were unchanged.

For nearly two years Mr. Gibbon has contemplated retiring from active service in connection with the Salt Lake Road's legal affairs and there have at times been rumors of disagreements, but these were unfounded. When seen yesterday, Mr. Gibbon said:

"The legal business of the Salt Lake Route has grown to such proportions that to properly attend to the routine work alone of that department, I would have to give up all my general practice and neglect my personal business. Rather than to do this I determined to resign, and my resignation will take effect December 1. The resignation was forwarded two months ago, but at the request of the management action was deferred and the resignation made effective the first of next month.

"Judge Kelly, who has been my personal friend for years, is to be general counsel of the road, is an able lawyer and thoroughly posted in all railroad affairs, and is the man of all others I would rather have seen at the head of the company's law department."

Mr. Gibbon states that he will open private law offices in Los Angeles and devote himself to the general practice. "I enjoy the variety of general practice and like getting into court," added Mr. Gibbon.

Further action in connection with the changes in the personnel of the Salt Lake Road's management may be taken at the annual meeting of the board of directors to be held on Monday, November 19, in Salt Lake City.

Mr. Gibbon was born about sixty miles from Little Rock, Arkansas, in 1860. In 1880 he began the practice of law in Little Rock and in 1884 was elected to the State Legislature. He came to Los Angeles in 1888 and began the practice of law here in 1889. Since 1890 he has been one of the foremost railroad attorneys in this section of the Southwest. He lives in a beautiful home at No. 2272 Harvard boulevard.

TUMBLES OFF TRUCKS.

Unusual Accident to Pico Heights Car Causes a Blockade—Passengers Transferred in Time.

As outbound Pico Heights car No. 210 rounded the curve from Main street into Pico street last night about 5:30 o'clock the front axle of the rear truck broke, letting the body of the coach settle upon the motors.

The crowd in the car became excited, and had it not been for the coolness of the car crew undoubtedly there would have been a panic. No one was injured and the passengers were transferred to another car.

As a work car was pushing the broken car off the Main-street right of way a few minutes later, the body of the car tumbled off the trucks and blockaded the roadway. For two hours the Pico Heights cars were run over the West Eleventh-street line around the blockade.

GREEN CEMENT WEAK

"Good will come of it," said Engineer Octavius Morgan, as he stood on a portion of the fifth floor that had not fallen and viewed the twisted, disintegrated mass in the great gap at his feet, "It will teach all contractors that there are secrets about handling concrete yet to be learned. Contractors have been in the habit of taking orders for concrete buildings too cheap and of taking too many chances in its construction. The lesson of this disaster should be a salutary one to architects and builders all over the country."

Contractor Carl Leonardt went further. He was willing to fix the blame. Following a careful survey of the ruins, Mr. Leonard gave to The Times the following authorized interview:

"From such casual examination as I could give the building, not being able to enter very close by reason of the excitement, it seems that the construction is quite mongrel in character, being a combination of hollow tiles and concrete, and not reinforced concrete as a whole. Such reinforcement as was used, appears to be what is known as the Kahn Bar system, and of an entirely inadequate proportion to the requirements, and was wholly without reinforcement over the hollow tiles, the supports for which were evidently removed before the cement was perfectly set.

"The legs for supporting the wet concrete were small and placed directly on the shallow tiles; the weight and shock incident to tamping proved too much for the tile, which gave way and precipitated the load on the floors below, which were unable to withstand the sudden shock, and consequently collapsed. Had the work been monolithic and properly reinforced the collapse would not have occurred. This is plainly proven by the fact that the corridor floor at the first story, a monolithic reinforced floor, is unbroken, although it withstood the full impact of the falling beams. From such examination as I could give I cannot say whether the materials used were good or bad. The cement appears to be good. It is my opinion that the collapse is due entirely to the method of reinforcement and the mongrel nature of the construction.

"Could this building have been constructed under the regulations as laid down in the new reinforced concrete ordinance of our city the disaster could not have occurred."

Architect Charles F. Whittlesey was one of the first men to reach the scene from Los Angeles after the disaster. Mr. Whittlesey is the architect of the new Auditorium building at Fifth and Olive streets. He was interested in knowing whether the reinforced concrete was at fault.

After spending three hours on the building Mr. Whittlesey made the following statement:

"Evidence is conclusive that the disaster is due to insufficient supports for the form work while the cement was being deposited in the forms.

"At the time of the collapse the concrete was being deposited in the roof beams and slabs; the temporary supports gave way, precipitating the whole mass with a terrific impact on the floor below. This was only six days old, but the forms had already been removed. The fifth floor gave way and the mass crashed with double impact upon the next floor below. This broke down, and in succession each floor below gave way beneath a load which was quadrupling; it was so tremendous that no construction could have withstood it.

"I see nothing in a hasty examination to indicate that there was any serious fault in the design of the work or in the quality of the material. I am of the opinion, however, that the amount of the reinforcement and its placement are open to discussion. I believe that the responsibility for the failure lies with the contractor and the engineers who are responsible for the design and execution of the work."

Half frenzied by the horror they witnessed, some of the spectators set in circulation wild stories regarding the character of the reinforcement of the concrete used. Some were to the effect that the steel was nothing but common wire netting and that the foremen and workmen knew that they were taking great chances when the building rose above the second story.

The steel for the floors was furnished by the Trussed Concrete Steel Company of Toledo, O. The reinforcing used is a patent held under the name of Kahn Bar system. There is a division of opinion as to the stability of floors thus constructed. Five of them gave way yesterday in the Bixby Hotel.

F. L. Spaulding of Los Angeles is contractor for the hotel. William Behm is his superintendent of construction. Both men were on the roof yesterday morning when the collapse occurred.

Mr. Spaulding declined to make any statement last night other than to say that the cause of the collapse would be discovered when the débris is removed from the basement of the building. He denied strenuously that there was any "green concrete" in the fifth floor at the time of the collapse.

Superintendent of Construction Behm said that the last cement was laid on the fifth floor October 22, eighteen days ago. He insists that the supports had not been removed from the center, and that the columns were too light above the third story—that is, the columns named in the plans. "For our own protection we increased the size of these columns from 8x8 named in the plans to 10x12."

Architect Austin and his superintendent are just as positive that the footings of the columns did not move, but that the top simply caved from insufficient supports. They claim to have staements of men employed on the work to substantiate this assertion.

The contract price for the construction of the Bixby Hotel is $350,000. It is estimated that the loss occasioned by yesterday's collapse is about $35,000. The Bixby Hotel Company has decided to rush the work to an early completion.

"We do not care, at present, to express our opinion as to the probable cause of the failure, but do desire to state that the design for that portion of the structure in which the Kahn system of reinforcement was used (namely, floors and beams,) was gotten out by the engineers of the Trussed Concrete Steel Company at Detroit in accordance with the formulas used by them in the design for hundreds of buildings throughout the United States, including a great number of government buildings. These formulas carry a factor of safety of four and any beam or floor figured according to the same will carry four times the load for which it is designed.

"We feel justified in stating that the design furnished by the Trussed Concrete Steel Company for that part of the building in which our system of reinforcement was used will be found sufficiently strong to carry the imposed loads, with an ample factor of safety. Further, we will be glad to have any disinterested and competent engineer or architect call at our office and check over this design.

NEVER MORE PROSPEROUS.

Hulett C. Merritt Returns from Eastern Trip and Talks About Nation's Good Times.

Hulett C. Merritt of Pasadena, a director of several large Los Angeles corporations, has returned from a well-diversified trip through the East in the interests of the United States Steel Corporation.

"This nation was never in as prosperous condition as now," he said to a Times reporter yesterday. "The 600 or more mills of the steel corporation have an annual capacity of 10,000,000 tons of finished steel, and they have work contracted that will take nine solid months to turn out. Everything is running to the limit, and I find that these conditions are true in all other lines of industry. The textile factories are practically barren of all white cotton goods and fabrics, and can not fill the rush of heavy orders that are flooding them. The net earnings of the steel trust this year will amount to $155,000,000.

"I attribute the good times more to the force of the Republican administration than to anything else, and can not but think what might have been in this State had Bell been elected. I believe that New York and California held a crisis in the nation's welfare, and that if Hearst had won on the Atlantic seaboard, and the Democratic party on the Pacific Coast, the national campaign would have been grievously affected. As it is, a great victory has been won for the Republican party and prosperity has been saved."
